A Time and Place for Everything

2000 Kiski Campus

Our high school experience has provided the framework for the many places and times that each of us will soon encounter. Facing the trials of our school years has better prepared us for another time and place, one that may take us far from the halls of Kiski Area. Every student, teacher, coach, and administrator that has ever left this school will forever be engraved in colors blue and gold. So very hard to forget are the good times and memorable experiences that became a pivotal part of our lives. These experiences, whether they occurred in the classroom, at a practice, or at an activity have become an unforgettable reminder of all the good that Kiski Area High School stands for.

An extensive number of voices have echoed through the campus of Kiski Area. Some of these voices have remained with us, some have faded with time, but never has any one of these voices been forgotten completely. On the practice fields, at games, and at competitions you hear the voices of those students who have played and fought for Cavalier pride. In the classrooms, are heard the voices of those students who brought the school academic honor with their hard work. In those special places set aside for activities, you hear singing voices, musical instruments playing, the hammering of nails, and the excitement of club meetings; all the product of extra time spent to make the school a little better with every step. Times came and went, places have been changed and forgotten, but never have the ideas that were instilled in us been forgotten. The idea that every student, no matter how different or diverse, had someone to listen to them, somewhere to go, and an interest to pursue will be carried with us throughout our entire lives.

The time that we have spent here will remain a part of us as we become some of the many voices that fade to echoes. The places that we have experienced so much in will become mere memories that we can reflect on over the years to come. However, no matter how far we go and no matter how much time passes, we will always remember that Kiski Area High School gave us a Time and Place for Everything.

—Katie Falk

Nicole Amato, Lori Rich, Shannon Kelly, Jessica Mohamed, Justin Bieranoski, Ashley Waddell, and Joelle Olszewski show some Kiski pride. Justin looks a little out of place with all those girls. Shannon stated, "I show my school spirit by having Bear paint a big 's' on my stomach before the football games." Kiski is number 1!

Kiski versus Woodland Hills was the most exciting game of the season. Coach Grimm commented on the game. He stated, "This was probably the most exciting moment of the season. We were tied at halftime with the number one team in the WPIAL. We were on 'fire' during the halftime and couldn't wait to get back onto the field."

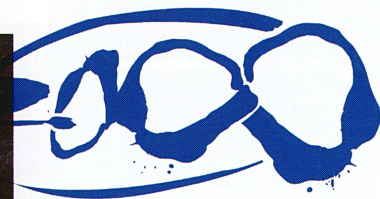

Christine Uskuraitis tosses her flag while at Davis Field practicing for the annual Kiski Competition. Christine stated, "In order to do great at competitions, we practice for hours on end." This was the 14th year that Kiski has hosted thier own championships.

Opening

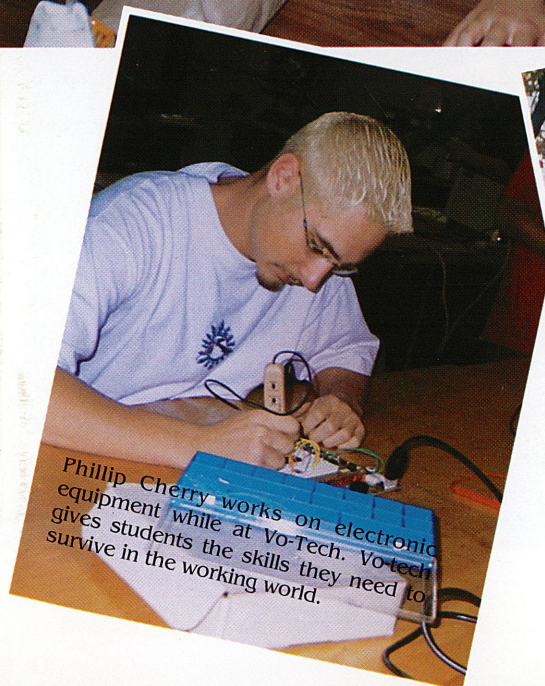

Anna Burlikowski and Sarah Kossak discuss what they're having for lunch. Senior Dave Durlancik commented of his favorite lunch. He stated, "The best thing our cafeteria offers is their round pizza and rolls. The cafeteria offers a wide variety of foods, and has something for everybody."

Charmae Pearson demonstrates how fun it is to 'Stay at the Y-M-C-A...'

Phillip Cherry works on electronic equipment while at Vo-Tech. Vo-tech gives students the skills they need to survive in the working world.

Jamie Ferraccio and Jennifer Dunlay take a walk through campus. Senior, Jennifer Tokar stated, "I will miss seeing and hanging out with my friends and also the athletic programs that I participated in." The campus of Kiski is beautifully landscaped and well-kept.

Our Time to Be

Kiski Area Student Life

"I cram because when I try to study throughout the week I never remember it anyway. When I cram the night or period before the test, it is still fresh in my mind and I can remember it more easily."

-Lori Rich

"After the football games, I like to go with my best friend Stephanie to the Moonlight Inn in Vandergrift to eat chicken wings and pistachios and talk about what happened that night."

-Jamie Ferraccio

"The best thing about marching band is working with so many people to put together a show."

-Mandy Callen

Often times you hear someone in your classes say that there are no activities in which to participate at Kiski Area High School. Well that's not true! During their time in high school, a student's life is very busy. Melanie Loughlin states, "My life is extremely busy due to: volunteer work, clubs, sports, school work, and a job." It is not uncommon to see a person running from place to place, trying to get everything done.

A student's life usually revolves around academics. They work hard to keep up with homework and get good grades. "Along with college and career choices," Gina Gwynn stated, "I have to study hard and keep my mind on school."

When examining life at Kiski, sports are a major influence on students. Whether or not you are a team member, you can always enjoy a good game. It is always fun to see Kiski play a great game. If playing sports is your thing, then it's the love of the game that keeps you occupied.

At Kiski, clubs are another big part of student activity. To name a few, SADD, Multicultural club, Pride club, Key club, Buddies, Spanish club, NHS, and Environmental club give students a wide variety of opportunities. Clubs make the school a fun place, and sets Kiski apart from other schools. Clubs give students a terrific place to express themselves. Volunteer work runs hand in hand with many of these wonderful clubs. It is amazing to see how helping others has such a tremendous impact on a student's life. With all the activities available, students at Kiski are in for a busy time.

Along with sports and clubs, music is another great activity. Ashley Mondale states, "I have colorguard practice almost every week night. Band also takes up every Friday and Saturday until November. I wouldn't change it though, because it has taught me how to budget my time and be more responsible." Along with the band activities, there is the choral programs. The choir students work hard to put on wonderful concerts and the musical every year. These programs will always be fun for those who enjoy spending time doing them.

Looking around the school, you realize there is always something to take up your time. It might seem that life in school is bleak, but if you look into the many different places you find that student life is always in full swing. Student life is booming for one reason, people care and want to make our school better and have the time of their lives.

Let the Good Times Roll

Kiski Prom

A special night, so different from everyday life, like living in a fairytale.....

Formal dances — probably the most awaited events of the year — are where enchanting memories are made, the kind that will never be forgotten.

"A Waltz in the Park," the oh-so-romantic theme of Prom '99, was truly one of the best ever! The evening began with the Grand March, where couples strode past the crowd while getting their pictures taken. For security purposes, everyone had to go through a metal detector and all purses and coats were checked in the hall. This new addition to the Kiski Prom only made the time spent there safer and more enjoyable. When entering Laube Hall, huge, dark balloon trees and ivy laced lattice lined the walls. There was even an arched bridge that was a perfect photo spot.

Once everyone was inside, a delicious, filling dinner was served. Once everyone ate, the festivities began!! Monte Carlo night, in the basement, was a big hit with a lot of the guys. Dancing, in the main hall, was more appealing to other groups. While the party was in full swing formal and telescope pictures were being taken in one corner, and a caricaturist drew hilarious pictures of dance attendees in another.

The first entertainer for the evening was a magician/comedian, who succeeded in getting more snores than laughs. However, the hypnotist seemed to be very effective. After choosing several students from the audience, the rest of the prom group watched as he hypnotized them. The reactions of the hypnotized students were side-splitting. The students acted like animals, impersonated teachers, and drove cars.....among other things.... Jessica Mohamed's favorite thing about the prom was "Matthew Hicks' impersonation of Mr. Fassio while he was hypnotized." After that, the party seemed to lull slightly as many people started to lose energy. A sundae bar was opened to help wake everyone up and the crowd was rejuvenated. As the last song rang through Laube Hall, a night full of happy memories came to an end. Everyone lived happily ever after!!

—Ashley Waddell

Lori Rich, Shannon Kelly, Jessica Mohamed show their stuff among the bushes. The ivy lattice and the night sky were just some of the great prom decorations.

Nathan Holmes, Dave McNally, Greg Crosby, Mike Domiano, and Daniel Mastrangelo show off their smashing tuxes. On the subject of tuxes, Steven Galo stated, "My favorite dance memory would have to be the time a really close friend of mine and I wore the exact same tux at the prom. We got a couple of laughs from our dates, but other than that, I had a great time." All the guys got kicks out of comparing their zany vests. The tuxes are getting fancier every year. Some of the guys are getting really creative.

Kathryn Falk, Stephanie Nagle, and Paula Begovich pretend they are 'Charlie's Angels' on the foot bridge. Paula Begovich stated, "The prom was the best! Dancing all night with my friends was something I'll never forget. I had a great time, and I know my friends did, too." Going to the prom is an experience everyone will remember for the rest of their lives.

Robyn Cavanaugh, Krista Weaver, Katherin Petrarca, and Dawn Trammell have a blast dancing on the bridge. The bridge and the park bench were the most popular picture spots!

Jessica Terrana and Beth Hommel take a rest from 'waltzing' on a park bench. "My favorite part of the prom was when Jon Vandenburg, Chris Unick, and the foreign exchange student Netto danced to 'Shake, Shake, Shake'," stated Jessica. Dancing is the most exciting part of the prom.

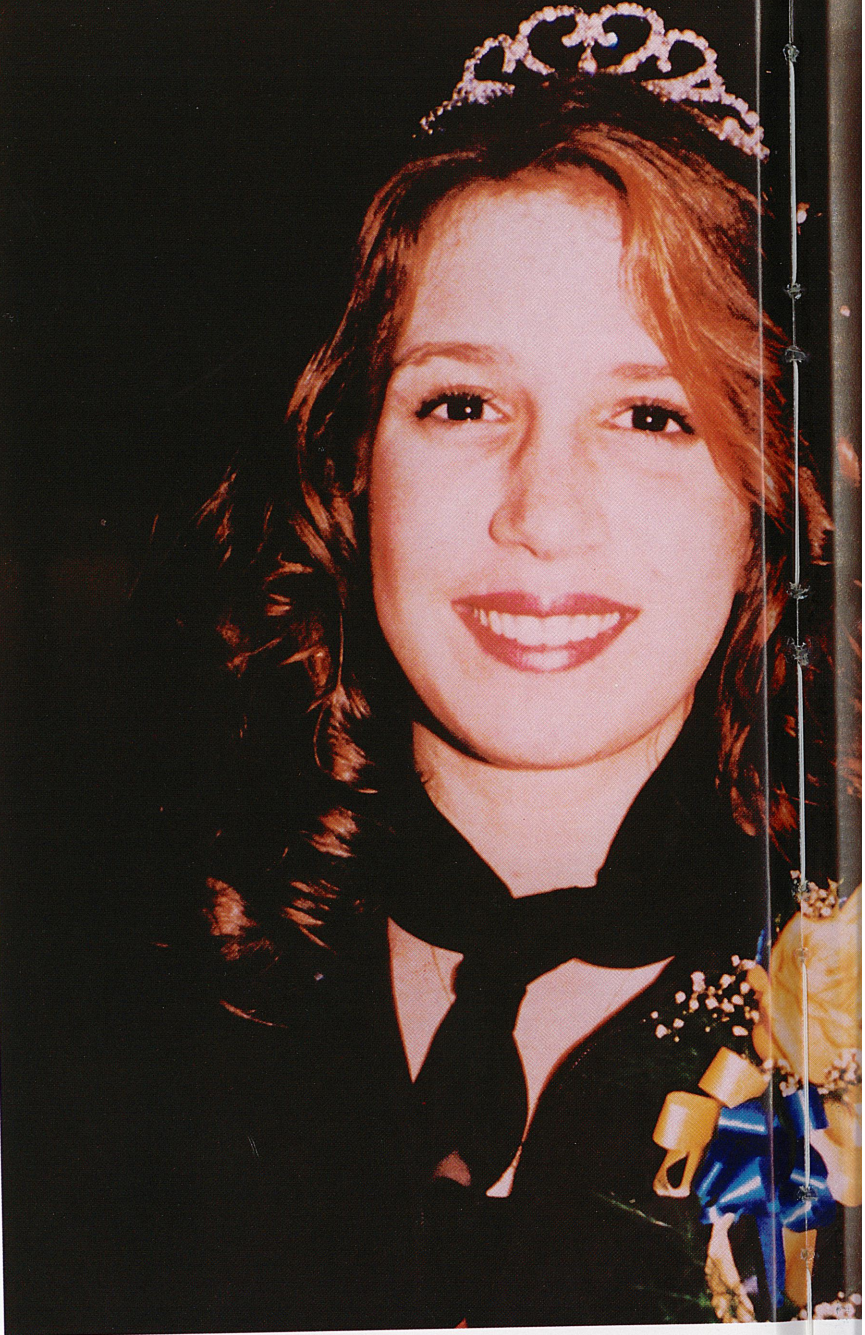

Michael Edmonds arrives to pick up his date. Mike still has the complete dressed up look. Later on, the guys take off their jackets, roll up their sleeves, and party.

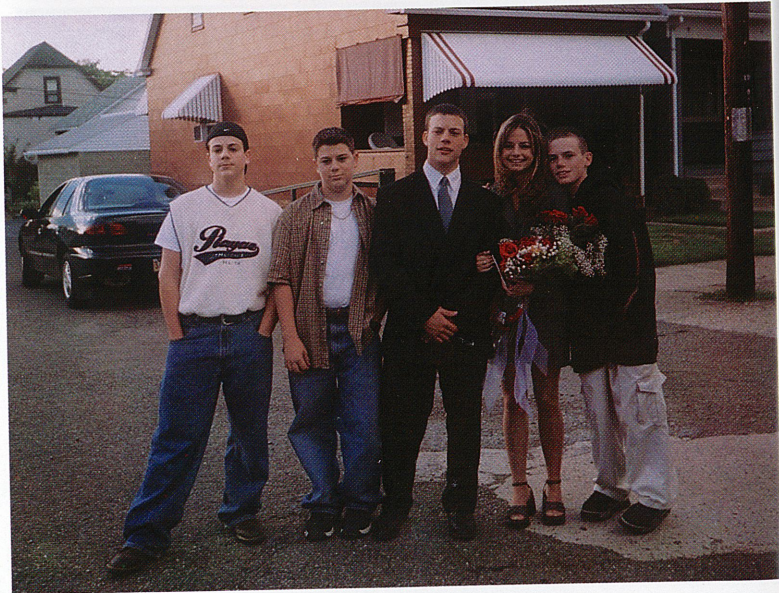

April Kirchartz, Kiski's 1998-1999 homecoming queen, and the crown-bearers walk onto the field. April Kirchartz returned to her alma-mater to crown the new homecoming queen.

Amy Hepler was crowned homecoming queen on October 1, 1999. Amy was chosen from among all the girls in the senior class. The status of homecoming queen is a difficult honor to obtain.

Lindsey Cole is escorted by Derek Enciso. Lindsey was one of six court members.

Court member, Ellie Covey, and her escort Augie Manifest pose with their siblings; Howard Covey, Alesandro Manifest, and Anthony Manifest.

Placing the Crown

Homecoming Coronation

Homecoming is a magical evening for the six lucky girls who are chosen for the homecoming court. The prospective homecoming queens are chosen by the senior class students. The six court members are picked from among all the senior girls. It is truly an honor to be chosen for the homecoming court. This year the court members included: Kelly Moreth and her escort Grant Henkel, Lindsey Cole and her escort Derek Enciso, Amy Hepler and her escort Jeremy Smail, Sara Martin and her escort Christopher Minarcin, Kara Bowman and her escort Chad Staller, and Ellie Covey and her escort August Manifest. These six court members and their escorts were honored in a pep assembly, in which they marched through a tunnel of screaming cheerleaders. The winner of the crown was not announced until the homecoming football game.

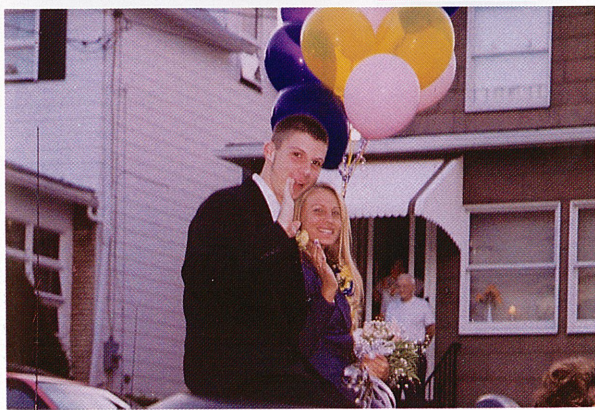

On the night of the homecoming game, each of the court members arrived at Vandergrift Elementary. Shiny convertibles are used to transport the girls and their escorts to the field. The girls paraded through Vandergrift waving to the crowd and throwing candy. Kelly Moreth stated, "The best part of homecoming was riding in the convertible and throwing candy. Grant got to practice his pitch with sweet tarts!" All the people on the parade route, young and old alike, really loved the candy!

At half-time the marching band performed their song, "One Hand, One Heart" as the court walked onto the field. Each of the court members were escorted by their date and their parents. Friends of the members cheered everyone on from the sidelines. The crowd got quiet as the announcer said, "And the 1999-2000 homecoming queen is .....Amy Hepler!" Amy seemed elated, and it was obvious that the crowd was behind her. Amy was crowned by the 1998 queen, April Kirchartz. The cute crown bearers were the only ones who could draw the attention away from Amy. Louisa and Theresa Gibson were adorable in their matching black coats.

Coronation was an enjoyable experience for everyone who attended. Amy Hepler commented on her favorite memories. She stated, "What I'll remember most from homecoming was all the support from my friends. I'll never forget looking up in the stands and seeing them cheer as I walked onto the field. Without all my amigos, the evening wouldn't have been the same." Homecoming is one of the memorable experiences that occur during our high school career. Memories of nights like this last forever.

—Kathryn Falk

Kara Bowman and Chad Staller ride in a convertible on the way to the field. When asked about homecoming, Kara stated, "Homecoming was a very memorable experience. I was honored to be selected on the court." Kara is very active in both in school and extracurricular activities.

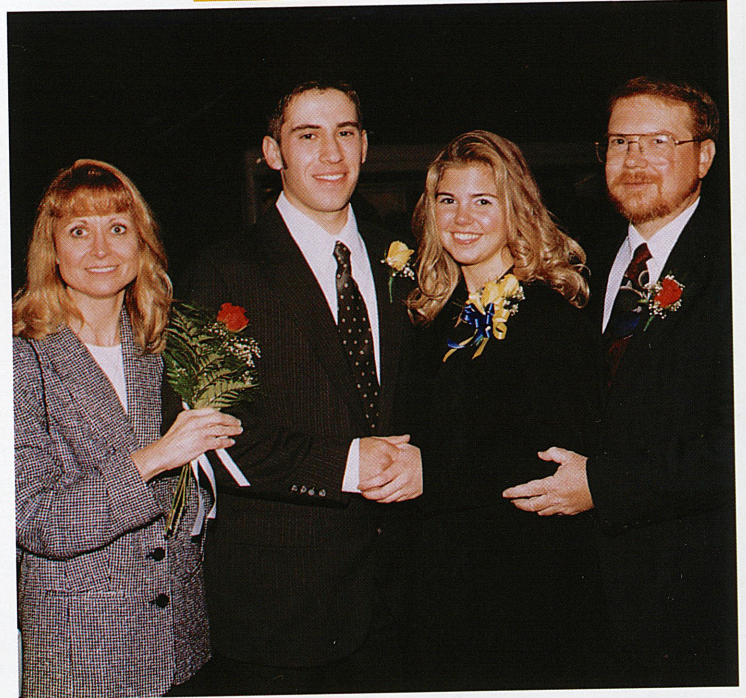

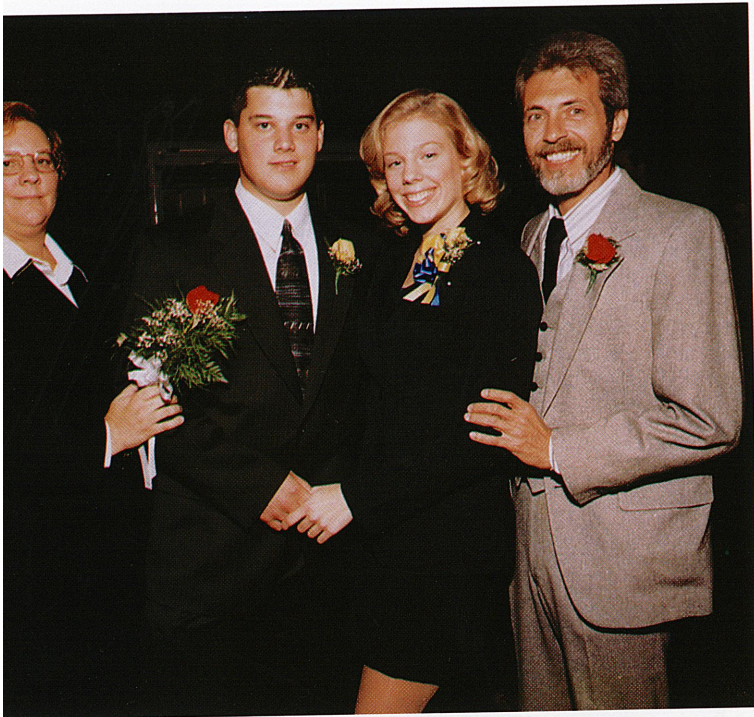

Sara Martin, Kelly Moreth, and Amy Hepler pose at Vandergrift Elementary before they get in their cars. Kelly stated, "Homecoming was tons of fun. I was so happy to be on the court." The homecoming court show their pride in Kiski by wearing blue and gold flowers.

Senior Bill Stephens takes a break after a tough workout in the ring. He travels back and forth to Pittsburgh to further his skills in boxing.

Ashley Waddell and other members of her bible quiz team pose after their Bible Quiz Championships. Ashley has won second place in the Regional Championships, and first place in the Michigan Tournament.

In The Least Likely Of Places

Student Body Hidden Talents

There are many students in Kiski Area High School that have excelled in areas other than school work and school-related activities.

These students have learned many important skills that will become beneficial to them in the future. Even with their busy schedules, they learned discipline, time management, and organization.

Ashley Waddell has been a member of Bible Quiz at Assemblies of God for 5 years. This is a church activity that brings teenagers together and challenges them to achieve what may seem like the impossible. Each year a different book of the New Testament is given out to the students, with the expectation that they will read, learn, and memorize it. After much practicing, there are competitions held to test their knowledge. So far, Ashley has received the memorization award, the high score award, two third place ties in the regional, and first in the Michigan Tournament.

Amanda Armitage spends most of her free time at the gym in North Park. This gym is where she has practiced gymnastics since she was in third grade. When asked what influenced her to join gymnastics, she replied, "My friend Julie Rametta and I decided to try it (gymnastics) out." Like in many things, gymnastics requires a lot of practice and dedication. On an average week, Amanda spends 18-20 hours training in the gym. That would be about 76 hours a month, 912 hours a year, and 7300 hours since she started gymnastics! However, all of the time and dedication payed off when she recently placed first on the uneven bars at the State Championship.

Bill Stephens knew his "hidden talent" was boxing as soon as he started last November. He trains with his coach in Swissvale about 6 days a week. He has competed in competitions and exceeded his own goals he had set for himself. He placed first in the Golden Gloves Competition in the sub-novelist division. This is a match between opponents that are both experienced and skilled. These competitors are considered to be the best in the area. Bill won this very prestigious award after just beginning his boxing career. He said that boxing has given him self-confidence that is used not only in the ring, but in life in general.

Kara Bowman has been drag racing for two years, and is completely 'hooked' on it. After school she is either fine tuning her "Charger" or practicing on the Keystone Race Track. The sport of drag racing has been in her family ever since she can remember. She recently won first place in her class, which qualifies her to compete with other high school students in the state. She said her most memorable experience was when she won first place. It wasn't the fact that she beat everyone else, it was the satisfaction that she built her drag racer herself. She finds competing in drag racing very self-gratifying.

Kelly Moreth has been roller skating since she was 7 years old. She still finds it just as exciting and rewarding now as she did then. Her grandmother is the person accredited for introducing roller skating to her. Kelly practices three times a week. Her training includes a private lesson from Laurie Schwartz, a skating instructor. She trains at the Tarena in Tarentum. Roller skating has taught her both time management and self-discipline. So far competing in Nationals has been her most memorable experience.

Although this story only mentions five individuals, there are many students at Kiski Area High School with special talents. There are many students who display their talents on a daily basis.

—Casey Conroy

Far Away Places

Featured Summer Vacations

Is there a perfect time to go on a vacation? Is there a perfect place to spend those summer days? There are thousands of vacation spots all over the world. Where's Kiski's favorite place to go?

A lot of students like to go to the beach with their friends and families. There are thousands of beach resorts up and down the coasts. One of the more popular beaches is Ocean City, Maryland. There is a lot to do and experience in Ocean City. When you hit the beach you can surf, swim, get a tan, or check out all of the cute guys and girls that walk by. Everyone has their own reason for loving the beach. "I like the beach because it's peaceful and I like to find seashells," states Andrea Aikens.

There are many different places around the U.S. that you may find interesting. Maybe you like to visit relatives in the heat of Arizona or go on a cruise to a mystical Caribbean island. Then, of course, there are always the happiest places on earth, Disney World and Disneyland. Going somewhere new or different is a great chance to meet new people and make friends. Traveling is something that everyone should experience because it opens your eyes to unique ways of living.

Family vacations are fun for everybody, but sometimes people want to take trips with their friends. Friend trips give you a chance to do some planning, pick where you want to go, and be with your favorite people. You can have lots of fun with your friends in new and different places. You can take in the surroundings and live it up for awhile. Going on trips with your friends can be bonding experience and make your vacations way more exciting.

Some people love to travel to far off countries. Many people from this area have been to Canada because it is so close and so similar to the U.S. However, traveling to a country that is a long way from Western Pennsylvania can be a true learning experience. Cultures and life styles

Nicole Amato, Natalie Funk, Kelli Snyder,

Lindsey Cole, and Ashlee Yingling synchronize swim on their hotel room floor.

"The sun wasn't hot, but at least the guys were!" stated Ashlee. They spent a fun-filled week in Ocean City, Maryland.

in other countries differ so greatly from our own. Tim Retter stated, "I was in Bogota, Columbia; South America. There were a lot of soldiers walking around the streets. Security was high because of all the robberies that took place." Some people take the time to meet new people while they're in other countries. When asked about her favorite country teacher Mrs. Love stated, "Guatemala, because of the cultural diversity mix of Hispanic and indigenous people."

Maybe you don't like to go on vacation in the summer. Do you love to go to ski resorts? There are lots of things you can do at a ski resort such as snowboard, ski, or hang out in the lodge and drink hot cocoa. There are lots of great places to ski right here in western Pa. That could be a great place to take a much needed winter vacation.

Everyone has there own favorite vacation spot, and there own fun summer and winter memories. There are tons of fun places to go for great vacations and lasting memories. Just remember — It doesn't matter where you go or who you go with; just as long as you have fun!!

Ilysha Evelyn

Student Life

Nicole Bozzarelli, Lindsey Cupec, Kristen Zullo, and Carrie Armstrong take time out from their busy summer schedule to hang out on the porch. Nikki stated, "We had a great time hanging out and going places everyday." Summer holds times that we will never forget.

Danielle Fabrizi, Jessica Fabrizi, and Michelle Stackiewicz strike a pose while on their vacation to the beach. Catching waves and getting a tan are great summer pastimes!

Sherri Rainelli and Robert Bowser stop for a picture on their vacation to Niagra Falls. Niagra Falls is a great place to experience the great views and the wax museums.

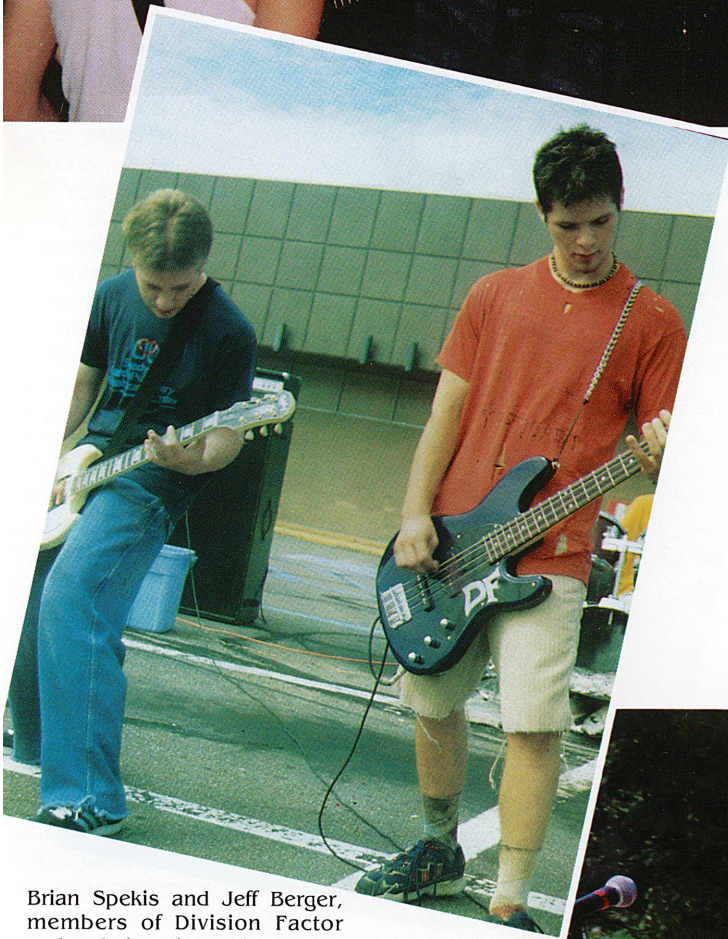

Mackenzie Fullerton and Megan Jeter are put in the stocks in Williamsburg, Virginia. The chorus competed at Busch Gardens and brought home several first place trophies.

Bobby Kimble, Bill Stankay, and Jason Rollinger prepare to perform. Their band, Launch, has won Kiski's Battle of the Bands in past years and they can be seen in various clubs throughout the area.

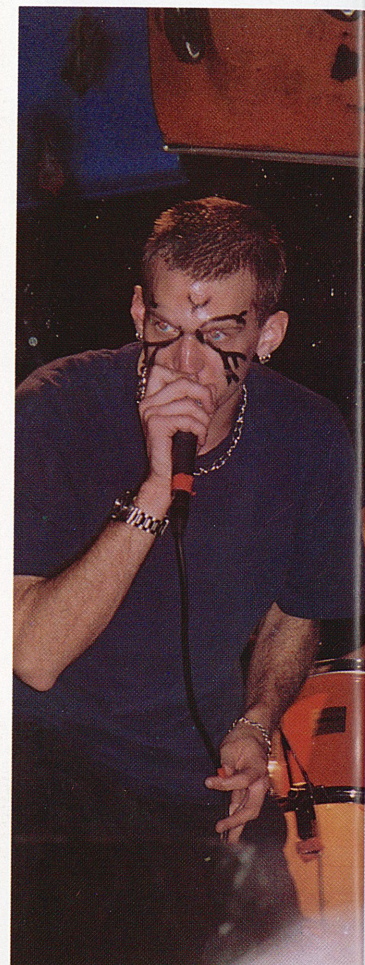

Brian Spekis and Jeff Berger, members of Division Factor make their guitars sing. Brian Spekis states, "Playing live is a blast! It's like opening yourself up to the audience and sharing everything that's inside of you. Courage is never a factor!" Division Factor has created quite a stir with their music.

Jason Rollinger displays his talent on the guitar. Jason comments on playing live, "It's getting ready to go crazy, and put on one heck of a show!" Launch has put on many crazy performances.

Launch lead singer, Bill Stankay, marvels the crowd at Metropol. Bill comments on the experience, "We really like playing at Metropol. Our crowd was 'off the hook'. They showed their support by making tons of noise. We would like to thank everyone who came. Much respect to you all." Metropol is one of Pittsburgh's hot spots.

Jeff Berger plays his guitar outside of JCPenney in Lower Burrell. He founded Division Factor. Jeff commented on his band. He stated, "The best thing about playing live is hearing the fans' responses. So much time and effort is put into our music. It is nice to get some direct feedback." Division Factor has been seen playing locally and in Pittsburgh.

Time to Jam

Student Musicians

Music is an important interest at our school. The first thought that comes to mind for many students when they think of music is the marching band or chorus. In actuality, there are many other kinds of music appreciation that goes on in our school. Many students at Kiski have their own bands and play locally.

One of the most popular student bands at our school is Launch. The members of this band include Bill Stankay, Bobby Kimble, Jason Rolinger, and Dave Coulter. The band has been together for six years. Bill comments, "It definitely wasn't easy keeping the band together all the way through junior high and high school, but when we play we have great chemistry and we have a great time doing it." Their music can be classified as heavy rock alternative style. In the past they have played at Grafitti, Edinboro College, and other local events. One of their recent appearances was in Pittsburgh at Metropol. Lisa Cunningham stated, "Launch performed excellent at Metropol. Maybe in a couple of years, we will see them on MTV!"

Another one of our great bands is Division Factor. They also performed at Metropol. There are a total of four members in the band but only two of them, Jeff Berger and Brian Spekis, attend Kiski. Their music is very similar to Launch's. It is also heavy rock.

There are many emerging musicians around campus. You can almost always hear someone talking about recent auditions, music lyrics and rhythms, or starting their own garage band. Autumn DeLellis stated, "The music at Kiski is interesting because each of the musicians have their own qualities and styles that make their music unique."

As you can see, it's time for student musicians to emerge and be recognized. Not everyone can be a great musician, but it's fun to listen to the different kinds of music that other people make. It's worth taking the time to attend some local concerts to see what terrific music the students at Kiski create!

Jayme Jones

Brian Spekis jams in the limelight. He sings lead in Division Factor, a band which performs in various local establishments.

Time to Get Fired Up

Kiski Pep Rallies

School spirit here at Kiski is alive and kicking thanks to a revival in recent months. One has only to walk through the halls to see evidence of its vitality — lockers decorated in shiny blue and gold garland, face paint on the true KA fans, and slogans cheering on the teams skillfully painted backwards on the windows.

Fridays in September and October just wouldn't be the same without pep assemblies, shortened periods, and Melanie Loughlin donned in blue and gold. During the afternoon pep rallies, the cheerleaders and the pep band get the entire school in the mood to cheer on the sports teams. "Pep assemblies are great," enthused Jennifer Gould, a junior. "Yeah," agreed Mary Gaj, also a junior, adding, "They're a great way to show school spirit and support, especially when you can't go to the games."

Speaking of games, many students endured nippy temperatures and a crowded student section to cheer on our football team who, despite their record, were winners in our book. Other students go to the games for the social experience — where else can you find so many members of our student body in the same place on a Friday night? But even if you're there mainly for the exciting gossip, you can bet you'll leave with blue and gold confetti in your hair.

Spirit weeks are another proud tradition here at Kiski. While some students just enjoy the convenience of being able to wear their pajamas to school, many also recognize the importance of pulling together as a student body. One student mentioned how spirit weeks involve the faculty also, saying, "Sometimes even the teachers participate — remember when Ms. Reynolds, Mrs. Gibson, and Mrs. Sites dressed as triplets?" Some of the great spirit days in the past have been crazy socks day, clash day, hippie day, twin day and tie-dye day.

We can all agree with Holly Camara's statement, "School spirit is something Kiski has a lot of. Everyone is supportive, even if we lose." From the band to the cheerleaders, the football team to the Pride Club, Kiski brings it all together with pep assemblies, football games, and spirit weeks.

— Beth Hommel

The best thing about pep assemblies is the shortened afternoon periods. Give me a K-I-S-K-I!!!

Cara Castelli sports a blue and gold beanie and pigtails at a football game. Cara made up her own cheer. Cara yelled, "Kiski, Kiski Cavaliers! Listen to me shout my cheers!"

Jared Tierney and Rich Ogden sport blue and gold face paint at a Kiski football game. Yes, yes, yes we do! We got spirit how about you?

Jackie Gorman blows bubbles in the stands at a football game. The bubbles shine with blue and gold reflected from the stands.

Close your eyes. Picture Mr. Fassio in a basketball uniform making a championship winning lay-up at the buzzer. Keep your eyes closed. Picture Mrs. Kettering playing a band instrument and Mr. Jewart singing beside her. Now picture Mr. Woitas sliding into homeplate to score the game winning run and Ms. Reynolds and Mr. Fantaski holding their hands up to answer a question. Okay, where are you? Do you give up? You, my friend, are at Kiski Area High School. That's right, our very own "Big K."

Although Kiski Area High School is less than forty years old, it has a rich history of academic achievers, athletic superstars, and instrumental legends. And I'm willing to bet that you wouldn't believe who some of these outstanding people are.

Since KAHS opened its doors in the spring of 1962, it has seen many changes. Changes have occurred in many forms, including the layout of the campus, the buildings, and the surrounding environment. The list of differences from "Past Kiski" to "Present Kiski" could fill a book! However, the most important and probably the most obvious changes have taken place in the faces that have walked the halls of our high school.

I decided to do some research and found that more than two dozen current teachers are graduates of Kiski Area High School. We have pictured eight of them and have listed the names of the others. It was very interesting to discover what some of the faculty did as teenagers. Although some of their clubs and organizations are long gone, it's great to know that Cavalier Pride has withstood the test of time!

Matt Hicks, Nick Brady, and Beau Key spend their Friday nights at Davis Field cheering on the football team. Football games are a great place to spend time with your friends.

Justin Bieranoski and Bill Stan-kay are ready for a night out on the town. These tight get-ups are sure to drive the ladies wild.
Don't they look buff in leather?

Colleen Greece, Amanda Gentile,
Sara Tursky, Jane Martin, and Gina Hall eat pizza at the Olive Garden in Monroeville. Great food and great friends make for a perfect night out.

Your mission if you choose to accept it — is to have fun! Michelle Stackiewicz, Cierra Sample, Jessica Fabrizi, Missy Kowalski, Meghan Ferris, and Danielle Fabrizi are the members of Mission: Impossible.

On Our Own Time

Kiski Night Life

After a long week of school, highlighted piles of homework and lots of tests, the students of Kiski Area are looking to relieve some stress and have a fun time. What do Kiski students do on their own time? Jack Miller commented on his weekend activities. He stated, "On Friday nights and Saturday afternoons I enjoy watching the old pigskin fly around. When Saturday nights roll around, you'll find me at the nearest party." Sporting events such as Friday night football games are definitely great places to go hang out with your friends. After the games you can usually find most students at a nearby party or a get-together at a friend's house. We know sporting events and parties are awesome things to do on weekends, but what do we do when we want to get away from Kiski for awhile and find a different kind of excitement?

Places like Jetz and Coconuts dance clubs are very popular and are always great places to go to have some fun. "Jetz is an awesome place to go to have fun and dance with your friends, but it's also a great place to meet new people and to have a night out with friends from other schools that you don't get to see very often," states Natalie Ples-

cia. Dancing is also a great way to relieve some tension from the previous week at school. It is easy to see why dance clubs are such great places to go.

In addition to places closer to home, downtown Pittsburgh is another place to go for fun. There are tons of things to do there, such as seeing the laser show at the Science Center or going to see what's happening at Station Square. Many students enjoy going to Pittsburgh. Melissa Kowalski says, "The Dark Side of the Moon Laser Show is incredible. It has great psychedelic colors and the music is excellent. It's a rad thing to do on the weekends." If you're not in the mood for the laser show, then you can always see what bands are playing at Metropol. In fact, you might just see our own Kiski bands, Launch and Division Factor, playing there on occasion.

Sometimes you just don't have the energy to go out all night and party. Sometimes you just need to have a relaxing evening. On these occasions students like to go see a good movie, hang out at the mall, or go out to eat with friends. There are a lot of great things to do when you don't have the energy to hit the party scene!

There are lots of hot spots in the area. The students of Kiski can do any number of things on their own time. However, always remember no matter what you do the most important thing is to have fun. Remember to relax a little bit before starting the next gruelling week of school!

Kiski's People

"The person that influenced me the most in my life is my mom. The strength and courage that she showed the last months of her life had a great impact on me and will stay with me for the rest of my life."

—Heather Hendrick

"The people that influenced my life the most would be my family and friends. They are always there for me and make me the kind of person that I am."

—Chris Unick

"The most influential people in my life are my family, friends, and teachers. Especially my mom, sister, Christine, Veronica, and Mr. Fasio."

—Charmae Pearson

As you walk down the halls of Kiski Area High school, you push past groups of people. You may not even notice the people you pass in the halls, but each one of these people are different from one another. Each has their own personality and background. They all have different activities and live different lives. These people strive for their own success and shape the student body of Kiski Area.

Unbelievable as it may seem, each of these people has an influence on you. The way they fix their hair, the clothes they wear, and the things they say all have an affect on you indirectly. As you enter the doors of Kiski, you feel an atmosphere that sprouts from differences in personalities. Day by day, you notice these differences, and realize the impact they have on our lives.

While there are people who affect you in direct ways, your friends effect everything you do. Throughout your years at Kiski, you have formed friendships that could last a lifetime. These friendships helped you survive through your high school years. In the future, they will be the foundation used for making new friends. These groups of friends that are seen around school prove that the statement "the more the merrier" is true.

Teachers are another important group of people. They take the time to help us learn and function in a high school environment. They share the knowledge that they once learned from their teachers. Although we sometimes anger them, they always seem to care. All teachers are different. They each have their own methods of teaching and grading. If you are lucky enough to see them when they're not in school, you would learn that teachers lead interesting lives, just as we do. Teachers have their own personalities. Teachers allow us to imagine and wonder while they teach us, preparing us for the future.

The freshman are new to the high school. They begin the year without knowing what to expect. The sophomores are still learning the ropes, yet they have experience. The juniors are veterans. They are in all the clubs and are very active in sports. The seniors are the most experienced. They know the ins and outs of high school life. This mixture of ages and personalities makes the school an interesting environment.

The people at Kiski make the campus a unique place. Those who push hard earn credit. Whether those people are athletes, musicians, or club members, our school is a place of hard work and achievement. No matter what you do, and no matter what contributions you make to our school, you will be remembered because of your presence here. We are the people that shape our school.

What was your first impression of Kiski?

"On the first day of seventh grade, I was terrified of both getting lost and all the strange people."

—Mary Replogle

"I wanted to ask where my homeroom was, but everyone I saw had nose rings and black lipstick. The bizarre parade of kids in the halls is still one of the most striking aspects of Kiski to me."

—Jon Vandenburg

"It was a psychic impression of impending doom. Like, 'There's a real possibility that I might die before I escape here.'"

—Sabrina Spiher

Ashley Waddell prepares for the opening football game by getting her stomach painted. She represented the number one in 'Kiski #1.' Her spirit showed that Kiski pride was alive at Davis Field that night.

Mike Rinaldi, Justin Bieranoski, Mike Safranyos, and Nathan O'Conner enjoy hanging out with Mrs. Gibson. Mike Safranyos comments on his favorite thing about Mrs. Gibson, "She gets zany on field trips." As National Honor Society advisor, Mrs. Gibson planned many educational outings.

What's your favorite dance memory?

Junior Year Prom - "Thank God Nate's dad is Fire Chief because without that siren in the car, traffic never would have moved."

—Sara Campbell

10th Grade Freshman/Sophomore- "Steve Dawson was on the dance floor with his cane limping around. He hit everyone!"

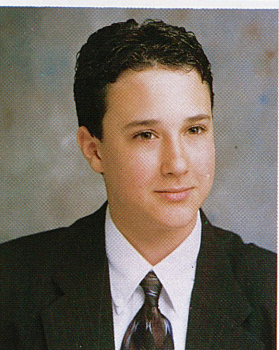

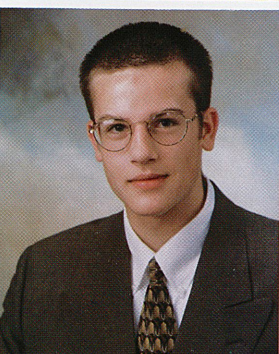

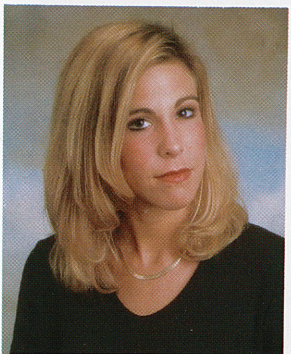

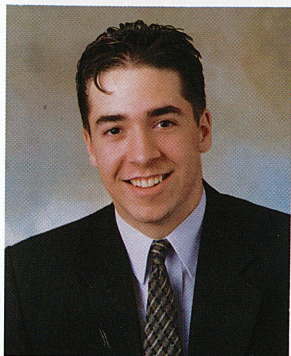

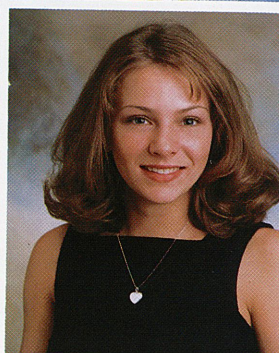

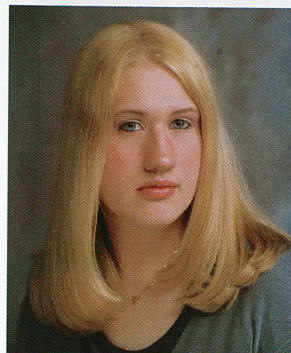

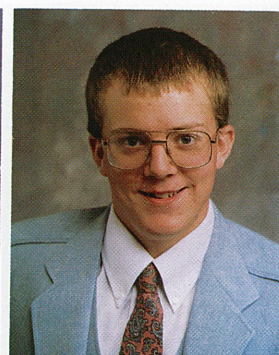

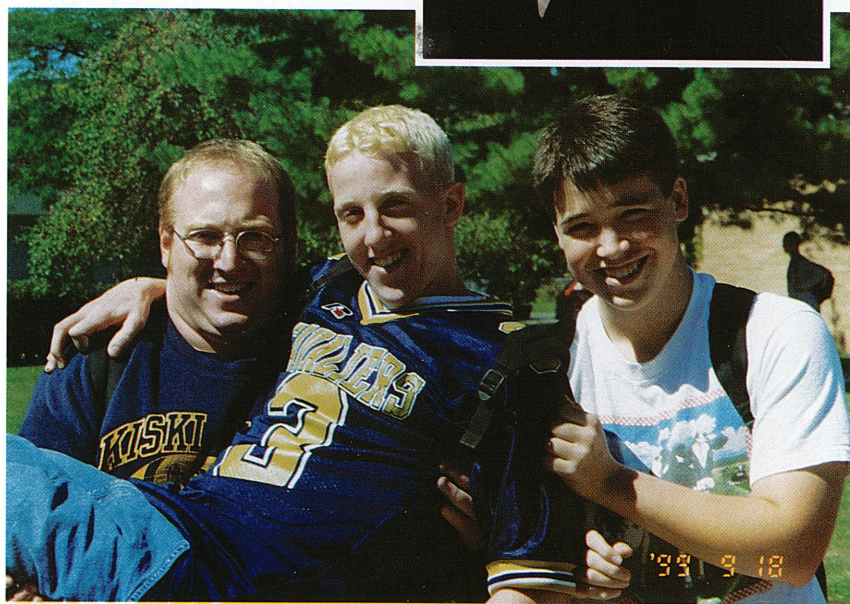

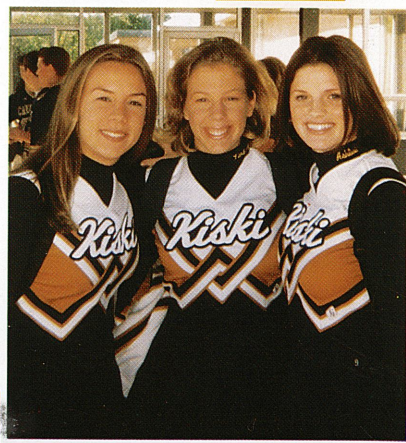

—Cara Castelli

What will you miss most or least about high school?

"I'm going to miss the student/teacher relationships. We should take time to get to know our teachers and, most importantly, appreciate them before it's too late!"

—Veronica Brestensky

"The thing I will miss most about high school is all the fun I had with my friends on the band trips."

—Paula Begovich

"The thing I will miss most about high school is the immense size of the lockers and the wonderful smell in the freshman building."

Money or Happiness? Why?

"Happiness is what I would rather have. Happiness is all about living longer and having a fun and enjoyable life. Life isn't always about having money."

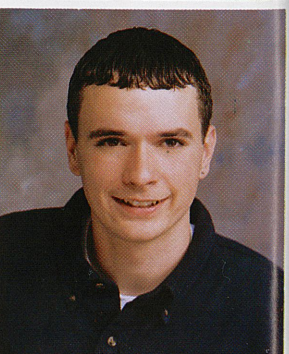

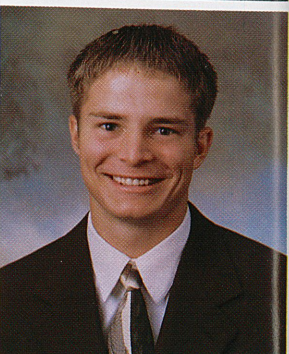

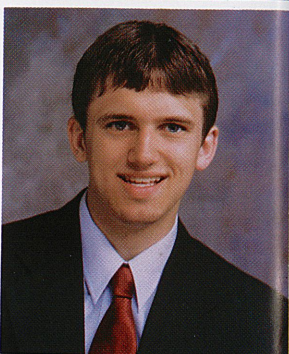

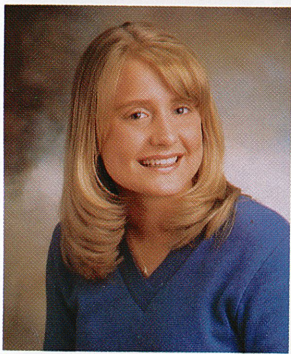

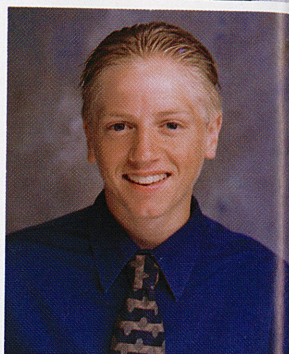

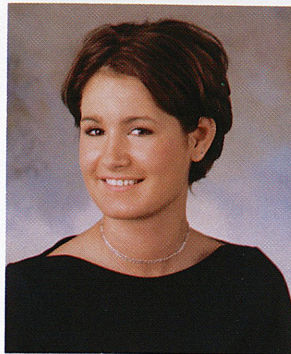

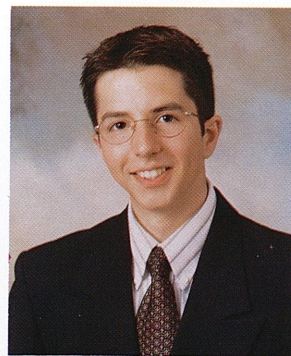

—Amanda Meier

"Happiness all the way! What's the point of being rich if you are not fulfilled and loving life? Money can't buy happiness and happiness is definitely a lot more fun!"

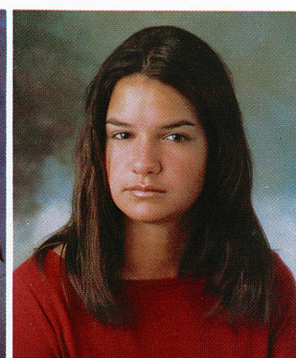

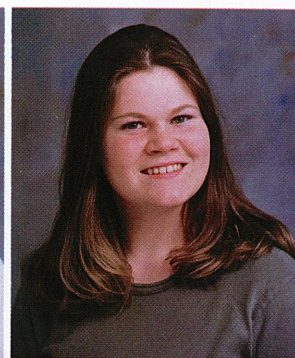

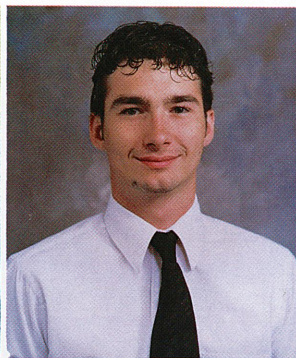

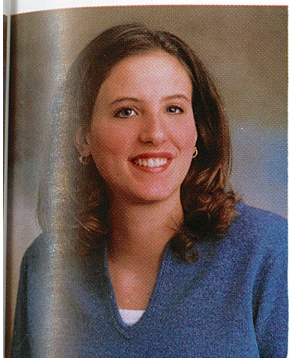

—Ashley Waddell

What was your worst vacation?

"My worst trip was to Brooklyn, NY. Dad went up a one-way street the wrong way, zipped around and got a flat tire in the middle of a construction site. We got lost on the way to Sears to get new tires! When we did get there, Dad realized he left his wallet. Needless to say, that was the end of New York!"

—Jessica McClain

"I was casually working it on the Atlantic coast when a seagull decided to drop a load in the present spot I was standing. Just after the load was dropped on my shoulder, a hot chick I was trying to 'mack' on saw me. She had a good laugh to see my chances with her go down the drain."

What's the best thing to do after a football game?

"After an enchanting evening at the game I like to go back to my abode and frolic in the garden."

—Josh Corna

"After a game, I take layers of marching band uniformation off and SLEEP!"

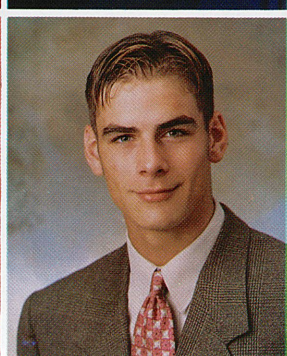

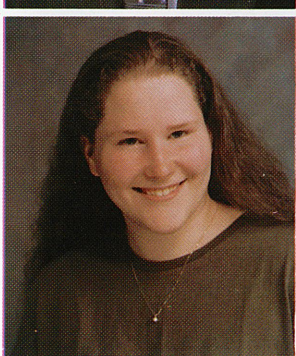

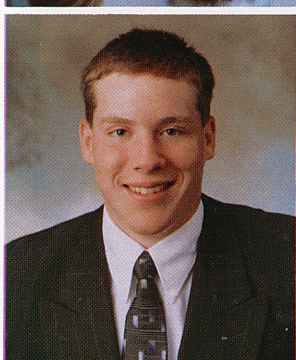

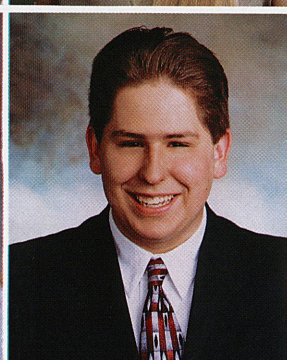

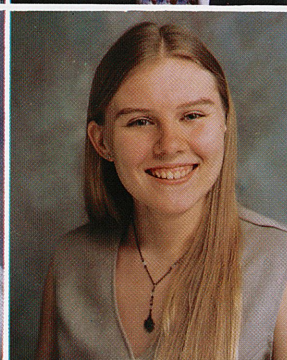

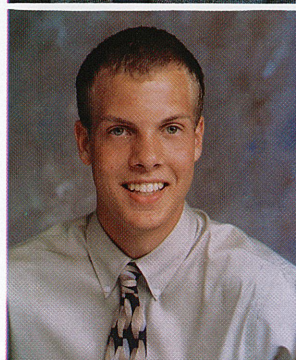

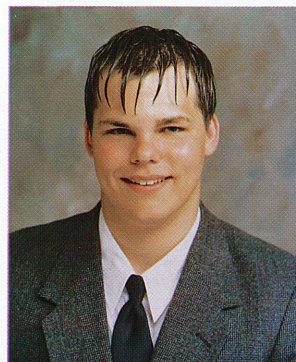

—Laura Mazur

"After home games, we go to Steve Dawson's for his weekly bonfire."

Things Juniors Do During Homeroom Period

55% Gossip

25% Study

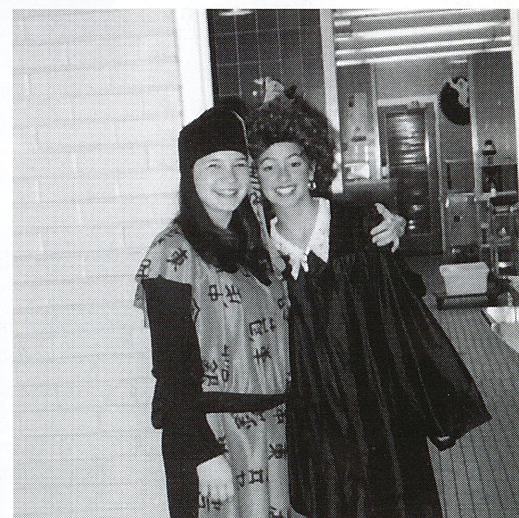

15% Play Cards or Checkers

Surprisingly, only 5% of Juniors admit to sleeping during homeroom!

Raelynn Noga struts around the courtyard during lunch. On warm days, the courtyard is the best place to escape the crowded lunch room.

Meghan Ferris, Charmae Pearson, and Cierra Sample have a good time in the stands at Davis Field. Attending sports events is a great way to meet new people and spend time with your friends.

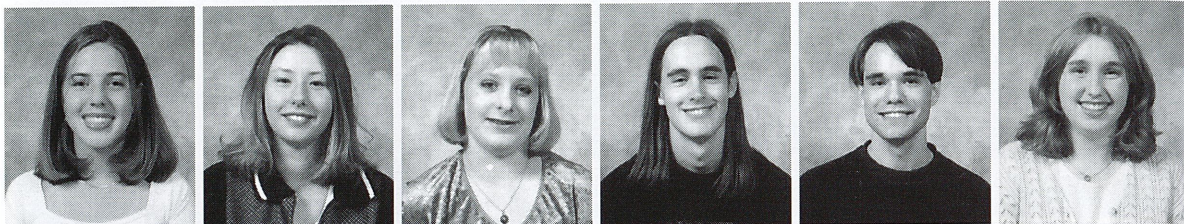

Chelsea Kolakowski, as Judge Judy, and Lindsey Katora are all hugs outside the cafeteria at the Halloween Coffee House. Both are members of the student council, the organization that planned the event.

Donald Macon works studiously in study hall. Most students use study hall to goof off, but not Donald.

What Do You Do During Homeroom?

"I have to use homeroom as a studyhall because Mr. Dudzik doesn't allow us to talk. I get yelled at for it a lot! Except every once in a while he lets us talk to our friends — that's when he's in a good mood."

—Cassandra Blair

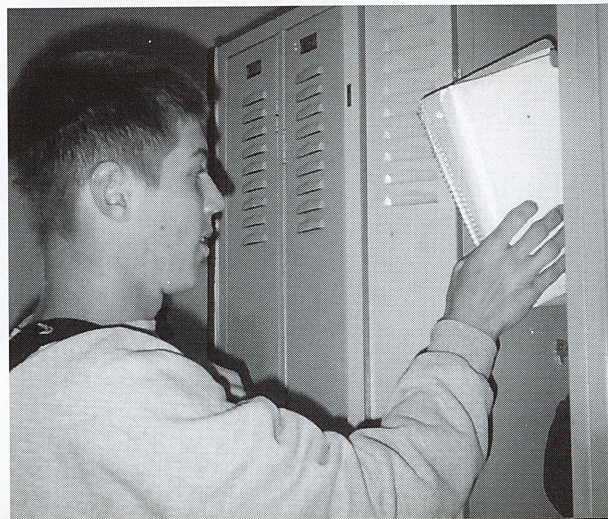

"I go to show choir a few times a week. On other days, I study or finish homework that needs done. I also hang out with my friends and have a good time."

—Amy Wiester

A group of scary looking students are ready for the Halloween Coffee House. Many creative costumes are thrown together in a short time period.

Robert Stevens makes a much needed locker stop. In between periods, the hallways are crowded with kids trying to get to their lockers.

How Do You Feel About The SAT's?

"Many times SAT's do not give a true representation of a person's ability. Grades and activities describe a person more accurately."

—Bethany Wolfgang

"SAT's can only show so much because people learn and express their knowledge in different ways."

—Bria Kanas

Lunch time is a great time to talk to your friends and catch up on the gossip of the day. This group of students looks way too happy to be in school.

Jenn Szymczak and Amber Richards are too dressed up for the gym locker room. Where are those great blue and white striped gym suits girls?

Dana Gais and Michelle Lion found chemistry class to be a comic experience. These are the kind of people that forget to turn off burners and spill acid on the floor!

"I study in my room where no one can bother me or in a quiet place."
—Teresa Gervasoni

A or B, or maybe it was C? Umm, maybe it's none of the above? Justin Steele ponders a difficult question on a test.

The Halloween Coffee House was a star-studded event. People came dressed in great costumes. Natalie Danko, Cory Downes, Katrina Bue, and an unknown flapper ate their doughnuts and orange drink dressed in style.

Favorite Gym Activity

Most freshmen, boys and girls alike, love Wallyball and Floor Hockey. Others enjoy things like softball/baseball, volleyball, and — believe it or not — pool.

Lori Wiester and Tyler Halvin return from a routine trip to the student store. The student store sells all kinds of great goodies for students to buy.

Relaxing during class, guys? Frank Scatena does his Mini-me impression.

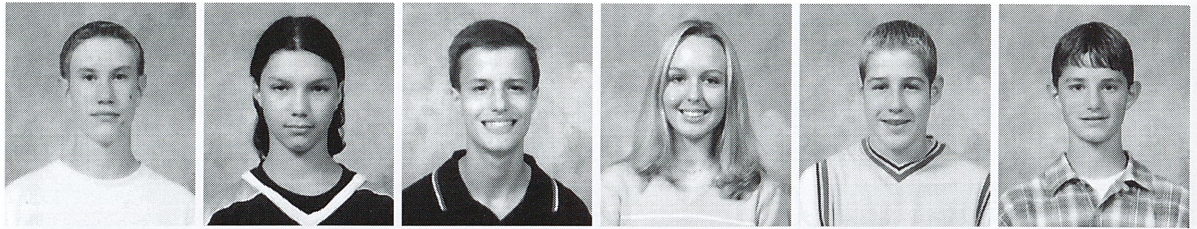

Megan Ladik studies vigorously for a literature test. Freshmen usually read Romeo and Juliet in English class.

Freshmen Time Capsules

You freshmen had some great ideas for things to put in time capsules to commemorate the millenium. Some of them were:

1. Pictures of themselves — to preserve their good looks for future generations.
2. Music of today — top pics were Summertime Girls and Mambo #5.
3. Copies of tests (with answer sheets) — to show how overworked you really are!

Stacy Krotzer visits her locker before homeroom. Look for his/her locker essentials on pgs. 65 and 66.

Candace Stripling helps Tammy Tafi study for a test. Study groups are a great way learn information.

We're too cool for homeroom! Shane Stefanik and John Smith are dressed for success!

From a Different Place

Foreign Exchange Students

For many years, foreign exchange students have come to the United States. They come from all over Europe and South America bringing their customs and styles with them. They leave their family and friends not knowing what to expect, yet they have excitement and curiosity. Hopefully you noticed the six foreign exchange students that are here at Kiski this year. There was Julia Mathe and Louise Zeppmeissel from Germany, Anne Petit from France, Federica Romanelli from Italy, Christina Alvarez from Spain, and Moana Gomes from Brazil. You may not see them all the time. They go on field trips to different places and they are constantly doing things to enhance their learning here in the states. They compare and contrast their customs with ours. The best thing about it is making friends with them. It is a great experience. They may get overwhelmed with everything they have to do. They get homesick, but they do keep in touch with their families and friends. There are plenty of activities to get involved in; this tends to keep their minds off home and maybe they will even make great friends along the way. Some join our sports teams. Anne Petit is on the swim team. They also get involved with other things, such as school work. Yes, if you didn't know, they do have to take tests and do homework. They get the entire academic package here at Kiski. They have the same responsibilities we do and maybe even a little more. They go to school, they go out and have fun, and they have laws and rules to follow. Some of their schools are not as strict as Kiski. They have to adapt to our ways just as we would have to adapt to their ways if we visited their country. They leave their countries to visit ours which can be a great experience, even though it is a big decision. The experience is a good one for us also because they can teach us about different places, different time zones, and different cultures. They leave at the end of the year, but we will always remember them as our friends.

—Bethany Yoder

What is the difference between school in Germany and school here in America?

"In Germany, school is not so long. It is over at 1:00. We have different subjects every-day."

Germering, Germany

Louise Zeppmeissel

What do you like about school in Germany?

"We can choose the school we want to go to and needn't go to the area school. We don't have to ride school buses; we ride public buses everyday."

*Munich, Germany
Julia Mathe*

*Marsielle, France
Anne Petit*

What do you like about your host family?

"My host family is really nice. I have two brothers, Ryan and Spike, and one sister, Lindsey. I feel comfortable with this family because they are like my family in France. I love my two host parents, Terri and Jeff Katora. They are nice to me."

*Genoa, Italy
Federica Romanelli*

How does Kiski compare with Italian schools and what do you think of Kiski Area?

"Kiski is really strict compared to Italian schools. It has a lot of rules, like taking the hall passes when you go places. I like Kiski because it is different than what I am used to."

*Sao Paulo, Brazil
Moana Gomes*

Have you made friends during your stay here?

"Yes, I have made friends in school. All of the exchange students from other countries and many Americans are my friends. I really like them. They are all funny and nice."

*Madrid, Spain
Christina Alvarez*

What American customs do you like?

"The food here is very different. Here, the people eat a lot, they snack, and have fast food. I like it here because you can drive at 16. In Spain it is 18."

Devoting Time to Special People Buddies

Jim Stritmatter and Steve McMunn are looking swell in their great school clothes. Jim plays sports and games with the life skills class on school days.

Students at Kiski Area may volunteer to be a Buddy. The buddies program has been a part of Kiski for many years. Students in Ms. Leezer and Mrs. Donati's classes are greeted by main stream students.

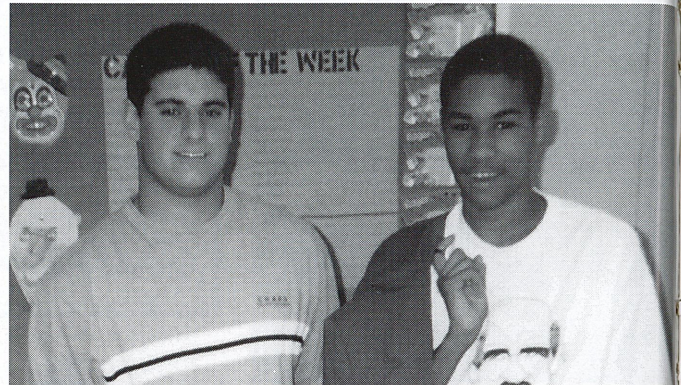

The kids in Ms. Leezer and Mrs. Donati's class get help from the volunteers. The helpers assist with homework and even play games. The buddy system helps the students with their academic subjects. When all the school work is done, the games begin. The buddies and the students have time to get to know each other. The bonds between the students and the buddies strengthen when the homework is done and games are pulled out.

When the buddies and the students in Ms. Leezer and Mrs. Donati's class get to play games, their creativity and personality shines. Both students and buddies learn more than mathematics and spelling; they learn of their true inner-selves. Other than doing homework and playing games, the buddies really enjoy using the gym to participate in various sports. It relieves stress and is a lot of fun.

Buddies is much more than simply helping someone with homework; it is a learning experience. Every objective mastered benefits both the students and the buddies as the memories will last a lifetime. The most important gift in the buddies program is the friendships that are formed.

—Crystal Kazcor

Justin Miller and Corey Smith prove that the little guys have to help out the big guys sometimes. Corey is friends with everyone in life skills.

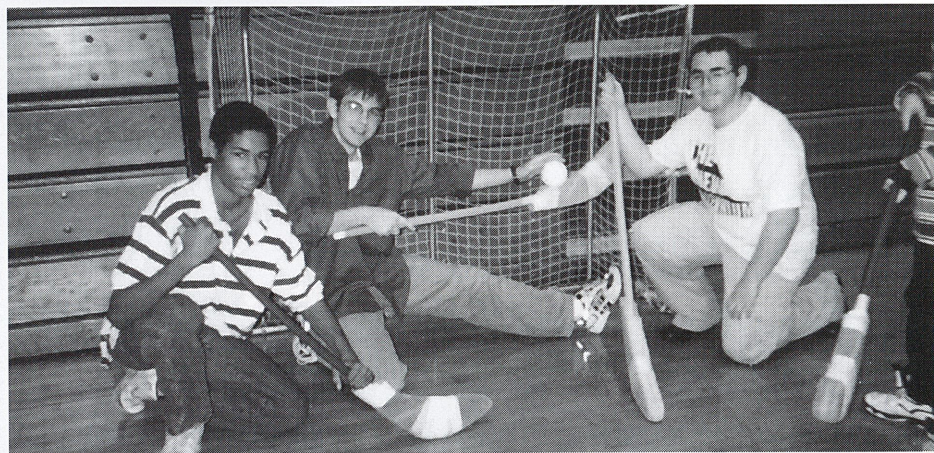

Bill York and Chris Minarcin string bead necklaces in 404. Those beads don't match your spiffy outfits, boys!

Steve McMunn, Brad Estridge, and Charlie Gearhart take time out from their busy schedule to play hockey. Score one for the team, boys!

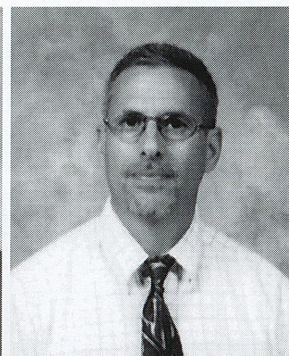

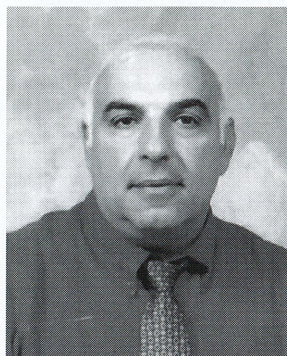

Swing your partner round and round! Sarah Chase teaches Nathan Arabia how to dance.

Kristin Weber and Cody Whitesell play UNO with Paul Hooks and Jennifer Bontempo. Red! No, I want to change it to green; but I don't have any green. Uno is a very intense game.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Meighan, what five things do you wish for the class of 2000?

Each class member finds that one post secondary career path; whether in a university, trade school or employment, that will give the most personal satisfaction

The wisdom to make those choices that will keep them out of harm's way.

That many of our talented graduates find their path leading back into our community to settle here and contribute.

Personal and family happiness and fulfillment.

Many happy reunions with all able to be present.

What are your top two most creative student excuses for why they got into trouble?

- 1) The 4 Naked Sunbathers Episode—2 boys and 2 girls were found in the buff outside soaking up the sun. "I had to chase them down into the woods."
- 2) The Fake Funeral Fiasco Excuse—False funeral for 'brother killed in war.' Brother didn't even exist. "The boys claimed that their parents were in denial and could not be notified."

Mr. Larry Stewart
High School Assistant Principal

Mr. Anthony Nicholas
High School Principal

When you were in high school, what did you aspire to be?

"I had always wanted to be a college professor. The University of Akron had offered me a scholarship award but unfortunately, just before entering, I was drafted into the service. Upon completing my two years of duty, I reapplied for the scholarship and was denied the grant. I then entered Slippery Rock for my Bachelors Degree and earned my Masters and Principal's Papers at Duquesne."

What is the most creative excuse for needing a parking pass?

"I once had a student claim that a parking pass was absolutely necessary because the student had to take the poodle to have its hair cut after school."

Remember these answers:

pg. 84 - A. Mrs. Poleski was the captain during her own days here at Kiski High.

pg. 86 - Well, we played a mean trick on you — it's none of the above! Mr. Trunzo has a pair of boxing gloves on his upper arm. Mr. Zielinski has a frog giving a peace sign on his leg. And, believe it or not, Mrs. Sites has a butterfly on her ankle. She got it when her grandson was born and chose the butterfly after the tragedy at Columbine as a symbol of life.

pg. 88 - A. Surprisingly, the answer is Mr. Steuart. He volunteers weekly for a youth group where he helps eighty small children with homework.

pg. 90 - C. Bet you didn't guess that the risk-taking wildman we were talking about was our very own permanant sub, Mr. Moore! He has jumped out of an airplane several times and also sports his mustache to help hide an old hockey scar.

pg. 92 - Again, we've fooled you! All of these guys have had prior careers. Mr. Lemmon was a truck driver, Mr. DeSantis an electrical engineer, and Mr. Lattanzio used to be in sales with his two brothers.

Fun Times and Long Hours

Kiski Area Clubs

"Pride Club is a good way to show your school spirit. I'm looking forward to the Powder Puff Football game. Seniors rule!"

—Jen Tokar

"Aside from getting really cool badges with our pictures on them, AV is the greatest group of friends you could ask for."

—Brandon Arroyo

"My favorite thing about Quiz Team is going to the mall! No, really, I like the competition."

—Anna Myers

If one would take the time to look at the numerous amounts of clubs and activities at our high school, he would be astonished. There are over twenty clubs that are available for students to participate in. Many of the clubs play an important role in our community. Some other clubs are just simply fun to be a part of, allowing time to meet new people and try new things. Still, others test your knowledge and wisdom in a test-like atmosphere.

According to Jamie Ferraccio, Student Council treasurer, "Student Council has become the backbone of many of the events here at Kiski. We work very hard for our students and community members, and we have fun doing it thanks to a wonderful sponsor and many dedicated members." Throughout the year, the Student Council arranges the Homecoming festivities, Halloween Coffee House, Valentine Matchmaker, Prom Fashion Show, and Talent Show. The Student Council is also very involved with the community. They are in charge of the Harvest of Pennies, the Telethon, Blood Drive, Senior Citizens' Luncheon, and Leadership Social. All of these events are rewarding and very much appreciated by our community.

The next two clubs work together to provide the students not only important information, but also entertainment. Each morning the broadcast of Good Morning Kiski is the direct result of the efforts of KAE-TV and the AV-Crew. The AV-Crew works behind the scenes helping the "reporters" and operating the equipment. KAE-TV is made up of talented individuals that enjoy speaking in front of others in a newscast setting.

There are many clubs that have the inclination to challenge students in different ways. Mock Trial, Academic Quiz Team, Math Team, and Envirothon are among these groups in our school. In Mock Trial, a case is written by professional lawyers for competing teams to argue in an actual courtroom atmosphere. This teaches students a lot about law, and more importantly, how to work as a team. The Academic Quiz Team operates like a jeopardy game. The students involved learn a wide variety of information that ranges from athletics to zoology. The Math Team meets to practice for upcoming competitions. Last but not least, Envirothon is an organization where the students involved are interested to learn more about the earth and its surroundings. On this team there are five people that specialize in different fields of expertise. This year the areas are forestry, soils, watersheds, aquatics, and wildlife. The year is spent trying to prepare for the competition held in May at a local park.

All the clubs mentioned thus far are firmly established and leave little room for self-expression. The Drama and Ski Clubs are two exceptions. Justin Liberatore, a junior Ski Club member, sums it up by saying, "Ski Club is a great club. It gets your mind and body out of school and liberates your soul. You're free to do what you want. You feel like you are away from everything; like you are on the only cloud in the sky." The Drama Club, like the Ski Club, allows students to reveal their true selves through acting. They are involved in a project called "Theater Link," where another school writes a script for them to perform and they write one in return.

NHS, Key Club, and Environmental Club

benefit the school and the community. NHS is a select group of juniors and seniors that demonstrate leadership, character, service to the community, and a good academic standing. NHS operates the open house, Student/Faculty Volleyball Game, Meals on Wheels, and also provides tutoring for students. Key Club is also involved with not only our school, but also the community. Chandra Heilman, junior member of Key Club, said, "I joined Key Club because I wanted to help others in the community. I really liked baking bread, doing the book drive, and caroling at Christmas. I hope that next year will be just as fun and worthwhile as this year." As she stated, they bake bread, run Operation Santa Claus, and carol at Christmas time. They are also thinking about volunteering to help at a local food bank this year. Environmental Club also has a lot of community and school activities. They belong to the Adopt-A-Highway project and organize an Environmental Picnic each year. This year they are planning to do some very special things.

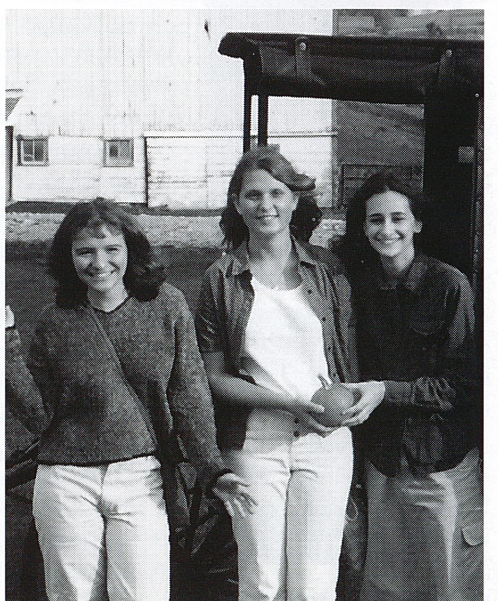

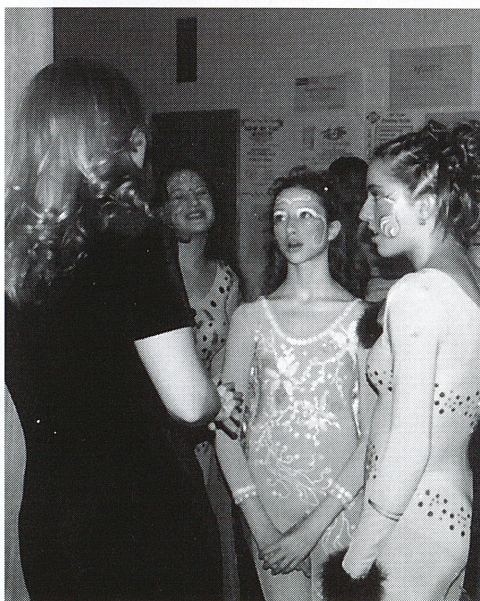

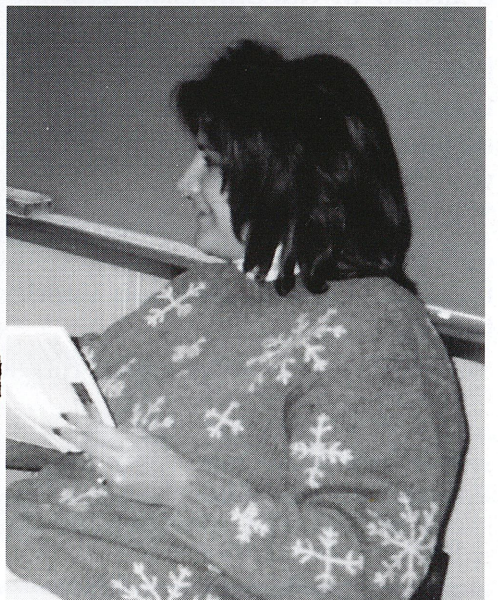

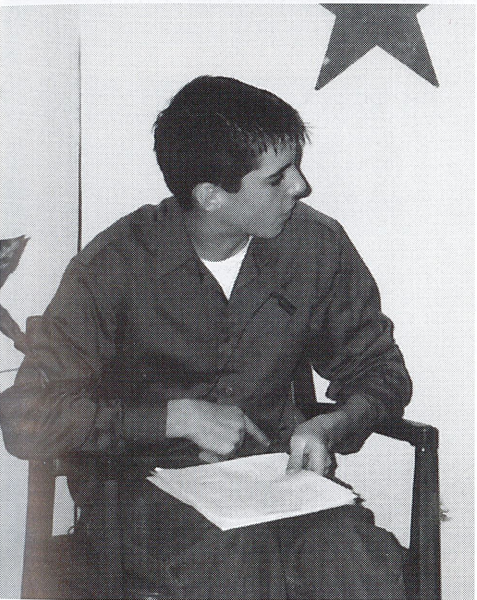

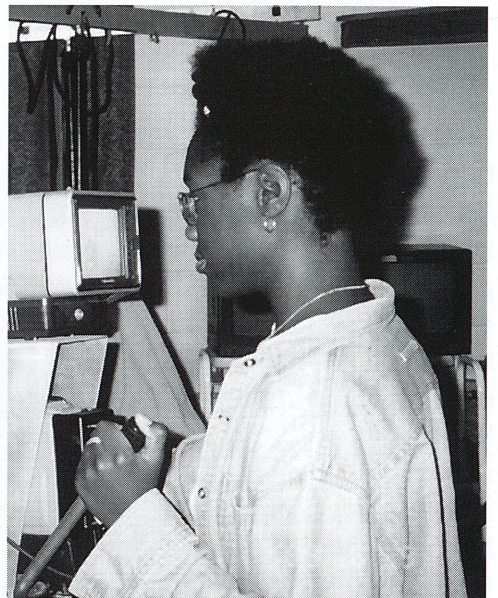

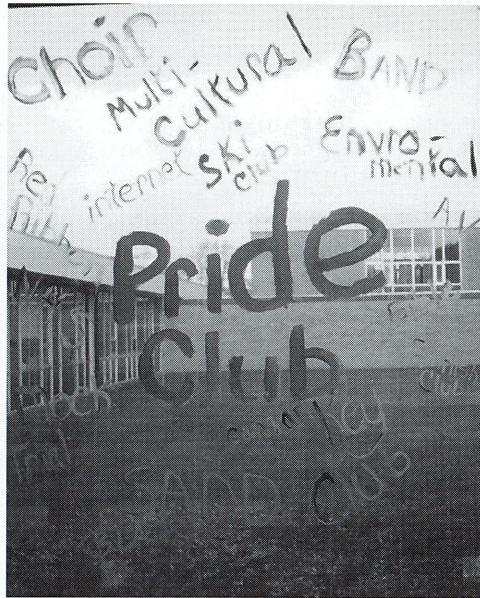

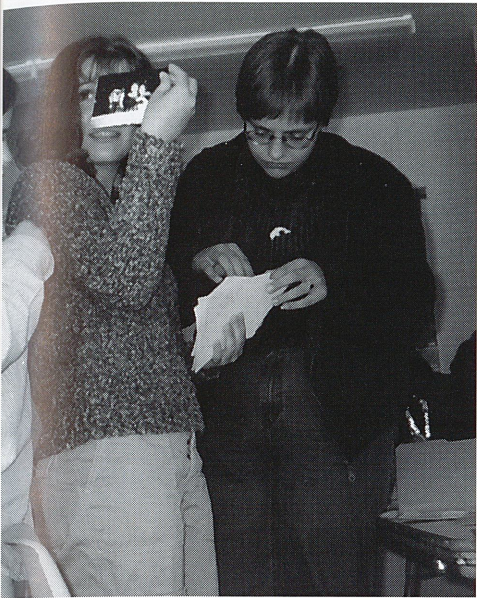

Red Ribbon, SADD, and Pride Club are more clubs that get the students in our school involved. Mrs. Rossi, advisor of Red Ribbon, could not describe this club any better when she says, "Red Ribbon is a commitment; not just a committee." Students who join choose to be positive role models in the school and community. Their sharing of ideas and activities encourage others to see that 'Drug Free is the Way to Be'. This club's main activities include Red Ribbon Week, Kick Butt Day, and the Wellness Fair. SADD is a club that brings together students that believe in the same thing. "SADD club is good because it allows students to express their thoughts and feelings against drinking and driving," remarked Ashley Snyder, Lyndsay Smith, and Lori Husarik, all junior members of SADD. SADD has two main activities that they sponsor. They are in charge of White-Out Day and the Prom Promise. Both events are directed towards making students think twice about drinking and driving. Pride Club is under the direction of a new advisor this year, but will continue to be a fun and entertaining club. They put on gym assemblies, a food drive, and often paint the school's windows showing everyone how much school spirit we really have.

The rest of the clubs are provided for students that have the same type of interests. The Spanish and German clubs are made up of students that enjoy the challenges of learning a new language. These clubs fundraise during the year to pay for the expense of the field trips that they take. The Internet Club is for the students that enjoy being on the World Wide Web. This club teaches its members more about computers and the internet. FBLA is for students that are interested in the business field for their possible lifetime career. These students attend many seminars that help them better understand the business field and the possibilities that it brings. Bible Club is another club that is created by students with an interest in learning about the Bible and other religious topics.

So as anyone can see, our high school has many clubs and activities that one can get involved with. The extracurricular activities at Kiski Area High School bring together different people and provide the time and place to share their similar interests.

Math League

Each year, the Kiski Area Math Team competes in two separate leagues. In the Strongland competition, the team competes against local teams such as Burrell, Leechburg, and Apollo. These meets take place at Penn State New Kensington and are held every other month. The team also competes in the monthly MCWP competitions where they compete against schools like Franklin Regional, Serra Catholic, and Woodland Hills. The meets consist of a few rounds of individual problems that include several math-related areas such as, algebra, geometry, and trigonometry. The MCWP meets also contain a team round in which the five team members must answer a group of questions in a limited amount of time. Under the direction of Mrs. Scales, the Math Team has been very successful, winning the Strongland competition several years in a row and performing well in the MCWP meets as well. This year's senior team consists of Jeff Berger, Matt Hicks, Emily Lauffer, Mike Rinaldi, and Jon Vandenberg.

Senior Emily Lauffer conferences with Mrs. Scales, the Math Team advisor, over a difficult problem. The Math Team practices to compete in the Strongland competition.

Jason Beebe

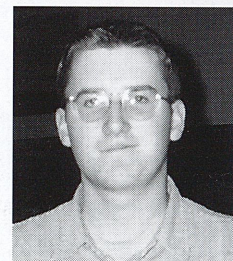

"I've always enjoyed math class, contrary to most students. Math Team is a club where you basically get to have fun and do a few math problems along the way. It's a fun club and I encourage anyone who's good at math to join."

Mike DeChellis

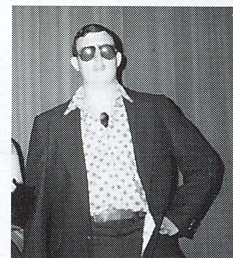

"The best thing about Quiz Team is getting out of school."

"Quiz team is a fun chance to test our knowledge or otherwise useless information and compare our useless information against other school's useless information."

Ben Martz

"Being in Quiz Team offers a chance to compete against other schools and shows how Kiski compares academically."

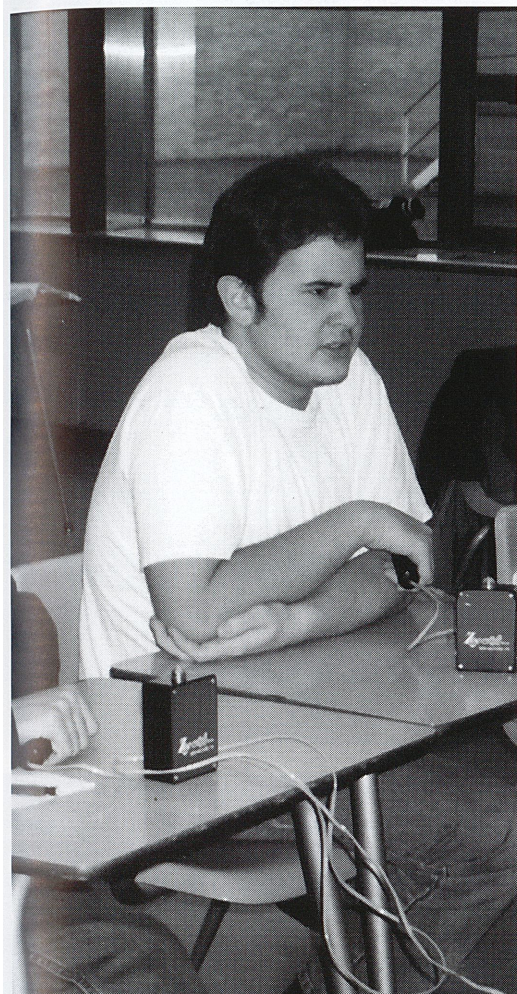

Mike Korns

Quiz Team

I'll take U.S. Presidents for a thousand, please! Jason Ray waits to buzz in on a tough quiz team question.

"Spiro T. Agnue!" "Hoover." "Smith!" On any given Monday after school these answers can be heard coming from rooms 311 and 415. But don't worry, this isn't the janitors reminiscing about history class; this is just your average Academic Quiz Team practice. Led by Mrs. Poleski and Mrs. Cutone, the Quiz Team practices Monday after school and during activity periods. Despite what some people may think, the 40 members of the Quiz Team do not sit around memorizing the Periodic Table or the dictionary. Practices are an active — and sometimes crazy — time, with hands flying in the air and thumbs desperately pressing at Jeopardy style buzzers in an effort to be the first to answer a question. These are similar to those found on popular shows like 'Who Wants to Be a Millionaire' or 'Jeopardy' and come from all subject areas. At any given practice, questions about genetics, world leaders, sports stars, and math are asked. Everyone seems to have their favorite type of questions, as senior Carley Deibler pointed out. "Mike Korns always answers the political questions because he's a political freak. Ben Martz answers all the biology, D.J. Masterangelo does all the sports, and Geoff Watson is the math man." Yet even with these specializations, sometimes no one knows the answer and interesting guesses are thrown out. 'Smith' is popular with the Varsity while the guess of choice of the J.V. is 'Soul Train,' according to sophomore Lauren Aljoe.

Things become more serious though when it comes to competition time. The top scorers from practices are on the starting team that consists of five members that compete at the competitions. The Quiz Team is involved in two different leagues, the Mount Pleasant League and the Strongland League. The competitions usually consist of two or three rounds against different schools with the Varsity and J.V. competing separately. As at practice, the questions can be about almost anything, requiring the competing members to be quick on their feet to "buzz in" before the other team. Since no help from the audience is permitted, the non-competing members are forced to try telepathy to help a struggling starting team member.

After a competition, the Quiz Team celebrates or drowns their sorrows in the food court at the mall. After all the hard work that goes in preparation for competitions, the mall is a reward enjoyed by all the team members.

—Jessica Terrana

Seniors Mike Korns and Sabrina Spiher seem particularly amused by a Quiz Team question. Is the answer "Smith" or "Soul Train?"

Kiski Presents Lil' Abner

The setting is Dogpatch, USA (the most unnecessary town in the country), recreated for an eager audience at Kiski Area High School, March 24-27, 1999. Students transformed themselves into the former comic strip characters of Al Capp's Lil Abner. "Lil' Abner was the best performed high school musical I have seen so far," commented junior Lindsay Korn. And indeed it was a wonderful show!

The success of the show was due to the incredible talent and hard work that all of the cast put forth. Not to mention an outstanding crew, set construction, choreography, costume design, pit band, publicity crew, and an extremely dedicated director. Mrs. Rupert stated, "I was very pleased with the overall effect and the individual as well as the group performances in Lil' Abner." All the actors did a great job of becoming their characters.

There were many special effects in Lil Abner, such as live barn animals, cartoon-styled makeup, and tight, skimpy outfits for the ladies; all of which helped to create some very unique memories for the cast and crew. The animals were very well behaved... the chicken, rooster, and bunny were no problem for all the lucky dogpatchers who got to handle them; but as Ashley Waddell stated, "Elmer, Moonbeam McSwine's piglet, was another story—he wouldn't let me hold him, no matter how long I sat by him and petted him—but he sure did try to steal the show by grunting his loudest in the wings!"

This musical was an exceptional success, and the shows are expected to only get better with each new year. I believe I can speak for the majority of the student body when I say that musical theatre is a welcome and vital addition to the high school.

—Ashley Waddell

Anne Clinton and Eric Rupert goof off in the hallway between scenes. You guys should try going to the store dressed like that!

Jayne Jones, Cierra Sample, and Gina Hall are all decked out for the fancy ball scene. Look out ladies, the Dogpatch girls are coming!

This group is in full bloom as the towns women of Dogpatch. Kim Clark was the choreographer of the musical and is pictured with Ashley Waddell, Nicole Amato, Mindy Palmiscino, Ellie Covey, Annie Grimm, Kiersten Confer, Missy Kowalski, and Nina Speranza after a performance. You go girls!

Musical in Review

"I remember entering the stage without my wig. Pappy Yokum went from being bald to having a crew cut!"

Mark Evans
Pappy Yokum

"I love opening night, it is the most exciting moment when you first step on stage. It gives me an adrenaline rush when I see all those people in the audience."

Annie Grimm

"My favorite scene was the Sadie Hawkins Day Race. We put so much work into that scene. Also, since it involved the entire cast, it was one of the most fun scenes in the play."

"My favorite thing about the musical was that I had such a great time with my friends and buddies. Also, I had a blast practicing my part and being my character."

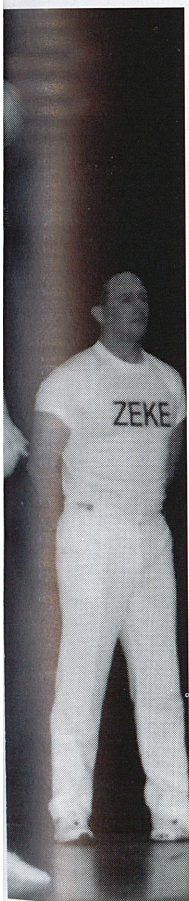

Steve Galo

"Many things made the musical a memorable event. However, the friendships you make can and have bonded myself to many people. You don't realize how much these people will impact your life until closing night has come to an end."

Kiersten Confer sings her heart out — "Put em' back the way they was!" Kiersten's husband was transformed by the Yokum-berry Tonic and she wants him back 'the way he was!'

Kiski Presents A Midsummer Night's Dream

People who saw Kiski Area High School's production of A Midsummer Night's Dream felt like they were in a magical far away place. The play was Kiski's first ever Shakespearean production. "People told me that we would never be able to get enough of an audience to see or enjoy a Shakespearean play. Since we broke drama attendance records and received standing ovations, I guess they were wrong," stated Miss Slater, the drama's director.

A Midsummer Night's Dream is a hilarious story about love and anger which took place in the woods outside of Athens. Many love spells were cast by the King of Fairies, Oberon (Tim Snyder), and his servant, Puck (Ashley Waddell). The long and confusing midsummer night ends happily with the strange events forgotten and the lovers happy at last.

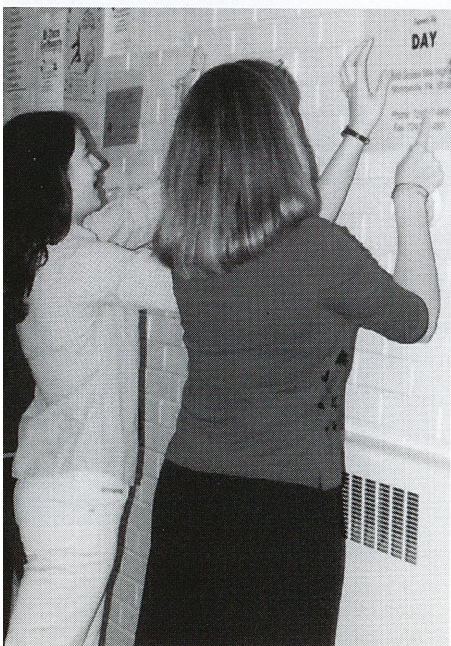

This play took a long time to put together. Many people, both cast and crew, worked hard after school to make the play a success. "The play was a great experience in my life, and if I could do it all over, I would take the chance! Miss Slater and Miss Halterlein were great directors and made the practices and performances so much fun," stated cast member, Rachel Werntz, who performed the part of Helena.

The cast and crew met four times a week for three months to put together this wonderful play. While the cast worked hard to memorize their lines, the crew worked diligently to create the scenery. The publicity crew sold tickets, advertised, and took care of the programs. "I really enjoyed play practice. It was great working with all the different actors. It was a great experience and a lot of fun," stated Matt Rethage, who portrayed Bottom. Practices were full of hard work, laughs, and good times.

All of the hard work put into A Midsummer Night's Dream was worth it. This play turned out to be one of Kiski's best drama successes. "The play was a benchmark in Kiski Area's drama program that will not easily be forgotten. This Shakespearean production proves that dedication, team work, and a little optimism yield fabulous results," stated Miss Halterlein.

—Ilysha Evelyn

Publicity crew members hang up ad signs for the play. A lot of hard work went on behind scenes to make the play a success.

Gina Hall and Dan Love portrayed two of the leads in the play. Don't they make a cute couple?

The crazy cast of A Midsummer Night's Dream plays around for the camera. The cast had four wonderful evening performances of the play.

Our Play Cast & Crew Speak Out

"My favorite scene in the play was definitely the play-within-the play because we could be creative with it."

"The play was a lot of hard work and long hours. But with the help of the directors, family, and friends, it was a big success. It all paid off in the end."

"There is no way I can decide what part of working on the play was my favorite. As the technical director, I gained a world of theatrical experience. I learned a lot from the directors and I really enjoyed having a crew of my own. The entire crew was very dedicated and it was a production we can all be proud of."

"The best part about 'Midsummer' was the great people I got a chance to work with. Being a fairy was so much fun! I really miss being able to wear glitter everyday."

"For me, the best part of the play was working with everyone. The energy level on performance nights was great. Everyone worked very hard and it paid off. The mechanics were hilarious and I loved working with them."

Mrs. George's 6th period Spanish class takes a break from their studies to think where they'd rather be.....Mexico! They seem terribly grateful for the rest.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club consists of students from Spanish IV and V. "We are the only club which sells chocolate pretzels to help pay for our trips," stated Mrs. Love. One such field trip was to Pittsburgh to see Ballet Folklorico. Afterwards, the club stopped at a Mexican restaurant called Cozomel. Spanish V students even have an opportunity to visit Cancun, Mexico during the summer. Future plans for the Spanish Club include donating used Spanish books to students in low-income school districts and participating in the telethon. Learning a new language provides insight into the culture of another country. It can be difficult at times, but learning Spanish remains an exciting and memorable experience.

German Club

The German Club consists of the members of Mr. Pipkin's German I, II, and III classes who work hard all year learning not only the German language, but also about German customs, history, and way of life. Every year the club participates in a fundraiser; selling tasty treats such as chocolates and nuts in decorative tins. All their hard work pays off at the end of the year when the club goes to an amusement park.

—Beth Hommel

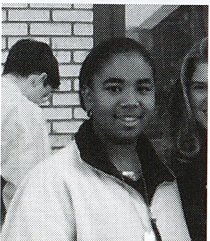

Mr. Pipkin's hides from his German class. As the advisor of the German club, he is in charge of all their fundraising. What a job!

Ashley Mondale

"Spanish Club is good because we do fun things and get to put it on our college applications as an activity."

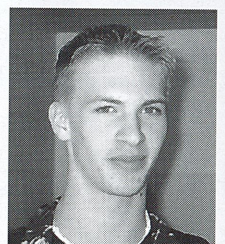

Alexis Webb

"My favorite thing about Mr. Pipkins is his personality. He's a great teacher and he makes German a fun language to learn. My favorite thing that the German Club does is our field trip at the end of the year."

Mike Domiano

"I think the best thing about being in the Internet Club is working with computers, something I enjoy. Also the fact that Fran is the Man!"

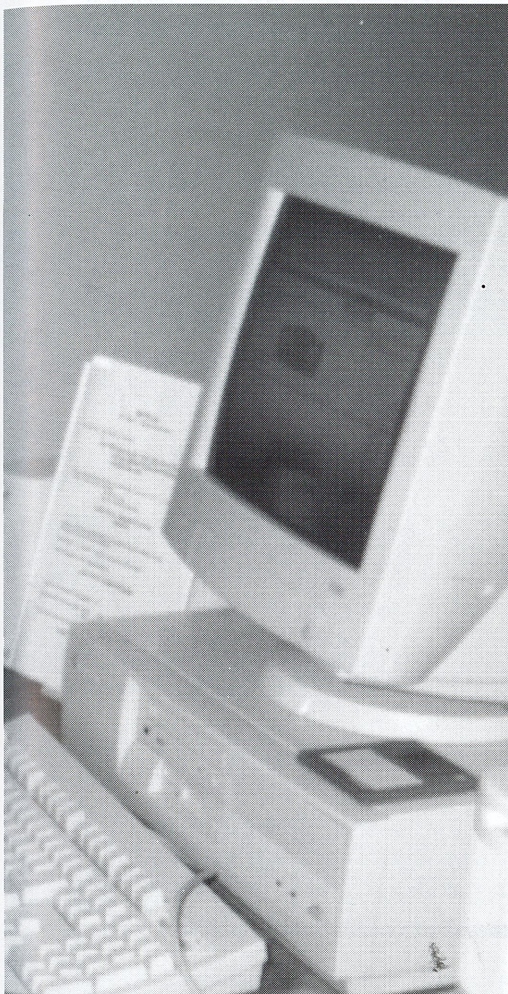

Brandon Tweten

"I joined Bible Club because I heard it was a good place to meet friends who are there for a common purpose. I have met many friends in the Bible Club."

Internet Club

This is one of the many computers that the Internet Club uses. Their website should be a computer site that we can all enjoy.

The goal of the internet club for this year was to create a web site for the Kiski Area School District. This website provides information about elementary, intermediate, and high school functions. The high school section includes information about clubs, sports, and educational programs. Mr. DeSantis is the sponsor and does a wonderful job of instructing. Amanda Bundle is our hard-working president and Carrie Armstrong is our terrific vice president.

—Veronica Brestensky

Exchange student, Louisa Zeppmeisel, enjoys her Spanish class. It takes a lot of skill to speak Spanish fluently.

Bible Club

The Bible Club is a place where students can come together and discuss their closeness to God. The Bible Club has created a web site, a newsletter, and a band. They have also done many fundraising activities. Being a member of the Bible Club is a wonderful experience. To be able to share your own feelings and experiences about God with others is a great joy.

—Jarrod Magness

The Bible Club executive committee meets to discuss future plans. Bridget Tweten and Brandon Tweten are a sister and brother executive pair.

FBLA

For those of you who hear the letters FBLA on the announcements and have no idea what they stand for, the letters FBLA stands for Future Business Leaders of America. These business students visit the Newport Business School twice a year. On the first trip they attend seminars on various topics ranging from "How to Dress for Success" to "Learning computer fundamentals." These club members learn the 'ropes' of the business world and how to become a successful entrepreneur. The second trip is to compete in different areas such as public speaking, accounting concepts, and computer applications, just to name a few. If you place, the club member then goes on to Seven Springs where they compete against all other regional and state schools. The FBLA gives business students a chance to show their skills in competition.

—Susie McConville

Casey Kinnard works diligently on the computer. She is preparing for the next FBLA competition.

Eric Rupert and Susie McConville work on a computer project. Both Eric and Susie have been business student of the month.

Eric Rupert

Philip Stewart

"In FBLA we go and compete in workshops, have, fun, and meet people from other schools. But the most fun is on the way home when we yell 'Mr. Scha-effer,' and 'Mrs. Fra-yer!'"

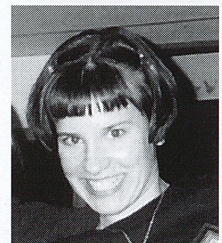

"Red Ribbon is a really great club, mainly because the students really organize everything! It's a lot of fun too. Watching the Tug-Against-Drugs is always the best part. It's always such a blast!"

"This year in SADD, we have plans for several projects. I'm in charge of handing out information at the table at the telethon. I participate in SADD because I feel it is important to inform other students of how real the dangers of drinking and driving are."

"I love Red Ribbon Club! My favorite two things are going to the elementary school to teach the sixth graders how bad smoking is on "Kick Butt Day," and doing the Tug-Against-Drugs. I joined because being drug and alcohol free makes you a better and healthier person."

Jessica Terrana

Lindsay Deibler

SADD

The crowd looks on at the annual Tug-Against-Drugs.

This year's SADD is one of the largest ever with 380 students. So, what exactly does SADD stand for? It stands for Students Against Driving Drunk, and the club's purpose is to make the school and community aware that drunk driving is a problem that must be stopped. The club has increased awareness by passing out pamphlets and having a White-Out Day. Everyday, 47 people are killed by drunk drivers. During White-Out day, 47 students were 'killed' by having their faces painted white. They are then not allowed to speak to anyone throughout the day. White-Out Day lets students see how many people are lost each day to drunk driving. In addition, SADD Club sponsors the Prom Promise for students attending the Freshmen-Sophomore and the Prom. By signing the Prom Promise, students pledge not to drink and drive or engage in other activities that may be harmful to their health or to the safety of others. Through increased awareness and support, SADD hopes to one day end the problem of drinking and driving forever.

—Emily Lauffer

Jessica Terrana, a SADD executive committee member, researches statistics on Drunk Driving. SADD always has a fact table at the telethon.

Red Ribbon Club

The Red Ribbon Committee promotes drug awareness throughout the school and community. We sponsor a week-long event supporting Drug-Free Week. There are spirit days for the student body and faculty to get involved with. This year the annual Tug-Against Drugs was held to open the week. Then in April, the committee gets together to travel to elementary schools to teach 6th graders on the dangers of smoking. The Red Ribbon Committee is tons of fun. We enjoy promoting a drug-free school.

—Carley Deibler

The 12th grade Tug-Against-Drugs team takes a rest after the difficult competition. The Red Ribbon Committee set up an entire week of great fun days to promote a drug free school.

National Honor Society

Each year the National Honor Society adds new members to the already academically sound group of students belonging to Kiski's chapter. Inductees are chosen on the basis of excellence in Scholarship, Service, Leadership, Character, and Knowledge. This year's new inductees were certainly no exception. The seniors that belonged to NHS last year are the largest group ever inducted at Kiski. The National Honor Society plays an active role in both the school and the community through participation in Meals on Wheel and peer tutoring. Tutoring is a new program instituted this year by their sponsor, Mrs. Gibson. Through programs such as these, students experience the satisfaction of helping others.

Student Council

The student council officers are elected by the students of their homerooms. Once elected, these officers take care of all student council matters for the homeroom. Four of these students from each class are voted the class officers: President, V. Pres, Secretary, and Treasurer. Some of the many student council sponsored events include the Halloween Coffee House, the Matchmaker Forms, and the telethon. The student council and its officers run many fun school functions. Student council gives students the chance to have a say in what happens here at the high school.

—Mark Evans, Steve Galo, and Philip Stewart

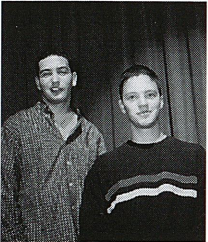

Student council member Jenelle Knepsheild counts the proceeds from the telethon auction in front of the display cases. All of the money raised went to the Salvation Army for those in need.

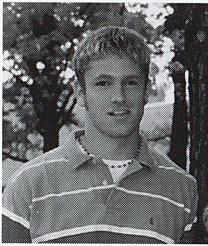

Lindsey Katora

"I participate in Student Council for many reasons. For me, the best part about the club is knowing that it actually makes our school better. It really accomplishes a lot throughout the year. So, by being in Student Council, I don't just come to school, I make school a better place to come to."

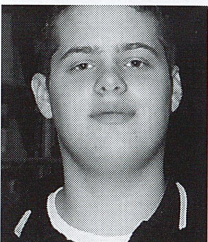

John Suschak and Brian Zalenski

"In Pride Club, we express our pride in the community and the school by painting windows, cleaning the school, helping at food drives, and caroling."

Justin Pityk

"Key Club is a very unique club at Kiski. It is the only club that is run totally by its members. The most beneficial part of being a Key Club member is experiencing the joy of helping out others."

Nathan O'Connor

"I participate in NHS because I feel it is a worthwhile organization that lets its members get actively involved in the school and at the same time have fun."

Key Club

Sophomore Missy Palermo smiles while getting her face painted. Face painting is one of the most popular activities that the Pride Club sponsors.

The Key Club is a group of juniors and seniors that are chosen by a random drawing of filled out applications. The club is a charitable organization that does services for the community. Key Club also is considered a part of the Kiwanis club. The club's service projects have included baking bread for those in need, toy drives, food drives, and working in the canteen for the Salvation Army during the telethon. One of the most popular Key Club events is the annual Key Club/Faculty Basketball Game.

—Jen Aikins

Nathan Arabia and Melanie Loughlin take a break from working at the Key Club canteen to man the donation box at the telethon. Thanks to the efforts of the Student Council, Key Club, AV Crew, and many others, the telethon was a huge success.

Pride Club

Pride Club is a popular club at Kiski. With so many students eager to join the club, an executive committee had to be chosen to organize the main events. Mr. Zielinski volunteered to take Miss Mattu's position as the sponsor. With his help, Pride club sponsors such events as powder puff football, Christmas caroling, window painting, pep assemblies, and school clean-ups. Pride Club helps make Kiski a more spirited school!

—Natalie Funk

Amber Staley, Kristen Crusan, Autumn Delellis, Michelle Stackiewicz, Jess Fabrizi, and Chelsea Kolakowski seem awfully happy to be at this Pride Club Pep Assembly! Gimme a "K-I-S-K-I!"

Alexis Webb is the current president of the Multicultural Club. The club sponsors a yearly multicultural fair.

Ski Club

Snow on the ground and a chill in the air usually means a new ski season for a bunch of us here at Kiski. The Ski Club, sponsored by Mr. Dennis Duppstadt, gives students a chance to go to Seven Springs on Thursday nights for some winter fun. It also provides time to take a break from the schoolwork and gives us time to hang out with friends. Even beginners that have never skied before are welcome to join the club; and lessons are available to everyone. The cost of lift tickets, skis and transportation is very reasonable and the memories and friends made are priceless. Come join us for some fun at Seven Springs.

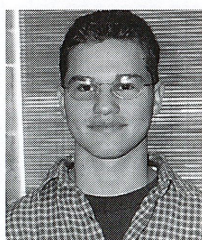

—Nathan Arabia

Multicultural Club

The Multicultural club is spreading cultural awareness throughout Kiski High. Sponsored by Mr. McKenzie, the Multicultural Club brings far away places to our area. Mr. McKenzie stated, "The Multicultural Club will educate students about foreign and domestic cultures by having special event magazines published and by presenting a Multicultural fair for the school." Through these events, students can travel the world without ever leaving the school.

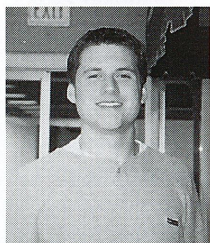

—Iysha Evelyn

Heather Hendrick and Alle Allman appear to be having a blast at Seven Springs. The lack of snow this winter certainly hasn't slowed these beauties down.

Nathan Arabia

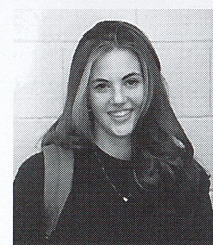

"The most memorable thing that happened in Ski club is when I almost bit off my tongue while doing a 360."

Nick Brady

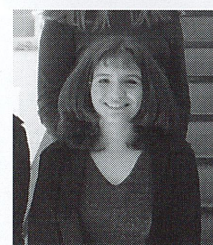

"To truly understand people, you must understand their culture. Through multicultural club we strive for this goal and hopefully we will achieve it together."

"I enjoy helping in the office because it gets me out of study hall. We just do whatever needs doing, which may be putting attendance cards into mailboxes, or running all over the school to get kids. Either way, it's something to do. And it's stuff that needs done."

Meghan Ferris

"The multicultural club is truly devoted to all of the students that attend Kiski. By bringing people from different cultures together, we can prove that no matter what our differences, we can succeed as a group."

Library Aides

Senior Veronica Brestensky takes a moment off from her busy job as a library worker to read. Shouldn't you have done your English assignment at home, Veronica?

The library workers are dedicated to helping their classmates look up books and to helping them find things that they need for class projects. With the number of students that come into the library each period of the day doing research, Mr. Kulas would never have enough time to help each and every student; so the library aides are there to help. In addition, the library workers handle many other things such as scanning books out for students and checking them back in. Other duties are updating current newspapers and periodicals. The entire purpose of library aides is to help other students and the librarian, in order to keep the library running smoothly.

—Christina Danjou

A library worker's job is made up of more than just shelving books! In this picture, Abby Sisko helps a student use one of the many computers in the library.

Office Workers

An office worker does many different jobs for the administration and the secretaries. They sort the mail, run errands, and take passes to students. The workers help students that come to the office for specific reasons, or simply to talk to administrators. Being an office worker is a fun way to spend study hall time and homeroom time. Working in the office provides an opportunity to help make the the school a better place, and also to help make the secretaries' jobs a little easier.

—Cyndi Endlich

All these papers need filing! Kristen Eisenman and Cindy Endlich work diligently in the main office.

Environmental Club

The Environmental Club, run faithfully by its fearless leader, Ralph Lemmon, has for almost a decade worked to improve the natural surroundings of KAHS. Do the gardens weed themselves? Do those plants spring from their cement pots each May by magic? Does the rain along Pounds Turkey Farm Road and in front of Hyde Park make a jump from the group to dispose of itself twice a year? Do Environmental tee-shirts sell themselves? No. All of this and more is the work of our dedicated environmentalist do-gooders, who labor hard in an effort to make Kiski's small corner of Mother Earth a greener, a little cleaner, and a little better dressed in environmentally-themed apparel.

But, "Why?" you might ask. Why do we muck around in the dirt, picking up other people's trash and distributing donuts every April to students? Well, ask yourself this: you know when you watch, say, the Weather Channel? And they show you a picture of the aftermath of an F4 tornado? And in a town where every other building is nothing more than random nuclei who will never find their electrons again, is there one house left standing? Who do you think lives in that house?

That's an environmentalist, that's who. Think about it.

Envirothon Team

The envirothon team was a lot fun last year. We practiced all year for one competition in early May. The competition was at Mammoth Park (near Greensburg) and was broken down into five categories: aquatics, wildlife, forestry, soils, and a wild card category. Last year, the wild card was fires, so a fireman from Greensburg actually staged a small, controlled wildfire as a demonstration. While some people might enjoy actually learning about the environment, by far, my favorite part of the Envirothon Team was the day of the competition. A small group of Kiski students stayed around a park for a day instead of wandering around school. Plus, Mr. Lemmon bought us ice cream! That was nice, too.

—Jon Vandenburg

Dave Greenlee, Carolyn Kemp, and Jessica Kostelansky study up on their environmental sciences for use in the environmental club.

Emily Lauffer

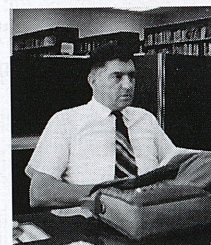

Laura Mazur

"The Envirothon Team allows us to learn not only about the environment, but also how to protect it. We get to discover things about the world around us that are not taught in a regular classroom. Besides, what other club lets you wander through the woods identifying trees and searching for wildlife?"

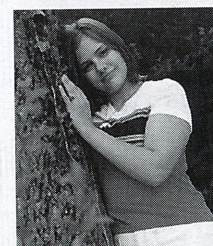

"We cleaned and beautified our happy little community of Vandergrift and such by picking up lots of yucky trash on a Saturday morning."

"My favorite Mock Trial memory is that exact moment when a jury at the Westmoreland County Courthouse announced Kiski had won the trial over the defending state champions, sending us to the state finals in Harrisburg. We had lost that same Regional the previous two years."

"The best part about Mock Trial has been all of our late night practices. It's amazing how different the school looks when you're roaming the empty halls, practicing your statement over and over. Then comes the moment when you stand before the jury, trying your best to just breathe, as the judge asks you if you're ready to close. Being able to say 'yes' and mean it is a great feeling."

Beth Hommel, Ashley Scalzott, and Karen Defilippi look over their notes for practice. Beth and Ashley are starters this year and Karen is President Jon Vandenburg's back-up.

Mock Trial

Mock Trial is more than just a club at Kiski. In fact, I would liken it more to a sport — long hours of practices, stiff competition, and the sorrow of defeat. Kiski Mock Trial is legendary. For nine seasons straight, we were the regional champions and, although the thrill of victory has eluded us for the past two seasons, this year's team is strong and surprisingly young. Three of the lawyer starters, Amie Thompson, Jackie Pokusa, and Dorie Byford, are sophomores this year. Other starters are Jon Vandenburg and Beth Hommel as lawyers and Mike Rinaldi, Paul Kemp, Ashley Scalzott, and Beth Hommel as witnesses. With these starters and all our backups, the 2000 KA Mock Trial team will be true to its winning tradition.

—Beth Hommel

Seniors Anna Myers, Beth Hommel, former seniors Tara Brownlee, Cynthia Brougher, Lindsay Lucas, and senior Jon Vandenburg are ecstatic after winning a trial against Franklin Regional. In this particular trial, Jon Vandenburg won best advocate for his work on the defense team.

"Good morning! I'm Philip Stewart and I'm Maria Butch and this is Good Morning Kiski!" Phil and Maria are always perky during the early morning hours, which makes them perfect anchors for KAE-TV.

Good Morning Kiski

Every morning the familiar sound of Good Morning Kiski enters every homeroom. Up in the studio, students work hard to bring their classmates the latest news about their school. Before the announcements begin, the student editors put together the show. With the assistance of the AV Club, who run the cameras, student anchors get the chance to see what television broadcasting is all about. There are also students working in the "booth" to make sure the picture and sound is sent to each television in the high school. Station manager Beth Hommel and sponsor Mr. Norton are on hand to make sure all goes well.

The 1999-2000 staff were chosen through applications and auditions. Each member is dedicated to seeing that the students of KAHS get all the news on their school. It is this dedication that determines the success of the morning announcements show. However, the main goal of the KAE-TV staff is to say one thing.....Good Morning, Kiski!

AV Crew

Have you wondered who does the behind the scenes work at Kiski? Say hello to the A.V. Club. Run by Mr. Stauffer and Mr. Tedorski, the A.V. Club does most of the technical work at Kiski. According to Mr. Stauffer, "In addition to technical support to the telethon, the A.V. Club concentrates on maintaining the school-wide computer network." Think of A.V. every time you watch Good Morning Kiski, the Telethon, or Channel 1.

Telethon

This year, the telethon was once again held at Hyde Park Plaza's K-mart on December 13-17 from 4-8 pm. The 1999 telethon was made possible through the efforts of Miss Reynolds, Student Council Sponsor; Mr. Stauffer and Mr. Tedorski, AV sponsors; Justin Bieranoski, Chairperson; Megan Christy, technical director; the telethon committee and also the AV Club. Kiski's Key Club also played a major role in the telethon by providing free food and drinks to everyone at the telethon through their annual canteen. With generous donations from Kiski Area's elementary schools, intermediate school, high school, and both business and community members, telethon '99' raised over $14,000 — all sent to benefit the local Salvation Army.

Yearbook Staff

Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines! The 1999-2000 Kiski Area Yearbook Staff was always aware of the approaching deadlines. This year's millenium yearbook required a lot of extra time and effort from the entire staff.

Work on the yearbook started in July with a meeting of the business staff. The staffers went to sell ads to all of the great businesses in the area. Once again, all of our local patrons were very kind and generous to the staff.

At the beginning of August, several editors attended a yearbook seminar at Seven Springs. The seminar demonstrated how to use the Ultravision Yearbook Computer Program, how to size and cut pictures, and how to implement amazing and innovative yearbook ideas. The seminar required the Kiski representatives to make a mock yearbook. This yearbook only consisted of ten pages but took four days of hard work to complete. Awards were presented to the nineteen participating schools and Kiski won the Effort and Enthusiasm Award and was first runner up for the Theme Development Award. The Seven Springs Seminar was a rewarding experience that gave the editors great ideas for this year's book.

After the fun week at Seven Springs, the editors began the layout and design of the 1999-2000 yearbook. Several meetings were held to discuss how to approach the theme, A Time and Place For Everything. At these meetings, the decision was made to do away with the usual blue and gold cover and pick a cover that would be more 'millenium ready'. After going through books, books, and more books of cover designs, the orange 2000 cover was chosen.

By the time school began, yearbook production was already in full swing. The general staff is broken down into photography, literary, production, and business. Each staff has their own work and projects to complete for the yearbook. Throughout the year the business staff sold ads, collected money, sold yearbooks, and took care of all money matters. The business editors, Veronica Brestensky and Natalie Funk, were in charge of the staff account that pays for the yearbook. The production staff passed out beat sheets, took quotes, and helped with layout and design. The production editors,

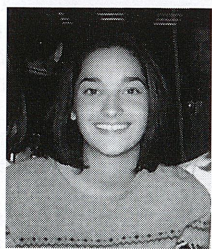

Beth Hommel and Kelli Snyder, made sure that each page had quotes and did layouts for pages. The photography staff took all the pictures at the school events. The photography editor, Melanie Ceraso, chose all pictures and cropped them to fit the spaces reserved in the yearbook. The literary staff wrote the articles that went with all the pictures, sports, and clubs. The literary editor, Katie Falk, edited all articles and wrote picture captions. Head editor, Nicole Amato, and advisor, Mr. Paul Fantaski, made sure that production of the book went well and that there were plenty of great ideas to use.

The yearbook took eight months to complete. Production of the yearbook may not be an easy job, but with great staffs and a great advisor, it became an enjoyable experience.

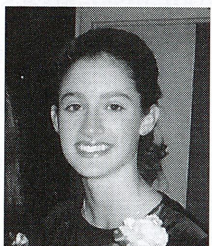

—Katie Falk

Don't bug us when we're on a deadline! Yearbook editors, Melanie Ceraso, Natalie Funk, Katie Falk, Beth Hommel, and Veronica Brestensky, work diligently to complete each section of the book on time. Each editor put in countless hours to make this year's book a success.

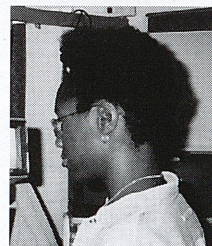

Nicole Amato

Casey Conroy

"Being the editor of the yearbook has been a great experience. It has showed me just how tough it is to be in charge. The occasional donuts made it enjoyable."

"I enjoy working on the yearbook because I enjoy helping to create school memories. Also, I've had a great time working with Mr. Fantaski and the rest of the yearbook staff."

Yearbook Staff Members Speak Out

"The Yearbook is an unofficial history book filled with memories of the present to preserve for the future."

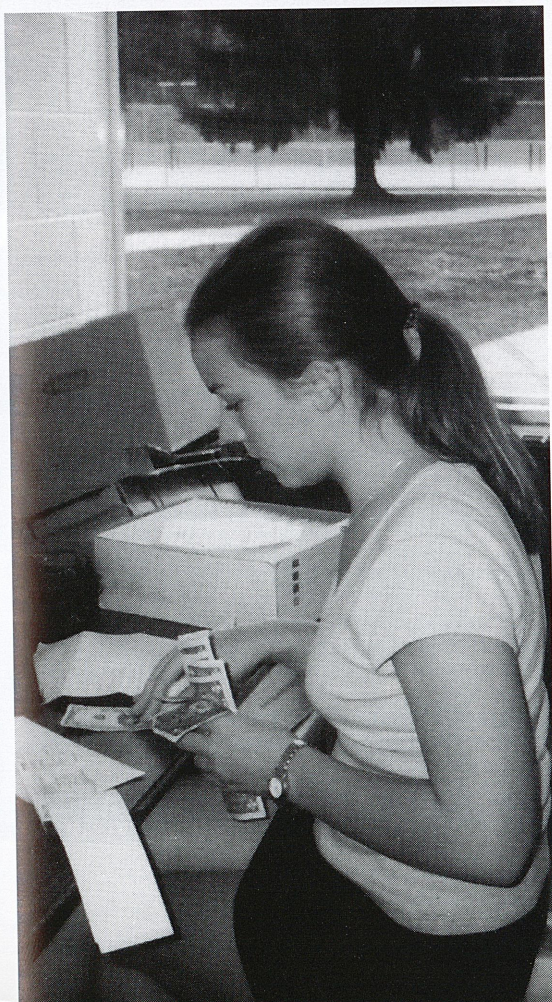

"I enjoy participating in yearbook because it gives me the opportunity to meet different people and to learn new things."

Katie Falk and Kelli Snyder leaf through pictures submitted by the photography staff for the yearbook. The hundreds of pictures that don't make the cut are sold at the end of each year.

Melanie Ceraso, Mr. Fantaski, Beth Hommel, Nicole Amato, and Katie Falk participated in the yearbook convention at Seven Springs. The girls look especially frazzled after an incident in which their chalet almost caught fire thanks to one of the editors. Roasting in the August heat, an attempt to turn on the air conditioner turned disastrous when no one realized they were turning on the faulty heater!

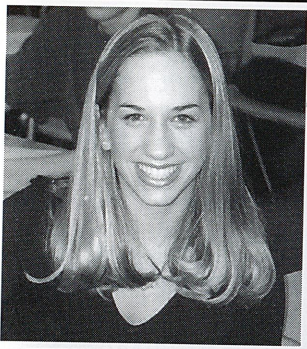

Business Editor Natalie Funk makes sure that the account balances out. One of the most time consuming aspects of creating a yearbook is all of the paperwork involved in sales.

Melanie Ceraso, Veronica Brestensky, Kelli Snyder, Natalie Funk, Beth Hommel, Katie Falk, and Nicole Amato grace the stairwell by their beloved S.A.R. For some editors, the S.A.R. is a home away from home.

Time to Play

Kiski Area Sports

"To play three sports at Kiski Area, you need to have dedication, loyalty, and want to put forth 120% every time you step out onto the field."

—Allie Little

"To become good at any sport, you have to work hard by practicing almost everyday as well as maintaining your grades."

—Kenny Johnson

"This year, I participated in Cross Country, Swimming, and Track. The coaches at Kiski have an overwhelming sense of support which encourages me to keep busy. I have enjoyed my experiences in these sports greatly."

—Sara Tursky

There are many different sports offered here at Kiski Area High School. Throughout the many years that the school has been open, the teams have flourished into great symbols of pride. The lives of many members of the Kiski student body are affected by these teams. Each team has a different season in which they gather and prepare for their upcoming battles. Fall, winter, and spring are the three main seasons in which most sports are played. The many athletes and coaches who participate donate many hours of their time in hopes to produce a positive and enjoyable environment for all.

In the fall, there are over ten teams that are available for students to join; thus offering the largest number of available team spots of all the seasons. Although many students do not think of cheerleading as a sport, it is as much a team effort as any other sport. The cheerleaders are always ready to cheer on the football team, boys' and girls' basketball teams, and wrestling teams. They start their practices in June and continue throughout the year. Also, in the fall plays the girls' volleyball squad. Undefeated, section champion girls' volleyball team members, Candice and Christina Roberts comment on their season, "This season was very successful and fun. We remained undefeated in section play again this year, which was one of the team's goals. The greatest goal we accomplished was beating Greensburg-Salem, our arch rivals. This made the season even better. We're sure that next year's team will be just as great. We wish them a lot of luck." Congratulations to the whole volleyball team for a fantastic season.

The boys' and girls' soccer teams both occur during the fall sports season. The hardworking team's season lasts from August through October. The girls' tennis team also plays in the fall. Junior Autumn Delellis comments, "Girls' tennis is a really difficult sport for us. We are in a very hard section because of our size; but it is definitely a challenge which makes us work harder. It is a sport we will carry with us for our entire lives."

Both the girls' and boys' cross-country teams are made up of hardworking and enthusiastic athletes. It takes long periods of time to prepare for a meet. The participants practice by running, running, and more running. Junior member, Mike Clever states, "It makes me hungry!" It is that same hunger that can motivate a team to victory.

The boys' and girls' 9th grade basketball season is also in the fall. Their fierce competitions better them for later years in the basketball arena. The boys' and girls' golf teams are made up of excellent athletes. This is also true for the Kiski Football Team. The team begins their season in August with a trip to Slippery Rock University for a team camp. Many practices prepare the team for their weekly showing at Davis Field or other fields in the area.

In the winter, Cavalier fans pack into the gymnasium bleachers and the swimming balcony to cheer on their favorite teams. The Kiski Area Wrestling Team has earned the reputation of being one of the most feared and accomplished teams in the state. Many of Kiski's individual wrestlers have achieved incredible accomplishments. The boys' and girls' basketball teams can also be seen in the gym throughout the winter season. Sophomore Jodie Vick says, "The girls' basketball team is a combination of young and old players. This year, we have come together to play as a dedicated team. This hard work and dedication helps us on and off the court."

Many people do not know that there is a boys' hockey team. Although they are not sponsored by the school, they have many strong and hardworking players. You can see the team members wearing their team jerseys at school on game days.

The last winter sport is swimming. Coach Ryan Berberich leads difficult but beneficial workouts for both the boys and girls. While most students are still sleeping, swimming team members often come to school at 5:30 in the morning to utilize the pool. Certainly, all of the winter sports teams learn to adapt to the harsh winter weather to survive their lengthy seasons.

In the spring, the choices for sports teams is somewhat limited. The track team offers a student the opportunity to be a part of a team and still compete on the individual level. Both the boys' and girls' track teams are known for their exceptional athletes. This is a reflection of the fine coaching of Bill Karaszia for the boys and George Argyros for the girls.

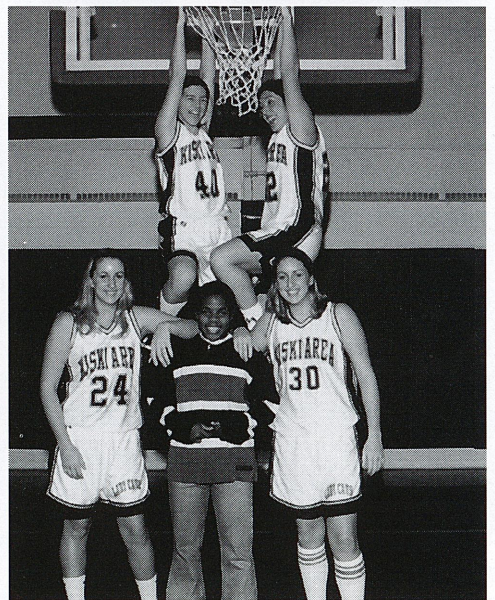

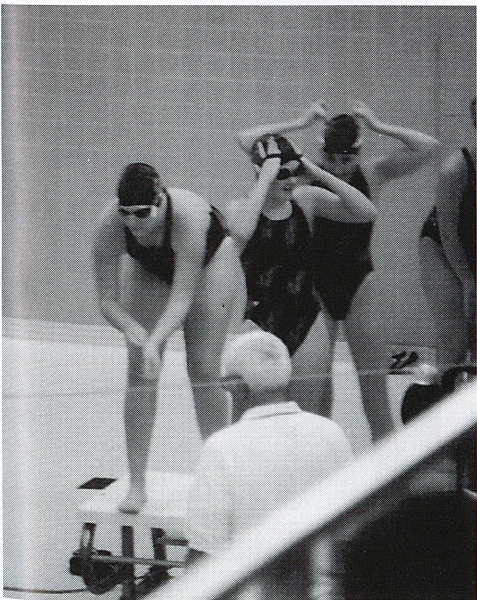

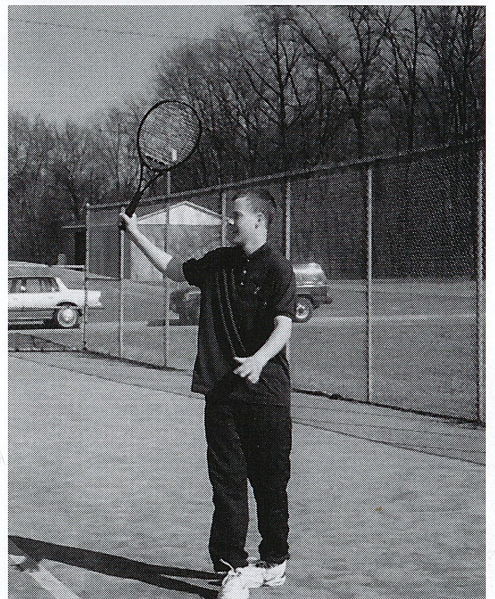

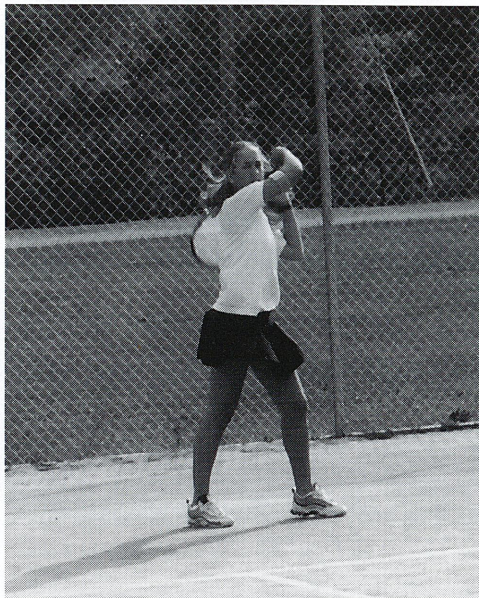

Also in the spring, the boys' tennis team can be seen occupying the tennis courts. Senior Justin Bieranoski comments, "Between the months of May and February, I am lost. During tennis season, Mr. Santia doesn't seem like a wild and crazy guy; but when he is with us, he won't hold anything back. That just shows how much love there is on this team."

The last options for spring sports are softball and baseball. The girls' softball team is a very energetic and supportive group. They encourage each other to give all they can give. The boys' baseball team works very hard to improve upon their skills to produce more marks in the wins column. Both teams set high expectations and goals, as do all of the spring sports.

So, as you can see, there are many opportunities for sports enthusiasts at Kiski. The hard work and dedication of all of the athletes put forth throughout a season pays off both on and off the court. If you think you have what it takes to be a Kiski Athlete, go for it. However, always remember to give 110 percent.

Kiski Football

PA Quad A football is one of the toughest areas of high school football in the nation. Playing among the ranks of teams like Penn Hills, Woodland Hills, and McKeesport is not easy. The Kiski Area Football Team did not have the season that everyone expected, but the players still had fun and they still had high hopes.

The Cavs got off to a rough start this year coming up just a bit short in several of their first games. Although not coming up with victories, the team proved that they could hang in there against teams like Penn Hills, and even Woodland Hills. The Woodland Hills game was a virtual standoff at half time, but Woodland Hills ended up pulling out the win. The game could have gone either way with a big play. "The Woodland Hills game might just be the best game we played all year. They were a tough team, but we were in the game with them and actually, I feel we should have won the game," stated junior, Eric Plowman.

The team ended the season on a roll, winning their last two games. The Cavaliers defeated Indiana by a score of 35-21 in their next to last game of the season. Even though the Cavs jumped off to a quick start against the Little Indians, they had to earn the victory against an Indiana team that would not die easily. The team also defeated Albert Gallatin in their last game of the season by a score of 41-30. This game was not nearly as difficult, because the Cavs jumped off to a quick lead and never looked back.

At the end of the season, players were thankful for the experience and the friendships that the year had brought. A senior, Steve Dawson says, "I really had a good time playing with all of my best friends, but I'm looking forward to what the future has to bring." This was a common statement from a lot of Kiski players who have played together for many years and have made so many friendships through football.

Kiski Cheerleaders

The 1999-2000 Cheerleading Squad was able to have a great season, even without the help of Coach [unclear]. At the beginning of the season, we couldn't have imagined that the season could have been as good as it was. We have Jennifer Marinelli, our new coach, to thank for all of our accomplishments this year. With her great new ideas and never-ending enthusiasm, she was able to lead us through some rough times.

It was because of her that we have enjoyed more success and more opportunities than in years past. Ms. Marinelli put together one of our favorite projects, collecting money from the local stores and students at Kiski to help the less fortunate in the Vandergrift area. We also traveled to York, Pa. to participate in a competition, where we scored very well. Of course, there are other people to thank for all of our accomplishments. Mr. Shearer, our athletic director, always gave us a chance. Donna Rife, Kiski's trainer, happily fixed all of our injuries. Senior co-captain, Melanie Loughlin, was always determined to get the squad motivated and the squad always had a wonderful, positive attitude. The squad slogan was "Check your attitude at the door!" The girls certainly had the right attitude on the field and on the courts.

Cross Country

The Kiski Area Cross Country teams once again displayed their prowess as the section powerhouses this season. The grueling practices that began in the heat of the summer and continued in the bitter cold of the winter were well worth the effort. Under first year head coach, Melissa Shaeffer, the girls' team finished with a winning 6-2 record and the boys' team went undefeated. The girls were bestowed the honor of being named section champions.

The girls' team was led by seniors Jessica Mohamed and Joelle Olszewski while Dave Duriancik and Matt Stone served as captains for the boys' team. Both teams were dedicated and they worked hard to meet the goals that they had set so early in the season. While they remained focused on the job at hand, they always had time to have some fun. Nobody will ever forget the mushroom battles and rickshaws. Who else would run 10 miles in one day? Yeah, we're different.

Four team members competed exceptionally well. Tara Mohamed, Dave Duriancik, Mike Clever, and Mike Wagner earned the honor to compete in the Pennsylvania State Championships. Kiski Area High School is proud of these dedicated athletes. Both teams displayed an enormous amount of dedication and their efforts were rewarded with the accomplishment of their goals.

The Kiski Area Hockey Team meets once a week on Sunday to practice on the ice. The team plays at Center Ice in Delmont. The team had a very good season this year. The Cavaliers consisted of a group of determined, hard working young men. Like all of the other Kiski sports teams, the Kiski hockey team was prepared for every game they played. Even though the records weren't the best this year, the team played hard, hit hard, and defended hard. Captain Mike McFall led the team through the triumphs and the defeats. The team was coached by Head Coach Larry Poupard and Assistant Head Coach Pearce Miller.

Senior Dan McManus talks of one of his teammates, "Sean is unquestionably the most talented player on the team. He even plays on a national team that travels clear to Canada." Sean Berkstresser (Voss) has been playing hockey since he was four years old. His expertise has helped the team raise their quality of playing to higher levels. Don't be surprised if you one day see Sean playing in the 'igloo' with Pittsburgh's finest.

Soccer

This year, the Kiski Area girls' soccer team had one goal in mind: to be the best team that this school has seen. They realized, however, that this would take a lot of hard work and commitment. With the girls' dedication, they ended their season with a winning record and a chance in the WPIAL playoffs. These achievements were school firsts for the team.

Led by the three captains, Sara Campbell, Lori Rich, and Rebecca Stedrak, the team pushed themselves to achieve things they had only dreamed of. When the season was all over, they agreed that the hard work paid off. Junior, Jennifer Dunlay, commented, "We had a really great season and we worked hard, but we hope to do better next year."

Although the girls lost to Thomas Jefferson, 3-1, in the playoffs, the coaches couldn't have been prouder. The girls gave 110% and they always held a positive attitude towards the future.

—Ashley Madoni

The boys' soccer team had a fine season this year also. Led by Seniors, Chris Mackluiak, Cody Wylie, Bill Stephens, Mike Lanfrankie, and Ryan Potter, the boys put forth their best efforts this year. Coach Frank Amato stated, "With the assistance of skilled newcomers, the team played well together." The team anticipates an even more productive season next year.

The Kiski Area Boys' team had a great season this year. The team finished the year 11-3 in the section and 14-4 overall; both school records for wins in a season. However, despite the outstanding record, the team missed the playoffs by single match.

The team was coached by Mr. Santia. They were led by co-captains Mike Rinaldi and Dan Mastrangelo, both juniors, and former seniors Tom Dawkins, Brandon Schoenour, and James Magee.

"The program has progressed a lot over the past few years," said Rinaldi, "When I first joined, Kiski wasn't known for tennis; but now we're getting people's attention." Mike set a school record with 14 victories at #1 singles, as did Mastrangelo with 13 wins at #2 singles.

Doubles superstar Justin Bieranoski said, "The team chemistry is outstanding. We all love it when Mr. Santia dresses up like Ho Chi Min before the match." Justin had a personal record of 13-5 in doubles with different teammates.

The team has high hopes for the next season with 6 of their top nine players returning.

All six were letter winners this year, including surprise #3 seed Neil Gruber. They believe they have a shot at the section title.

—D. J. Mastrangelo

The girls' tennis team worked hard and was very dedicated this year. We put our effort into every practice and every match we had. We might not have come out with a good record, but the attitude of the team still shined. With the coaching of Mr. Antenucci (Jr.), the team gave all their efforts. Seniors, Charmae Pearson, Chrissy Moran, and Melanie Ceraso helped push the team along when they were tiring. The main starters were Allie Little, first singles; Chrissy Moran, second singles; Michelle Stackhouse, third singles; Charmae Pearson and Melanie Ceraso, first doubles; and Lindsey Tallarom and Cierra Sample, second doubles.

Captains Chrissy Moran and Allie Little helped the team through their leadership skills. The season was enjoyed by the whole team. Good luck next year ladies!!

The volleyball team's hard work and dedication paid off as they finished their season undefeated in the section which allowed them advance to the second round of playoffs. Beating the defending state champions in the first round was one of the team's biggest accomplishments ever.

Throughout the season the team shared many fun times. With five sets of sisters, four being twins, the team was very close. The closeness of the team aided their great team playing.

The coaches, Megan Lucas and assistant Colleen Herbeck, had a lot to do with the success of the team. They had a way of promoting positive attitudes, which made the team capable of winning. The cavs were lead by six seniors, Crissy Zimmerman, Kelli Snyder, Jess Kerr, Mandy Zimmerman, Candice Roberts, and Christina Roberts.

The season was fun, as well as successful. Many memories were made and they will never be forgotten.

—Kelli Snyder

"This season was very successful and fun. We remained undefeated in section play again this year, which was one of the team's goals. The greatest goal we accomplished, however, was beating Greensburg-Salem, our arch rivals. This made the season even better. We're sure next year there will be just as great a team and we wish them a lot of luck."

Teamwork is the name of the game for the 2000 Cavaliers hoopsters. "We are really playing good together, and if we keep this up, we will make the playoffs," said senior starter Jeremy Shirley. However, teamwork is not the only strength of the team. Hard work, skill and positive attitudes are just a few of the qualities of this sure-to-be- successful team. Along with Shirley, other starters include seniors Aaron Waters, Isaiah Blanciak and Ryan Borowitz, and freshman, Joe Touchstone. Together they paced the Cavs both offensively and defensively. The depth and experience of the younger boys increased the strength of the team. For months, the boys have endured difficult practices and tiring games. The team always displayed the wide range of talent each boy brought to the hardwood. Coached by Larry Rupert, Denny Rupert, and Art Ambrose, the boys' basketball team always drew a big crowd to their games, and with good reason!

Girls' Basketball

After having a disappointing season last year, the Kiski Area Girls' Varsity Basketball Team was hoping to make a major improvement during the '99-00' season. Last year's team was hounded by injuries and illnesses. However, the current team is trying to put that behind them and look toward the future. Under head coach, Mr. Tom Pipkins, and assistant coach, Mr. Tom Lucchiano, the girls are working hard on all aspects of the game. The girls are zeroing in on improving their defensive play. According to Coach Pipkins, "Defense wins games." Using this motto, the girls' team is intent on working together to make their season a success. The girls are led by co-captains, Veronica Brestensky and Kelli Snyder, and also senior, Mandy Zimmerman. With only three senior players and one senior manager, Charmae Pearson, the girls' team should be in great shape for upcoming years. Juniors, Chandra Heilman, Colleen Greece, and Amy Haag, happily commented that the team is "working hard and playing well together." In fact, all team members agree that the team is definitely headed toward a playoff birth if the positive attitude holds up during the regular season.

Swimming and Diving

Kiski Area's swimming and diving team continued to display their domination in the pools. Under second year head coach, Ryan Berberich, the team flourished. As a former swimmer, Coach Berberich used his valuable experiences in swimming to teach the team about hard work and dedication. Coach Berberich was assisted by his sister and also former swimmer, Coach Leslie. With their unity and support for each other, the team was able to reach a common goal of always giving 100 percent. To achieve the success that they had, the team practiced six days a week in addition to practicing before school twice a week.

Although the team practiced and competed as one, the girls had separate goals and expectations from the boys' team. Led by captains, Amanda Bundle, Cara Castelli, and Jessica Mohamed, the team was very competitive within their section they finished with a winning record and exceeded even their own expectations. Although the girls' swimming season was long and difficult, the team found ways to have fun, such as going on snow runs and getting together outside of the pool deck.

During the close meets, the divers helped the team's score. Exceptional swimmer, Abby Leslie, broke her own diving record and served as the team captain. Through the guidance of coach, Ron Ruggeri, the first year divers accomplished their goals. They proved themselves on the board by exceeding many of their expectations. Their hard work and dedication enabled the season to be a success.

Even though the boys'

team lost many swimmers from the previous season, they had a solid team with returning PIAA state qualifier, Ron Kestner. The team was led by captains, Bob Turberville and Joe Scarfutti. The team had a group of strong swimmers including Nathan Petrak, Brandon Shemak, and Dave Alter. Though the team had diverse personalities, they were able to come together to achieve their goals.

The 1999-2000 Kiski Area Wrestling Team has had yet another dominating year. With their first away victory at McGuffey High School in 10 years, this year's wrestling team has proven to be strong, thus bringing it into the new millennium. Led by one of the best coaching staffs around, Kiski Area wrestlers continue to be one of the most feared teams in their section.

With the unfortunate loss of a great person, "John Boy" Lorenz, many of this year's wrestlers have dedicated this season to his memory. Wearing arm bands to every match and t-shirts with his name are some of the many ways people go about preserving his memory.

Kiski Area Wrestling is more than just a team — it is a family. Together they accept the losses and celebrate the wins. Each member feels as if they are a part of something special. The team is known for their hard work and dedication. They are constantly among the most successful athletic teams at Kiski Area. This year's team and certainly future teams are surely no exception.

The 1998-99 baseball team used hard work and dedication to help get them into a winning season. The Cavs trained hard in the months leading up to the season opener by weight training, conditioning, and working on improving their skills. By the time the season rolled around they were in rare form and ready to go.

The Cavaliers started out on fire taking control of the section. Unfortunately, this was not meant to last. The team was plagued with injuries including captains, BJ Swartzlander and Matt Synan. This team continued to fight through obstacles which many other teams would not have made it through. Despite all the adversity, the Cavaliers still had a positive year capped with a thrilling victory against North Catholic.

Kiski was able to achieve success due to the outstanding senior leadership combined with an abundance of talent. Continuous hard work will breed success in the future. Inspiration will be drawn from the 98-99 team, which against all odds never gave up.

Track and Field

When spring arrives, it is time for track season. Jumpers, throwers, sprinters, long distance runners, and hurdlers all get ready to do their best. The boys' and girls' track teams work hard everyday to achieve the goals that they set early in the season. Even though the boys and girls have separate teams they both work as one during a track meet. The excitement is unbelievable.

The boys and girls cheer for each other, work toward a win, and strive to do their best. Breaking your personal record, or p.r., is the number one goal on everyone's mind. Pushing yourself and others to do well is also very important. No matter how long it takes, the girls and boys stay strong until the very end.

Doing push-ups, sit-ups, and stretches is an easy warm-up for the teams. The jumpers, throwers, and long distance runners then separate themselves. Supporting each group is a lot of fun. Yelling chants and cheers really gets everyone pumped up. This helps loosen up those members who are nervous. All you need to do is your very best and if all goes well a victory will follow. It is always a beautiful day for track practice.

The girls' 1999 softball team's season was full of trials and triumphs. Kiski's lady Cavs came out on top with an outstanding section record of 8-2, earning them the title of section co-champs. With the help of their coaches, Mrs. Diane Haney, and Mr. James Trunzo, the team went all the way to the second round playoffs. There, they battled an unforgettable game that lasted an amazing eleven innings against Hempfield. Each and every girl on the team fought until the very end and never once considered defeat. Chandra Heilman stated, "It was nice to see all the hard work and dedication pay off when we found out we were section co-champs."

Even though the eleven innings of the playoff game ended in defeat, they were champions in their own way. They accomplished more than ever was thought possible. Teamwork, determination, and awesome skills came together to create a great season for the Lady Cavs. The energy from this season will certainly help to push them into the next.

Covering every sport until the end of May.

Covering practices and games, with their water bottles in hand,

The Student Trainer is always ready to lend a helping hand.

They always arrive early, to get ready for the show,

Filling ice chests, stocking kits, and getting ready to go.

Heating pools, making ice bags, getting ready to tape and treat,

They spend countless hours taping player's feet.

They know all the players by number and name,

Working to keep them healthy from game to game.

When you look upon the paper, you won't see their names,

They don't make big plays to win the big games.

Day in and day out, the grind is the same,

Very little recognition, just the love of the game.

Working behind the scenes to achieve success,

They are part of the team — no more, no less.

The score may be huge, or it could be zero,

But, when all is said and done, The Student Trainer is the true, Unsung Hero.

Chelsea Kolakowski

When walking down the hallways near the auditorium, one can hear beautiful voices singing and perfectly tuned instruments playing. Kiski Area High School's music department continues to have one of the finest music programs in the nation. A great deal of time and effort is put forth by the students and directors in order for the many music programs to run smoothly. Although participating in music may sometimes be time consuming, it gives students a chance to show their talent and have a lot of fun.

Students in the ninth grade begin high school music in either the ninth grade band or the ninth grade choir. Experiences in the ninth grade band prepare student musicians for symphonic band and wind ensemble. Ninth grade band is the only high school band that has a Christmas concert. "I really enjoy ninth grade band, especially the Christmas concert. We can put everyone in the Christmas spirit with our music!" stated Connie Talmage. The ninth grade choir is a great experience for younger choir members. It gives the participating students the opportunity to become a well-rounded singer. Singing with the ninth grade choir prepares students for one of the many other choirs at Kiski. The ninth grade band and choir have two concerts during the year one at Christmas and one in the spring. After ninth grade, band members audition to be in either wind ensemble or symphonic band. Symphonic band, directed by Mr. Keech and Mr. Wozniak, has approximately 90 members. Members must audition for chair placement. Each year the symphonic band participates in two concerts with the wind ensemble. The wind ensemble's membership is picked by audition-only. The musical arrangements that the wind ensemble play are very difficult and take hours of practice to perfect. The wind ensemble and symphonic band participated in the Music in the Parks competition this past spring. The Music in the Parks trip is always a great weekend and the competition gives students the opportunity to listen to other musical groups.

Jazz music continues to play a big role in the band department at Kiski. This year there were three jazz bands at the high school, Jazz Band I, Jazz Band II, and Jazz Band III. Students in Jazz Band I are skilled in jazz performance and music. Most of these students have been playing for many years. Jazz Band II and III students receive training in jazz music and improvising, so that they may one day participate in Jazz Band I. Each year the jazz bands participate in several concerts including one at the Casino Theatre in Vandergrift.

The Kiski Area Marching Band members continued their hard work this year. The band participated in a competition in Cumberland Valley, Pa where they entertained the crowd and brought home first place. The Cumberland Valley trip was one of the highlights of the marching band season. In West Virginia at the BOA Eastern Regional Competition, the marching band enjoyed another victory when they tied the Norwin High School Marching Band for first place. The season turned out to be a terrific experience and a lot of fun for the hard working members.

This year, Mrs. Rupert, the show choir director decided to divide the show choir into two choirs to accommodate the large number of talented singers and dancers at Kiski. An audition determines placement into Kaleidoscope or Take Two show choirs. This year, Kaleidoscope is performing a multiculturally themed show. Take Two performs selected music from various disciplines. Both choirs perform in competition as well as several charitable events.

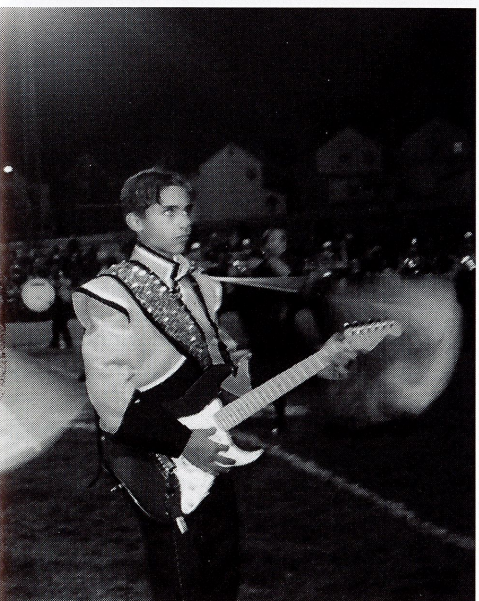

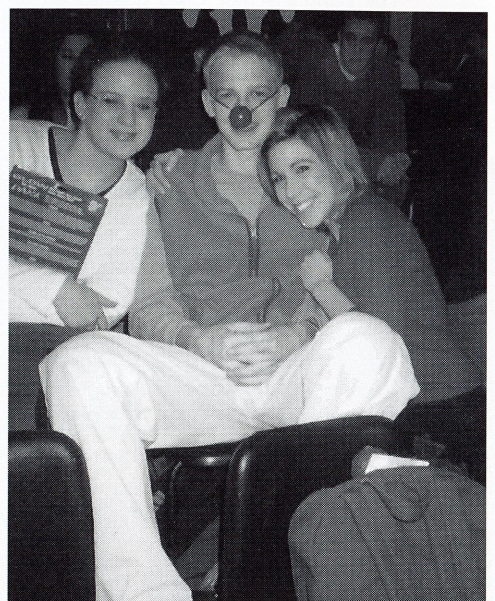

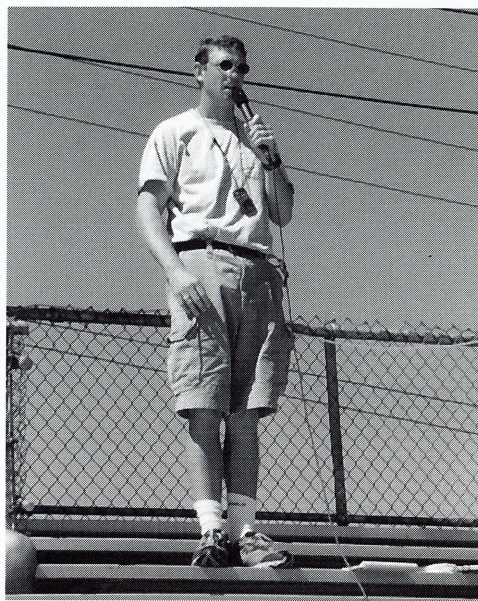

Anyone who has the desire to sing and doesn't enjoy auditioning can join the concert choir or the women's choir. Concert choir consists of ninth, tenth, and eleventh grade boys and eleventh and twelfth grade girls. This choir is the largest of all the Kiski choirs. Women's choir is comprised of tenth grade girls. This is the third year that Kiski has enjoyed the unique sounds of isolated treble voices. These choirs prepare the students for further and more difficult choral pieces.

Chorale is Kiski's elite group of vocalists. These students sing primarily acapella selections for their performances. This group sings in many concerts and performs for charitable organizations. Jazz Rock performs songs that are more contemporary than the other ensembles. Eighteen talented students participate in Jazz Rock each year. Jazz Rock has won many awards for their excellent performances.

Kiski Area's music programs give students a chance to learn more about the art of music. Learning the importance of music and how to better music skills is a fun and enjoyable experience. Everyone should have music as a part of their lives.

The band's senior class gathers in front of the streetlight from their freshman show, Classic Innovations - The Music of George Gershwin. Each year the band holds a banquet after the season is over. Everyone wears fancy outfits and has a great time!

The notes from "Since I Don't Have You" echo through Davis Field. This year's show was based on the music of the Brian Setzer Orchestra.

Drum major, Mike Korns, is your band ready?! Mike gives the Kiski Drum Major Salute at the Kiski Competition. The Kiski Competition is the biggest annual money maker for the band.

MARK TIME MARK... Kiski Area Marching Band

The process of selecting a competitive marching band show is very involved. The entire process begins by selecting the music.

The Kiski Band has a strong Jazz program, so we try and find music in the jazz category which we feel is entertaining and substantial enough to be used for a competitive show. I spend many hours looking up music and listening to CD's. Borders is my Laboratory of choice. After selecting what we feel are appropriate pieces of music, we then look at what the band's strengths and weaknesses will be for that season. After categorizing these aspects, we then take the music to our wind arranger who arranges the notes on paper for the correct instrumentation of the band. This process takes several weeks. After the wind arrangements are finished, we then send them to our percussion arranger. He writes all of the percussion elements into the wind arrangements.

During the time that the arrangements are being completed, the drill designer has been listening to the original recordings of the music. He then begins to create the visual interpretation. A drill designer is someone who creates the motion that you see the band perform on the field. He places dots on a piece of paper or a computer screen which looks like a grid on a football field. Each band member is assigned a number and on each page of drill, that person's number moves from coordinate to coordinate or from point A to point B. As he is listening to the music, he is creating the motion or "conceptualizing" what the band will be doing during the music. He also helps make the visual part of the show exciting and appealing to the audience.

When the wind and percussion arrangements are finished, I then look at each individual phrase and count of music. I write down all of the musical information contained in that particular phrase. Such as, who has the melody? Who is going to have the melody? Is it loud or is it soft? Strong or weak? Slow or fast? Where does the colorguard need to be placed to enhance the music? I then send all of this information to our drill designer. He then begins putting the drill together to match the visual "motion" with the musical "emotion."

After we receive the drill and teach it to our band members, we begin the process of "cleaning." When a band member marches from point A to point B, we call this a drill set. There can be as many as 65 to 85 sets in one ten minute show. For each single drill set, it takes up to six hours of rehearsal time to get that one set to look and sound "Kiski Clean," or as close to perfection as possible.

If all the planning that is done on paper is correct, then the majority of rehearsal time is spent perfecting the show. Obviously, there are times when we make adjustments to the show to enhance the music or to make sure that the music and the drill coordinate correctly, but at the same time, the creative process is not an exact science. So after hours and hours of planning and rehearsing, the ultimate goal is a "State of the Art Show" with a "State of the Art Performance."

Wind Ensemble

The Kiski Area Wind Ensemble is one of Kiski's finest performing groups. Mr. Wozniak and Mr. Keech audition students for entry. These persons are then placed in chairs according to their ranking. Once all auditions are finished, the list of who made the ensemble is posted. The first week or so is spent establishing the tone of the group. The literature, or music, is given to the group to learn and practice. Each week the Wind Ensemble rehearses during 4th period and after school on Wednesdays. Each year, a concert is held at Bethel Park and Trinity High Schools. Shortly thereafter, the annual Mid-Winter concert is held with the Symphonic Band. After the Mid-Winter concert, the ensemble focuses on music for the Adjudication Festival that is held at Kiski each year. The Spring Concert is also performed a short time later. Last year, the Wind Ensemble took a trip to Busch Gardens in Virginia to perform for Music in the Parks. This year, they are planning a similar trip. Wind Ensemble is a terrific experience.

Ninth Grade Band

When people attend a ninth grade band concert, they don't realize the amount of work that goes into having a good performance. They also don't realize all the fun we have. The band breaks up into sectionals and gets individual help from out experienced teachers. When we recieve the music for our concerts, we go through the music in these sections. After we perfect the music in these sectionals, we perform the music as a whole band. At this time, we combine our music and play it over and over, working out errors, so that we sound good. We also have rehearsals the night before the concert to get a good grasp of what it will be like to perform on stage. This may seem like hard work and sometimes it is, but we have fun doing it. We listen to tapes and watch videos so we can see professionals perform and learn from them. All in all, 9th grade band is an experience that takes commitment and discipline, yet is fun at the same time.

—Timmy Howells

Jazz Bands II and III

Taking part in Jazz Bands II and III is a terrific experience for young and maturing musicians. We learn a great deal about jazz, its history, and its great artists. We learn how to play different kinds of music in Jazz Band such as blues, swing, and latin styles. Jazz Bands II and III's prime purpose is to have fun, enjoy music, and become better musicians to one day participate in Jazz Band I. These jazz bands participate in many concerts each year such as the Alle-Kiski Jazz Festival in February and Jazz-O-Rama in the spring.

Jazz Band I

Perhaps the highest honor in the music program is to be in the Kiski Area Jazz Ensemble I. Admission is through audition only. The band practices the "B" lunch as well as after school on Tuesdays until 4:30. Recent performances and accomplishments for the ensemble include trips to Busch Gardens, Williamsburg, and Hershey as well as making an appearance at York, Pennsylvania. Each year the band also does Jazz at the Casino at the Casino Theatre and every few years they perform at the 51st annual Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago, Illinois.

Symphonic Band

The Kiski Area Symphonic Band meets everyday fourth period in the band room. This ensemble is under the direction of Mr. Keech and Mr. Wozniak. The band has two concerts a year. One is the Midwinter Concert in February and one is the Spring Concert in May. There are approximately 90 members in the band, ranging from 9th to 12th grade. All of the members work together to make the band a success.

Take Two Show Choir

In addition to the numerous activities available to the students at Kiski is the new Take Two Show Choir. Traditionally, Kiski had only one mixed show choir and one girls' show choir, but with the increased interest of the students, Mrs. Rupert decided that it was only fair to create another mixed show choir. Show choir begins at the beginning of August with Show Choir Camp. Show choir camp lasts all week and during the camp we learn the songs and the dances. After the camp, we have weekly practices until school starts. When school starts we have three practices a week during A and B lunch. These practices lead up to many performances during the year, and a final performance in May. This year, the final performance is a competition held in Toronto, Canada. To end the year, the Choral Department puts on a final show choir performance. This final concert is held at the high school and is open to anyone.

Kiski Area Choirs

OUR PLACE OF HARMONY

The Kiski Area Choirs are probably some of the most diverse groups in the high school. Their members range from students who will make some field of music their life's work to students who just enjoy singing. One can find a wide variety of interests among the students, including all major sports, academic honors, and clubs.

The music chosen for the different ensembles is as diverse as the groups themselves. The Chorale, an audition-only group, concentrates on a cappella and foreign language pieces while the concert choir sings lighter and more contemporary music. The music of the Women's Choir provides a contrast to these two choirs in that all of their music is arranged for treble voices. The Ninth Grade Choir is a training choir, utilizing a variety of music chosen to develop the expertise needed to move on to a higher level.

The Jazz Rock Ensemble and the two show choirs, Kaliedoscope and Take Two, showcase the diverse abilities of many of the students in the vocal program. Not only are they the most proficient singers in the vocal music program, but they must also develop an ability to dance well and perform with ease in front of many different types of audiences, ranging from our elementary school students to senior citizens and community groups.

The differences found in the choirs at Kiski are probably their strongest point, allowing students from different backgrounds and with different personalities and activities to join together and find a common bond in music, the universal language.

—Mrs. Rupert

Kaleidescope Show Choir

The most prestigious show choir at Kiski Area is Kaleidescope. It is made up of sophomore, junior, and senior chorus members who demonstrate exceptional talents in singing and dancing. Kaleidescope meets four days a week in the chorus room during the lunch periods. The music selections this year consist of songs of ethnic variety — a diverse musical sampling from different parts of the world. The members of Kaleidescope put in a lot of time and dedication to make their program the best that it can be. Without the expertise of Mrs. Rupert, the director, and Kim Clark, the choreographer, Kaleidescope would not be the success it has become.

9th Grade Choir

Do — Re — Mi...The ninth grade chorus, directed by Mrs. Ellen Rupert, performs in two concerts each year as well as an adjudication competition, to be held in Toronto this year. The choir is comprised of ninth grade boys and girls who learn the basic techniques of singing. At the end of their freshman year, the students will audition to be in some of the more demanding choral groups at Kiski.

Chorale

Chorale is the most selective audition choir at Kiski. These supreme vocalists perform very difficult pieces, many of them acapella. This year Chorale participated in the Highlands Rotary Club Christmas Concert, which benefits the World Hunger Organization. Also, each Christmas at the Christmas Concert, Chorale traditionally sings "Silent Night" acapella. The last verse of the song is sung in German. Chorale generally sings in many other concerts throughout the year. Chorale is a good experience for those in Kiski who love to sing.

Concert Choir

Concert Choir is made up of 10th, 11th, and 12th grade boys and 11th and 12th grade girls. The ensemble sings all different types of songs in their concerts. A Christmas and Spring Concert is held in the high school auditorium. In addition to the concerts, many of the members go on the 'end of the year' trip in May. The trip is a choral competition where Kiski competes against other choirs from around the United States. It is a great experience.

Jazz Rock

The Jazz Rock Ensemble consists of eighteen students in grades ten through twelve. They specialize in singing contemporary and jazz music and are truly the 'good will ambassadors' of the school district. These talented young men and women sing for many community affairs as well as school oriented activities such as the Senior Citizen's Luncheon, and many of the elementary schools. They constantly win top honors at the many competitions they attend, including those in Williamsburg, Virginia Beach, Chicago, Toronto, and New York City.

Women's Choir

Women's Choir is one of the most unique musical opportunities that Kiski has to offer. This year, the choir consists of 57 10th grade girls. One interesting aspect of this choir is that they perform music written for all treble voices. One popular number that the girls performed at the Christmas concert was "Joyful Joyful" from the hit movie "Sister Act." The performance was complete with dance movements that the girls created themselves.

Time for Technology

Vocational Technical

Vo-Tech holds a variety of field related classes. There are four different school districts that attend the Northern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center including Franklin Regional, Kiski Area, Burrell, and Valley. Twelve different types of classes are offered at the Career and Technology Center. The top priority for each of these classes is learning safety and safety measures. Most of the classes consist of classroom or theory learning in addition to shop learning.

Auto Mechanics class trains students in the skills needed for automotive repairwork on all different kinds of vehicles. Carpentry class deals with the skills needed for the construction industry. These students also learn how to build items such as kitchen cabinets. Commercial Art classes prepare students to go into a field dealing with the elements and principles of art. Students are taught lettering, poster design, fashion illustration, and air brush techniques.

Computer Technology students learn how to work in or on word processing, data bases, spreadsheets, desktop publishing, and the Internet. Accounting is required for each Computer Tech student. Electronics Technology classes deal with machines that are run with electricity, including such machines as computers and radios.

Cosmetology classes prepare students to work in a hair salon. These students have clinic days on Thursday and Friday where students from other classes or people from the public come and can get their hair styled. Culinary Arts classes teach students to work in the food service field, which basically deals with ordering, preparing, cooking, and serving food or drinks. Medical Assistant classes help students prepare themselves for any jobs in the health field. They learn First Aid and CPR, along with x-ray technology. Marketing classes prepare students to work as a store manager, sales clerk, purchasing agent, etc. These students operate the school store. They sell food, slushies, and school supplies.

Machine Tool classes teach how to work with commonly used tools in current machine shops. These students also learn how to read blueprints. The Masonry course deals with the cutting and laying of concrete blocks, bricks, and glass blocks. Welding classes practice the joining together of various types of metals.

Going to vo-tech is a great opportunity for high school students. The skills learned by going to vo-tech enable a person to get a job right out of school.

—Tamara Filo

The culinary crew shows off their uniforms. Culinary is one of the most popular choices for Kiski Vo-Tech students. What are you cooking guys?

Lee Ann Crawford blow dries a fellow student's hair. On special days, the public can have their hair styled at the center. You're doing a great job Lee Ann!

You Should Have Been There

Kiski Life

Kiski High School is a great place to go to school. Why? Clubs and students enjoy terrific activities during the school year.

Everyone loves Halloween right? The students at Kiski Area typically do. You can see this by the large number of people that participate in dressing up on Halloween. While walking down the hall on Halloween, you'll probably see a variety of nerds, all types of monsters, and maybe even a herd of cows. But the problem is you don't see all the costumes during the day. That is why Kiski's Student Council hosts the Halloween Coffee House. During the Coffee House, you get to go to the cafeteria, have a cookie and a drink, and see everyone dressed up. You can sit with your friends and talk about all the hilarious costumes. Junior, Autumn DeLellis, stated, "The Coffee House was a great time, I enjoyed seeing all of my friends dressed up. It's good to see all of my friends having a good time on Halloween."

Nothing can be more frustrating than when you see someone that really has a great costume and you don't have the time in school to take their picture. The Coffee House was also good for taking pictures of everyone in their costumes. In school you may not have the time to take the pictures you want, so the Coffee House was the perfect place to get them. "It seems like everyone had a really good time at the Coffee House. It was just a good ending to a fun day. I like being able to relax and just enjoy the end of Halloween," stated junior, Eric Plowman.

The Coffee House was a great place to see all of your friends dressed up, take pictures, and just relax on Halloween. The Coffee House is a grand event.

Everyone loves when the eight period bell rings and school is finally over. Nothing is better than after a long day, knowing that you can go home and rest for a while. However, this isn't the case for a lot of students at Kiski Area High School. Many students have jobs they have to go to right after school.

People that are in school related activities complain about getting home at six o'clock, but the students that work are sometimes not home until eight, nine, or even ten o'clock at night. As you can imagine this can be very tiring. "The hardest part is trying to finish my homework, when I have to work until eleven o'clock," stated Jack Miller.

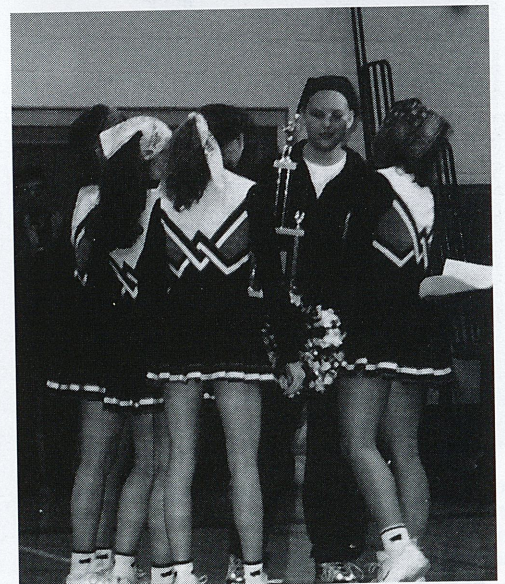

You may ask why would these people want to work so much when they have all they're lives to do work? The answer to that question is different in all cases. Some students have to pay for things such as cars and insurance; some like to help out with their expenses, and some just like have extra money in their pockets on the weekends. For whatever reason, getting an after school job is not easy, and the students who have been working have accomplished quite a feat by getting a job.

Many students in Kiski Area are faced with difficult times, but few have been met with the sort of challenge that has faced sophomore Jaime Vick this past year. Jaime was diagnosed with leukemia early in her freshman year, a disease of the blood that leaves its victims weak and easily susceptible to infection. As a member of the KA basketball team, Jaime battled the disease into remission with the help of her doctors, friends, and family. A star player, she returned to the courts midway through the season this year. For her efforts, WTAE-TV, Channel 4, named Jaime the first Student Athlete of the Week for the new millennium. The 2000 Campus Yearbook Staff dedicates a spread in this section to her and her accomplishments.

We have only touched upon the tip of the iceberg concerning Kiski Life. KA Life is all around us. We see it in sports, clubs, special events, academics, music, each other and ourselves. It is time to open our eyes and truly see the great faces and places all around us.

—Ian Pearson

Jaime Vick

WTAE Athlete of the Week

On January 6th, 2000, the entire Kiski student body united in support of the efforts of one of their own. Sophomore Jaime Vick, who has been battling leukemia for about a year, was named Student Athlete of the Week by WTAE-TV, Channel 4.

In February of last year, Jaime was diagnosed with leukemia. The news of her illness quickly spread throughout the school, saddening the entire student body, especially those who know and love Jaime. Jaime faced a terrible battle, but made an immediate commitment to conquering the disease. With the support of her parents, her twin sister, Jodie, her fellow basketball team members, and the entire Cavalier community, Jaime beat the odds and is now in remission. Recently she made a triumphant come-back to the courts, inspiring WTAE to honor her with this award.

Over 1200 students packed the gymnasium in support of Jaime at the end of the day on Thursday, January 6th. A Channel 4 news crew attended, showing the entire Pittsburgh area clips of the ceremony on the evening news. Many people were overwhelmed by the show of support Kiski has given Jaime, including her Algebra II teacher, Mr. Fantaski, who offered his comments on the tribute, saying, "I am a Kiski graduate myself and this is definitely the most unified Cavalier event that I have ever experienced. Never has the Kiski gym seen such love, support and respect as was shown in the silence during the award ceremony." The students and faculty who attended the assembly will surely remember it for the rest of their lives. The echoes of a true winner will forever grace the court where sophomore Jaime Vick displays her talents and determination, an inspiration to us all.

In her battle with leukemia and her courage to come back, Jaime has shown us the true meaning of the word "hero." Sometimes the greatest heroes are not found exploring the world or performing on stage, although, sometimes, you can still find them on high school basketball courts.

—Beth Hommel

Andrew Stockey presents Jaime with her trophy as a Channel 4 camera person shoots footage for the evening news.

Jaime poses for a picture with Andrew Stockey after accepting her award. In addition to the trophy and recognition Jaime received, she also won a $250 award for the school.

Jaime and her twin sister Jodie show their school spirit at a football game.

In her fight against leukemia, Jaime underwent chemotherapy treatments which caused hair loss. To lift her spirits, the KA Cheerleaders don bandannas in support.

The Cheerleaders created this banner to welcome WTAE's Andrew Stocky to our school.

Halloween Coffeehouse

A Frightful, Ghoulish, Haunting Time

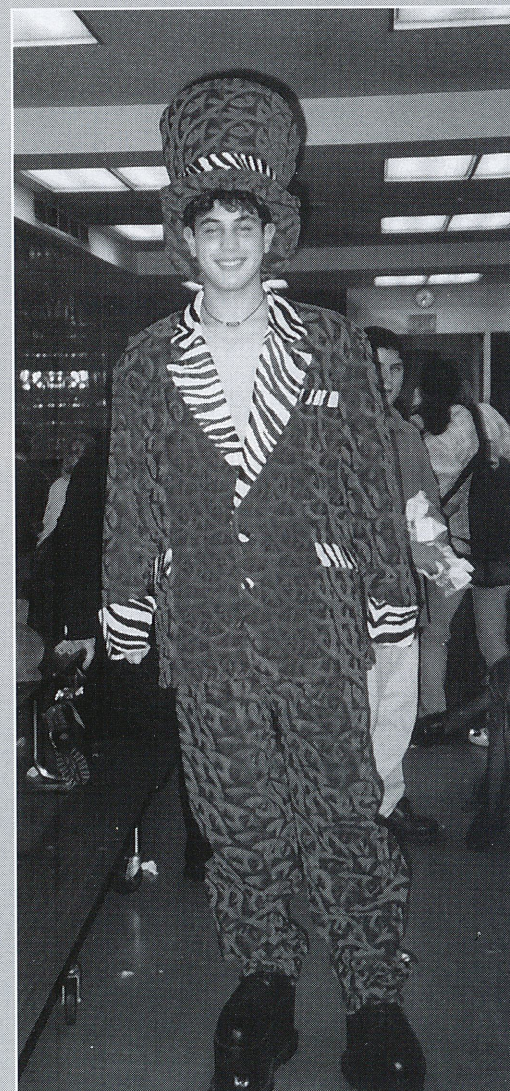

On October 29th, the creatures that go bump in the night rose through the floor cracks and skulked around the high school corridors. This was the day when Student Council sponsored their annual Halloween Coffeehouse. The creepy crawlies made their way to the upper and lower cafeterias for a fiendish feast of doughnuts and drinks. Halloween comes but once a year. Why not bring out the monster in everyone with a few scary costumes and 'terrific' treats? Around Halloween, you must be careful where you step — for who knows what lurks around dark corners. Shrieks, screams, thunder, and lightening may pierce the quiet night, but this year's coffeehouse was alive with the sounds and apparel of festive students.

—Katie Falk

Jason Wray is out to save the day. Captian Kiski's on his way. Can't think of anything else to say.

Mike Gess shares his 'angelic' qualities with all of the other students in the courtyard. The only thing Mike is missing is his Halloween Halo.

"Luke, I am your father!" Mark Evans and Bill Stankay look menacing in their Darth Vader and Stormtrooper costumes. Star Wars costumes were very popular this year due to the release of Episode I.

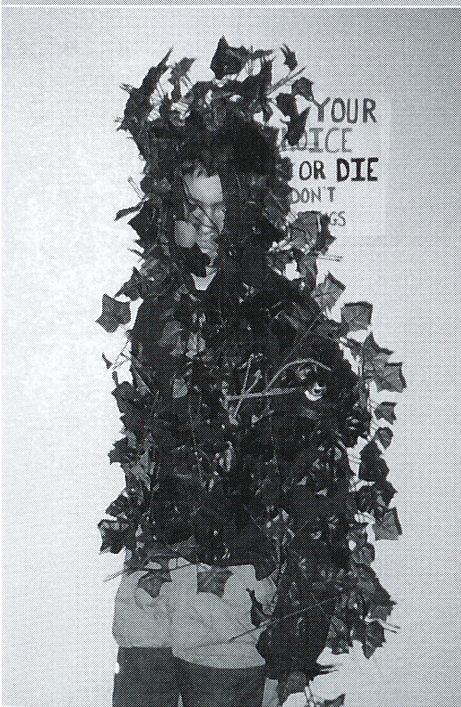

Chris Truffa makes an impressive LouVega. Cierra Sample, Jody Pounds, Chris Truffa, and Kiersten Confer are ready for a night out on the town. "A little bit of Mambo" is all they need.

Beau Key dressed as a cross between the Mad Hatter and a disco king. "I Will Survive" Alice in Wonderland's very merry un-birthday party.

YMCA! A student version of the popular band, The Village People, made an appearance in the four hundred building. They certainly look like "macho men".

straight from The Wizard of Oz, comes a walking talking tree (Tim Martin) complete with a bird's nest. Look out Dorothy, I don't think you want to get hit by any apples from this tree!

The FBI

"Big Brother is watching..."

"I love Halloween; it's like Christmas without the presents!"

Megan Jeter

"I like to dress up for Halloween because it makes me feel like a kid again."

"Yeah, baby! Halloween is a very groovy time."

Ken Parsons

Flinstones, meet the Flinstones! Cara Castelli, Nicole Amato, Natalie Funk, Kelli Snyder, Lindsey Cole, and Ashlee Yingling portray that wacky gang from the stone age. Have a yabba dabba doo time girls!

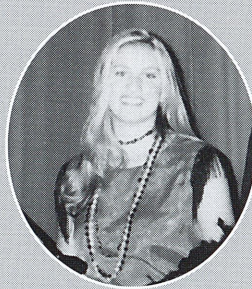

Beef du jour, Cheese Shouffle, pie and pudding on flambe! Justin Liberatore sports his chef outfit. He resembles the man on the Pringles can.

Stephanie Nagle

"Costume shopping is the best part of halloween. Yarn 'n' Darn has great costumes."

"The best thing about the coffee house was all of the interesting costumes."

Jenn Aikins

Hank Novak

"We decided to dress like dorks, so Jeff wouldn't stand out so much."

"Everyone has to let their inner-self show sometimes. Superman rules over Batman any day."

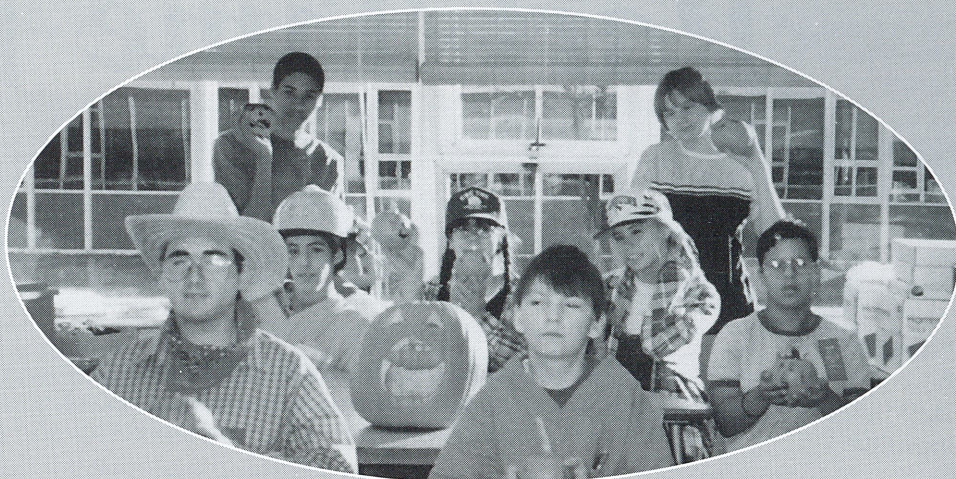

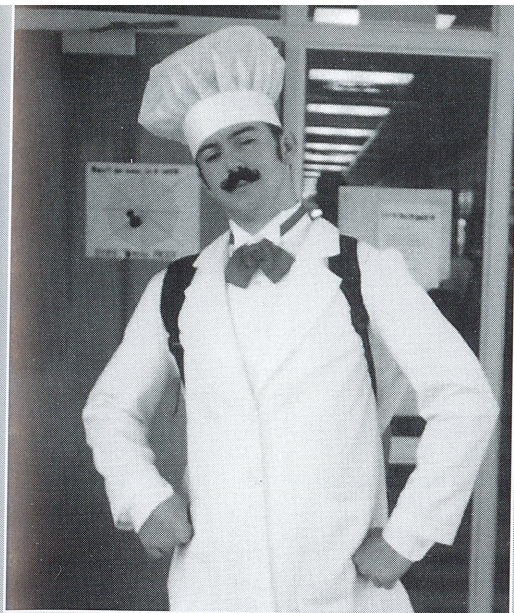

Seth Erwin

On Halloween, anything goes. Autumn DeLellis and Lindsey Korns pretend to be a surfer dudette and a fifties bopper. They must listen to lots of fifties hits like "Surfing U.S.A." and "Little Deuce Coupe".

The life skills class shows off their amazing pumpkins. Pumpkin carving is one of the best parts of Halloween. Triangle eyes or circle eyes?

Chris Minarcin, Brian Palermo, Bill York, Chrissy Moran, and Cody Noga spend the day as nerds. They come complete with suspenders and pocket protectors.

Angelic nun, Alexis Webb, doesn't match Shannon Kelly's party outfit. The two took some time away from gym class to show off their snazzy outfits.

Stephanie Nagle and Paula Begovich dress the part of a princess and a witch. The girls did a Disney theme, as their costumes were Maleficent and Maid Marion.

Jason and Ashley Maupin are terrifying in their black costumes. You two look like death warmed over!

Part-Time Jobs

Spending Time Wisely

Overall, I like having a job. I don't have as much free time, but I like to be busy and the money's a nice incentive."

—Mike Rinaldi, senior

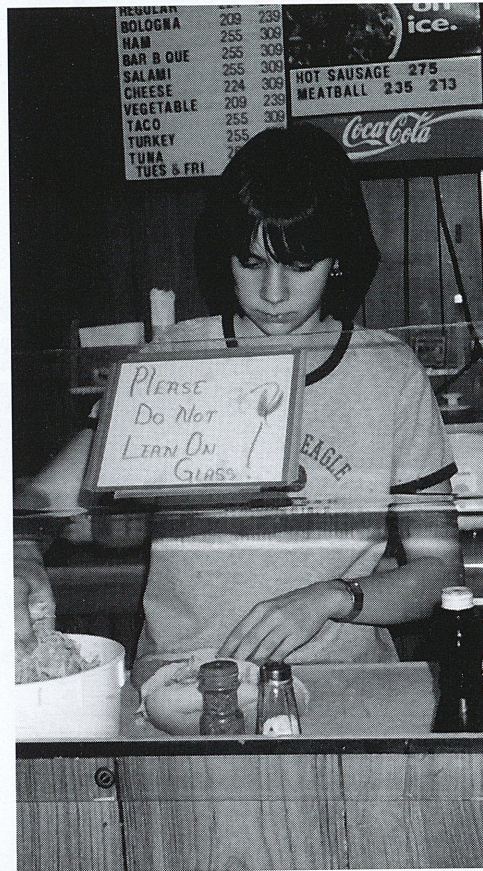

Everyone loves when the eighth period bell rings and school is finally over. After a long day, nothing is better than knowing that you can go home and rest for a while. However, this isn't the case for a lot of students at Kiski Area High School. Many students have jobs they go to right after school. People involved in school related activities complain about getting home at six o'clock, but students who work sometimes don't get home until eight, nine, or even ten o'clock at night. As you can imagine, this can be exhausting. The hardest part is trying to finish my homework when I have to work until eleven o'clock," says Jack Miller, a junior.

You may ask why would these people want to work so much when they have all their lives to work? The answer to that question is different in most cases. Some students have to pay for car expenses, some like to help out at home by providing income, and some just like having the extra pocket money on weekends.

Part time jobs come in all shapes and sizes. You can work at places like K-Mart, Burger King, or a gas station. Some people have more unique jobs like babysitting, tutoring, or mowing lawns. Some of the most creative jobs Kiski students have are: professional scrapbooking, children's party planning, and — believe it or not — professional poet.

Jenelle Kneppshield is hard at work preparing hoagies at The Hoagie Shop in Apollo. Sometimes, when sports teams place orders, Jenelle and her co-workers must rush to make as many as 80 hoagies in an hour!

Senior Bill Stankay prepares a customer's order. Do you want fries with that?

Senior Missy King stocks shelves at Giant Eagle. You might be surprised to learn that, because of a co-op arrangement with the vo-tech, she works during half the school day.

Kiski Life

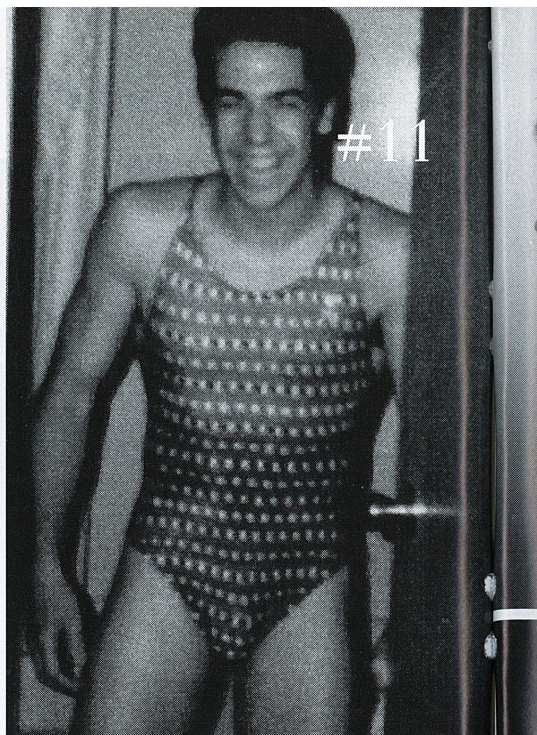

"Thank you for choosing McDonalds." Rhonda McKenzie, along with many other Kiski students, found work at the Allegheny Plaza McDonalds. "Come back soon!"

12th grader Mike Snyder is ready to take your order! He is a valued employee at the Lower Burrell Wendy's restaurant.

During Business Hours

Advertising Section

Without advertisements, the Campus yearbook would cease to exist. Parents, friends, and faithful businesses donate a generous amount of money each year to make this book a success. These contributors are the people who enable the yearbook staff to preserve our memories for years to come.

Our business staff, headed by editors, Veronica Brestensky and Natalie Funk, spend summer days searching the Alle-Kiski Valley for possible advertisers. Generous donations come from a wide range of businesses such as dentists, car dealerships, churches, and bakeries. How could our yearbook be complete without Trig teacher Mr. Toland's ad for his hoagie shop? In addition to business ads, many parents and businesses are patron advertisers. The staff greatly appreciates their contributions for, without them, this book would not have been possible.

Parents also show their support for the yearbook by purchasing advertisements to let their children know just how proud of them they really are. Parent ads are a great way to display those embarrassing bathtub pictures from when you were young.

Much of the funding for the Campus yearbook is gained through friendship pages and friendship messages. Friendship pages show off those wacky pictures you and your best buds have collected over the past 18 years. They will surely bring back fond memories in the years to come, and they will continue to remind us of those who mean so much. Friendship messages preserve all those inside jokes you've created. Hopefully things we wrote like "Hey Poonkin, remember the bubble stuff always" will still make sense in twenty years. At the very least, let us hope we will remember who "Poonkin" was.

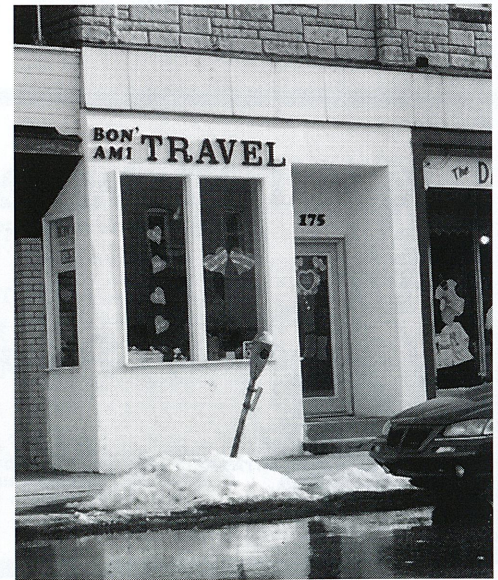

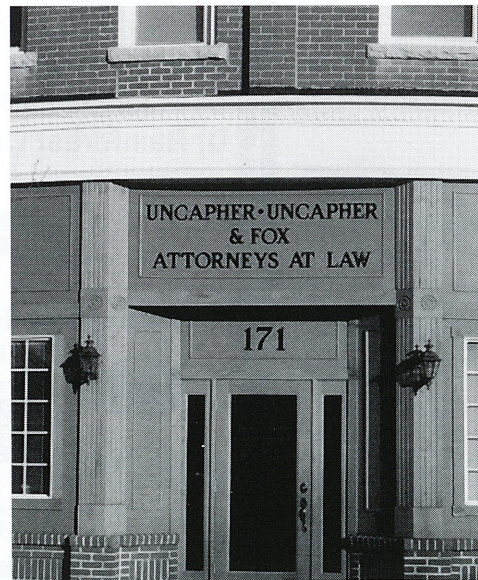

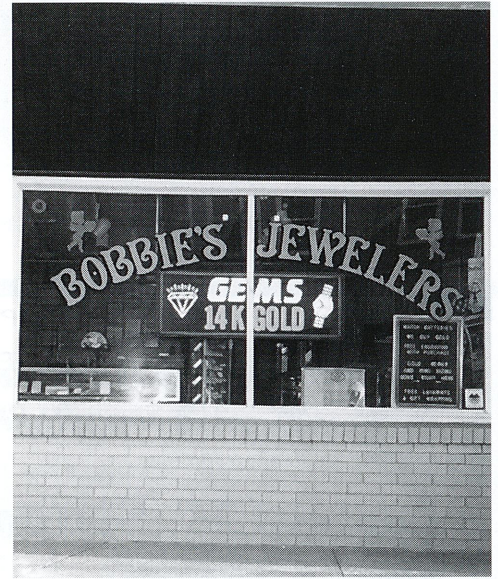

Contributions from parents, friends, and businesses have helped fund the yearbook staff's crusade to preserve our memories in this yearbook. We hope you appreciate our efforts as much as we appreciate the generosity of our sponsors, supporters, and community.

Dear Lori,
You have always seemed to know exactly what you wanted from the time you could tell us. And you always seem to know how to get it. Do not give up on your dreams — just work a little harder. We love you and are proud of you.

Mom, Dad, Lindsey, and Madison

Congratulations Tyffanee!

We are very proud of you. You are a beautiful person whom we are proud to call our daughter. May all your dreams come true.

Love you always,
Mom, Dad, & Brothers

"Whether you think you can or think you can't - you're right."

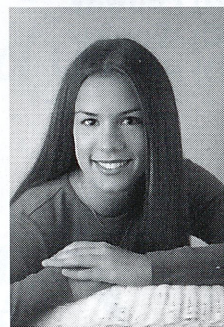

Michelle-
Thank you for your "I Can" attitude. I'm very proud of you.

Mom

Congratulations, Natalie! We are truly blessed to have such a beautiful daughter. You've always been so determined and such a hard worker. Good luck at Penn State. We wish you love, success, & happiness in all you do.

All our love,
Mom & Dad

Mike,

We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. We have always encouraged you to believe in yourself and your abilities. Now that the end of your Senior year is here and you'll be off to college, continue to insist on integrity, honesty, and sincerity from yourself and others. Dreams and goals do come true if you give 100% and remember, everyday is a new chance to make a difference.

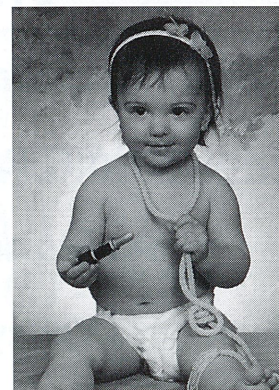

We love you,

Dear Sara,

We loved you enough to ask where you were going, with whom, and what time you would be home. We loved you enough to insist that you save your money and pay half of your car insurance even though we could afford to pay all of it. We loved you enough to let you discover on your own that friends and boyfriends may not have been your best choices. We loved you enough to make you clean your room and do your laundry when we could have done it for you. We loved you enough to let you see anger, disappointment, and tears in our eyes. We wanted you to learn we weren't perfect. But most of all, we loved you enough to say NO when we knew you would hate us. Those were the hardest battles. We're glad we won them, because in the end you won, too. You have made us so proud. We send you off to college knowing you will continue to win... because we loved you enough.

Love always, Mom and Dad

Abby,

You've grown into a beautiful young lady. Your accomplishments have been many with more to come. Keep the values in your heart that you know to be true and you'll always remain on the right path.

We love you very much,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Shawn! You have grown into such a fine young man. We wish you success and happiness and may all your dreams come true. We are very proud of you.

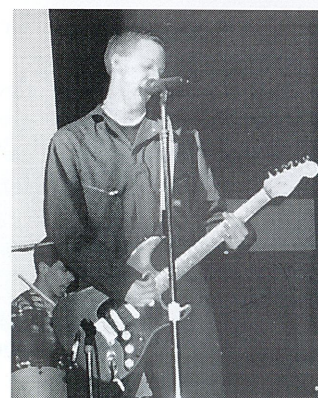

Love, Mom, Dad, and Brian

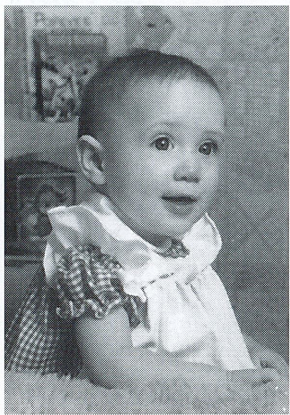

To our wonderful, talented, and most uniquely special son, Bill R. Stankay, we wish you all the love and luck you need to accomplish your dreams. God has blessed you with special gifts and we know you will use them wisely.

We love you very much,
Mom, Dad, Steve, & Chris

To Our Dear Shelzys-

It seems just like yesterday when you started Kindergarten and now you are graduating from high school.

The years went by so fast, but during that time you have developed into a beautiful young woman inside and out.

You have filled our lives with much happiness and love. We are very proud to have you as our daughter.

We wish you success and happiness throughout your life.

You are very special to all of us.

All Our Love,

Mom, Dad, Rebecca, and Michael

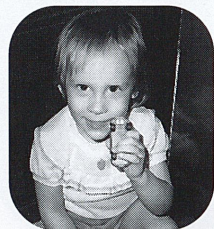

Kara Jo,
Ever since you were two, you loved cars. It was no surprise when you started drag racing at Keystone Raceway like dad.

Jessica,

To our angel. We wish you happiness, much love, and success. We are so very proud of you. Congratulations!

Love, Mom and Dad

Katie,

The years have passed too quickly for us to comprehend.
Our pride is great in who you have become. Remember this as you continue to grow, change, and learn. We love you.

Mom & Dad

Veronica,

It's been beautiful to see how you have developed into the wonderful young lady you are. We don't know what we would do without you in our lives. All we can say is: thanks for being you! We congratulate you and celebrate your achievements. We look forward to your future and all it holds for you. (Look out, Duquense!) We wish you God's Blessings. Always be assured of our being here for you.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

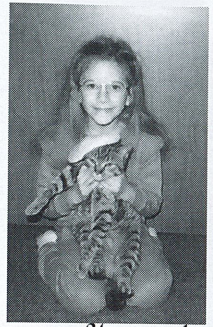

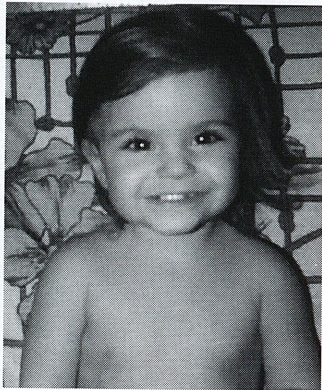

Lacey,
 Congratulations!
 We are so proud of
 you. Keep up the good work. We love you very much!
 Love You Always
 Mom, Dad, Ashley,
 Pap and Grandma

Jessica, you were our first miracle. The genesis of a marriage and the fulfillment of young love. You sustained us through the hamburger years, the first home (trailer furnished in early poverty.) You were new and had unused grandparents and enough clothes for a set of triplets. You were the original model...

for a mom and dad who were trying to work the bugs out. You got the strained lamb, formula experiments and three hour naps. You were the beginning. Love, Mom, Sean, Dad

Melissa,
 We can't believe that we have spent the last 18 years watching you grow and mature. We've enjoyed every tiny step that you've made. But now we're preparing to watch you make one huge step.
 We want to remind you how much we love, respect, and cherish you. We are so proud of you.
 Best of Luck
 Love,
 Mom & Dad

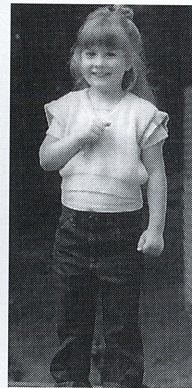

Dear Nikki:
 Seems like yesterday you were so small,
 We were always there when you would fall.
 Now those days have quickly passed,
 The time has gone by much too fast.
 You are afraid to take the big step it's true,
 But now it's time to think about only you.
 No one deserves happiness more than you do,
 We wish you all that love and life have too.
 We will always be here whatever you decide,
 You have given us love and so much pride.

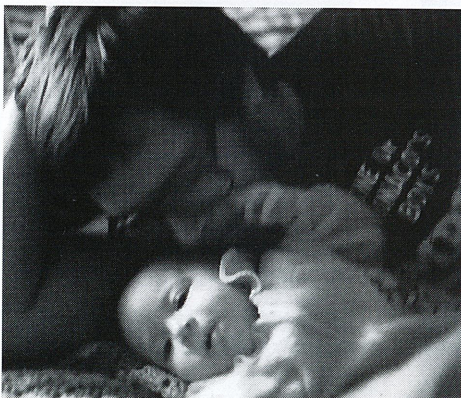

All our love,
 Mom, Dad, & Jen

Amanda,
 You have weathered many storms, but your perseverance has brought you to your graduation day. We are very proud of you. Never give up on your dreams, continue to work hard and keep smiling,
 the world is at your hands.
 We love you,
 Daddy, Linda, Babi & Family

Scruffie,

 first of those are I Love You!
 —Dad

Alecia,
From Laurel Point

school day's lollipop.
Your journey through life's future has just begun. We are so proud and excited for you!
Love,
Dad, Mom, and Andy

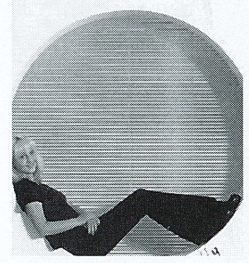

Kelly-

It seems like only yesterday I was, teary eyed, sending you off to kindergarten. Now here I am, teary eyed, thinking of your graduation. Where does the time go? You've turned out to be a beautiful young lady. I know you will be a success at whatever you choose to do.

Your grace and charm will always see you through. We're so proud of you. We Love You, Kel.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Mike

Christina,

We are so proud of you! These words seem so hollow and trite but there are truly no better words to describe what is in our hearts! You have accomplished many measurable things too numerous to list here in your 18 years. We have seen that those traits that God has created in you make you wonderfully unique.. your humor, generosity, and tenderness. These traits, when exhibited before others, will only continue to make you even more endearing to your family, friends, and colleagues as you go out to conquer new challenges and accomplish all your dreams in the years ahead! Our love for you and our pride in you could never be measured and grows beyond words with each passing year!

Dad and Mom

Candice,

As we try to find the perfect words to say about how proud we are of you, we know that we will fall short! We flash back over your life and stand in awe! You have accomplished so much in your 18 years! From the very moment God promised us you would be born, we knew you would be a blessing to everyone... family, friends, and teachers. We know that you will have greater goals and face larger challenges in your future. Knowing the type of compassionate, generous, and focused young woman you have become fills us with the confidence, joy, and certainty that you will succeed no matter what you set your mind to! We love you more than words can express!

Dad and Mom

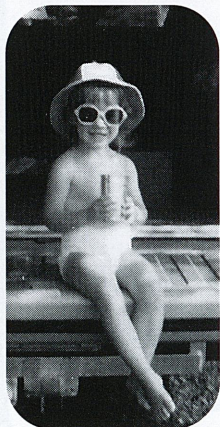

Binky,
You have made us
very proud in all you have accomplished.
Aunt Wilda would be,
too. Keep up the good work and good luck at IUP.

Love you,
Mom & Dad

Laura Leigh, Everyday,

Congratulations and Love
from your MA family.

Melissa-

Through the years you have developed into a very mature loving person and wonderful daughter. We are very proud of you and know that you will always succeed in life, no matter what the challenge. Always try your best and never give up. We will always be there for you and love
you.

Mom, Dad, Kayla

Dan,

May you have the confidence to move forward with your dreams.

Strive to live the life you have imagined and succeed. May you be happy and fulfilled with your art as with all aspects of your future. Know that we are very proud of you and that we will always be here for you.

Congratulations!

Jen,

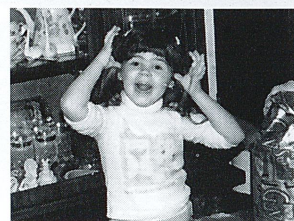

The years have gone so fast, from a tomboy to a bright and beautiful young woman. We are proud of all your hard work. Good luck at college and in the future years to come.

We love you always,
Mom, Dad, and Beth

Kelly,

You are and have always been the precious little girl we always hoped you'd be. You have been given a special gift of true caring and love for others. This "gift" will shine through you as you touch those you meet in your life. You have taught us all how to love through many obstacles and go on when it seemed impossible. Many people have touched your life and ours since you have been at Kiski. Mrs. Bono, Mr. Cahilly, Mr. Toland, Mr. Fantaski, Mr. and Mrs. Defilippi, Mr. Nick, Mr. Brozovich, Mrs. Woitas, Dr. Pipman, Miss Reynolds and others have all added something special to your life because of their caring and concern. I know you will miss them and all your friends as you go on to college. You have made us very proud. We miss you already but our love will be with you always. With love, happiness, and tears,
Mom, Kristina, Grama, Pap, Aunt Carol, Tim, Ted, and Suz
"You Are Our Sunshine!"

Dearest Ellie,
No words could ever begin to express our love and admiration for you. You were raised in disaster, and made strong by tragedy. In a situation where many others would have fallen apart. You have grown into a beautiful woman, both, on the outside and the inside. I am at peace with you. I know, whatever garden it is you choose to grow, it will be a beautiful and successful garden, showered with love.

We love you,
Dad & Howard

Dear Annie, Never give up the dreams that you have-Believe in yourself and they'll come true!
We're proud of you
Love,
Mom, Dad, Chris

We always knew you would add something special to this world.

We are proud of you.

Good Luck and God Bless You Always.

Love,

Mom, Papa Joe, Patrick
Jeremy, Bear, Ruff and Clark

Justin

To our baby boy who has gone on to be a young man who has worked very hard in every aspect of life. We are so proud of you and want you to always experience the same happiness that you have given to us.

Congratulations "Bud!"

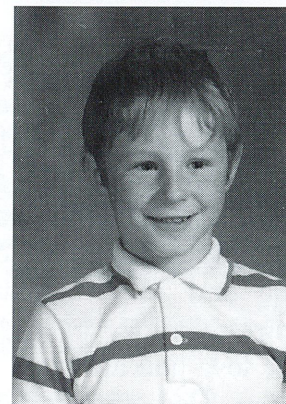

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jamie

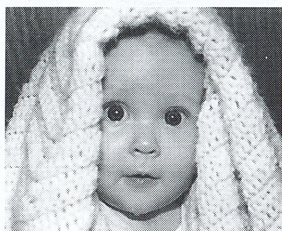

Nathan-
Here's what we think of you now! We are very proud of you. You have accomplished so much in the past 18 years. You are a strong-willed, hard-working, determined young man. No matter what the future holds we know you will always succeed in whatever you do.
Good Luck and Congratulations!!
Mom, Dad, Kaila

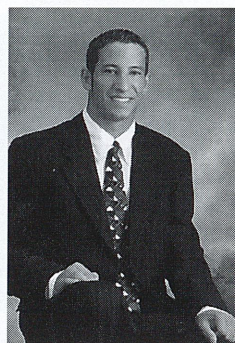

Our Sweet Ashley Lynn,

We don't need to tell you how proud of you we are... you've been making us proud all your treasured life! We don't need to tell you how much we love you... you taught us how to love! What we need is to tell you is thank you for all the wonderful, exciting moments that we can keep in our hearts forever! This would be the time to offer wisdom and advice so your heart would never break, so you'd never fail or make a mistake, and so everything would work out the first time. Well, your heart will probably break, you'll make a mistake or two, and some things will never work out, but you are beautiful, strong and smart enough to handle this all. So we promise we will be here for you with more love than you can ever know! Good Luck at Westminster... another goal you went after and nailed!!! Oh, can you teach your sister to cook before you leave?

Love You Big Much!
Daddy, Mom, and Rhiannie

Brian,

From active toddler to athletic teen to the man you have become, we are so proud of you. We are blessed to have you as our son. You have what it takes to succeed and we wish you all the luck and happiness in the world.

All our Love,
Mom, Dad, & Missi

Baby Ca-Ca,

We are so proud of you, not only for your academic and athletic accomplishments, but for the beautiful person you are. If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it. Never lose sight of your goals.

Anchors

Megan-

Well, you finally made it! It went quick, didn't it? We're so proud of you and all of your accomplishments - 3 years of cosmetology - great job! - and even making High Honor Rolls. We love you and wish you nothing but the best future!

Love Always,
Mom, Dad,
& Kelly

Ryan,
Well, this is where life begins. Now it's up to you to make your dreams come true. We believe in you because we see you get motivated in whatever you do. Whether it's football, baseball, wrestling, track & field or Tae Kwon-do, (just to mention a few), you amaze us at how when you set your mind to do something, you can do anything, and if you didn't succeed at something or have been let down, you never let that keep you down. You just shake it off and try again. We are proud of you because you never give up. Always strive for your dreams and remember that we will always be there for you.

Love,
Mom & Dad & Kayla

Matt,

You've made us very proud. We know you can accomplish anything you set out to do. Don't lose sight of your goals, and always know that we're here for you no matter what.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Kelly

John,

Since the time you were born, I knew that you were someone special. Now as you begin your new journey in life, the world will also know. Your Dad is smiling down upon you.

I Love You,

Mom, Dad, Amy, & Tiffany

You brightened the world on the day you were born and brought love to our home as you grew...

You were a child full of spunk, determination, sunshine and laughter—

Remember the things you would do?

Caring has always been a part of your life—

You're concerned with how others might feel...

And people who know you respond to your kindness, because they can tell that it's real.

It's hard to believe how quickly you've grown and all you've already achieved.

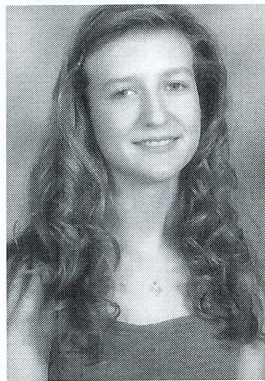

We are so proud of your beautiful, free spirit, which has helped you because you believe. And it's just the beginning, you're sure to do more—

It's a fact the future will show. So remember, the love and support of your family are with you wherever you go.

Love,
Dad & Mom

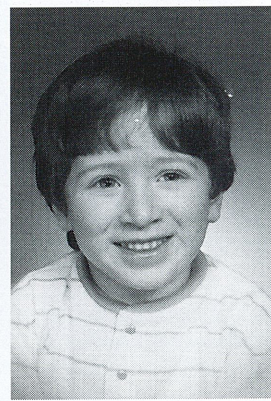

Crystal,
We are very proud of you and we are honored to have you for our daughter.

We wish you a very happy future.

Love,
Mom and Calvin
Dad and Linda

Justin,
It seems like just yesterday that we brought you home (with your flaming red hair) from the hospital. Now it's graduation time. You have given us so much happiness watching you grow. We were proud of you as a child and are even more proud of the fine young man you have become. Know that we will always love you and be here for you. The secret to success: stay the way you are. May all your dreams come true.
Love,

Mom and Dad
David and Eric

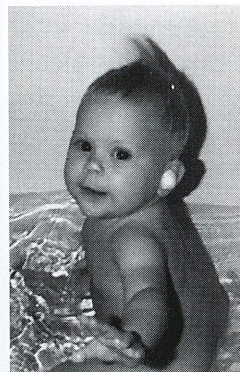

Nicole,
We have always been proud to have you as a daughter and even more now that we see what a wonderful young woman you have become. You are a great joy in our lives. Good luck in everything you do in the future. Remember wherever life takes you, we will always be with you with all our love and support.

Love,
Mom and Dad

"Rookie of the year"
Congratulations
Rebecca!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Juelie,
Sometimes I do not tell you how proud of you I really am. You have grown from this cute little baby, into a wise and respectful young lady! "Congratulations" I love you!

Mom

Mandy and Crissy,
How proud we are of you two!
You have brought us nothing
but happiness, and in return, our prayers are that God will continue to guide you on the wonderful and exciting path you started as "wormies" 18 years ago.

With Love,
Mom, Dad, and Mike

Jeremy,
It's hard to believe you can be 18 so fast and graduating. The years have flown by...but not without us noticing
the wonderful person you have become.
We are so proud of you. You have within you what it takes to be a success. You are a very special person.
Never forget these things, and always remember that we will always be here for you.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Jared

Nicole Dodd,

You have brought joy and sunshine into our lives. You have made us so proud of all your accomplishments. Good luck at Penn State. May your future be happy and successful and all your dreams come true. We will always be there for you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Amanda, and Ashley

Diana,

Although your high school years have come to an end, there are bigger and better things ahead of you.

Dad and I are very proud of you and all the things you have accomplished so far and we know that you will be successful no matter what you decide to do.

We love you very much and wish you all the best for the future.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jody, & Lauren

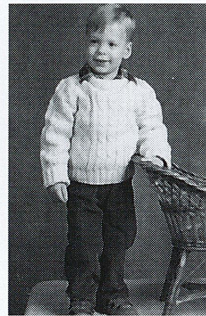

Abby,
The graduation you've been waiting for is finally here! We're proud of the wonderful child you were and the beautiful, spirited young woman you have become. You have a goal and we know you will achieve it. Do what you love and success and happiness are sure to follow. We love you very much.

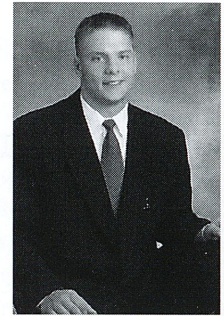

Dad, Mom & Laura
P.S. Did you get those outfits at Contempo?

Matthew,

Congratulations on your graduation! We have always been proud of you. May God bless with health, happiness and success. Our love and prayers are with you always.

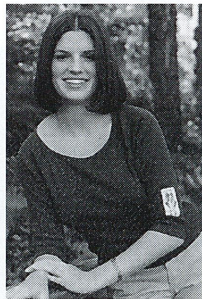

Love,
Dad, Mom, & Mike

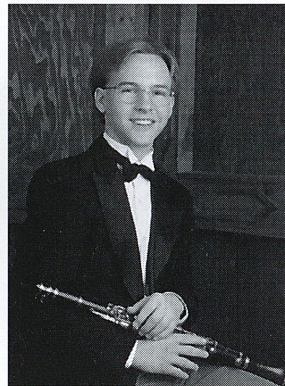

Ashlee,

It's hard to believe 18 years have gone so quickly! It has been an honor and a pleasure raising you. You have so many gifts, we know you will succeed in all you do. Thank you for the beautiful memories. You're the cream floating to the top!

Lots of Love — Mom, Dad, and Adam

To Shawn;

Duty is the sublimest word in our language.

Do your duty in all things.

You cannot do more.

You should never wish to do less.

—Robert E. Lee

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Crystal,

Our Precious Little Girl. The years have passed by so quickly. You have gone from our "Little Kitten" to the most wonderful, intelligent young woman any parents could ask for. Keep up all your great work — we are so very proud of you. We love you very much.

Love, Mom & Dad

Ashley Rose,
Where have the years gone? Seems as if only yesterday
you were playing dress up and selling string bracelets!
Now you are graduating from high school and starting college. Thank you for making us proud so many times.
We've enjoyed watching you perform in school musicals and plays. You are a beautiful, talented young lady.
Words can not express all the love we feel in our hearts for you. You've been a blessing to our family. May God bless you. We are always here for you.
Congratulations on your graduation and your scholastic achievements!

Love always,
Mom, Dad & Justin
Jeremiah 29:11

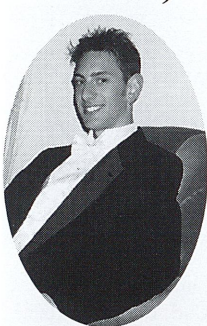

Laura,

It seems like just yesterday, when we taught you how to walk and talk. And now you are a beautiful young lady that is getting ready to go out into the world.
Follow your heart and you will be sure to succeed in whatever you choose to do.
Always remember that no matter where your life takes you, we will always be here for you. We love you and are very proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jess

Chad,

Eighteen years ago graduation seemed so far away...We never dreamt this day would come so soon! Thank you for filling our lives with so much love and laughter.
We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We wish you nothing but the best in the future. God bless you all the days of your life.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Nikki

Cody,

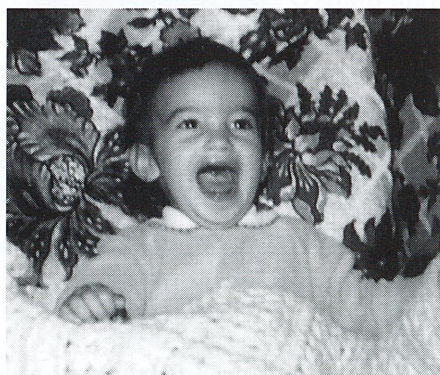

We were there when you
began this journey called life.
We're here as you continue on the next phase of your voyage.
We are very proud of you and wish you all the success you deserve.

All our love,
Grandma and Pa Pa

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kristen, Tommy, & Kaitlin

Bobby,
Congratulations!
We are very proud of you and wish you nothing but the best as you enter a new and exciting chapter in your life. Good luck in the big city.

Nicole,

Thanks for all the happy moments we've shared in the past eighteen years. We're looking forward to the many more. We're proud of the hard work you put into this yearbook. Enjoy it for many years to come.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Frankie

Susie,

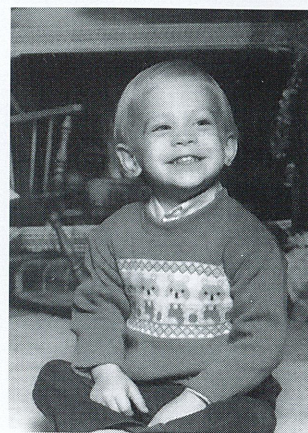

We are so proud of you! You have done everything that you have set your mind to and we know you will continue to all through your life.
May all your dreams come true.

"Little Punkie,"
We love you!
Mom, Dad, & Terri

Mike,

You have brought us so much pride and happiness in the last 18 years. We have watched you go from an energetic little boy to an intelligent, caring, and responsible adult. You have always set high goals for yourself & we know you will succeed at whatever the future holds. Good Luck at Duquesne.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Rissy

Sweet Pea,

I love you for all that you are and all that you will be. I have always been proud of you. Believe in your talents and abilities.

Spread your wings and soar to great heights. Follow your passion.

Love,
Mom

Joelle,

We are proud of you and all of your accomplishments. Your determination and ability will help make all of your dreams reality.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jannine,
Joey, Julie & Jillian

We Love You,
Love,
Mom and Dad

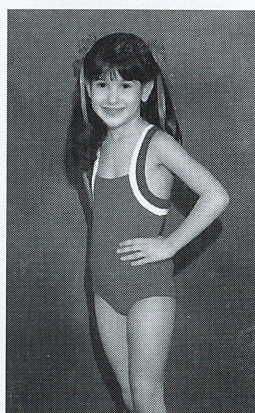

Cara,
To Our Shining Star,

We've watched you blossom from a special independent little girl, to a bright beautiful young lady with such a determination to succeed. We are very blessed to have a daughter as wonderful as you. We wish you all the best in everything you do. Congratulations! We are so proud of you.

Best Wishes for a Bright Future!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Shannon,
Congratulations!!! We are very proud of your hard work and accomplishments. We know that your brightest days are yet to come as you start your college career. Keep all your hopes and dreams alive in your heart; they will take you to your finest destinations in life.

With all our love, Mom, Dad, Brandon and your pups, Sydney and Brittany

Corie,
We have been blessed with a wonderful daughter. You have worked very hard and we're so
proud of you.

Continue to strive for your future goals.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Chrissie, and Colleen

Beth,

You never cease to amaze us. From a shy little girl, you developed into a confident young woman, willing and able to plead your case in the Mock Trials of 1999 and 2000 and you speak your mind via your columns in the Valley News Dispatch. I believe you shocked yourself by becoming a National Merit Scholarship Finalist.

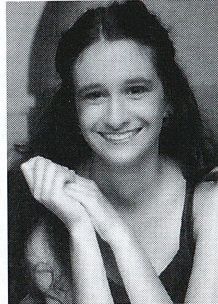

May you never give up your idealistic views nor cease to stand up for those who need a helping hand. We love you and are so proud to be the parents of Mary Elizabeth (Beth) Hommel.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Jess,

Children are a blessing from God. You have certainly fulfilled that in every way. It has been an awesome adventure to live with you and to watch your gifts and talents blossom and develop.

We will miss you terribly, but we know that wonderful experiences await you.

All our love,
Dad & Mom

Dear Dan (Putz)

We have changed a lot and then some, some Know that we have always been down, down

And if I didn't ever thank you,

you
Then just let me do it now.

I can't thank you enough for all you've done for me and how happy you've made my life.
You mean so much to me. I can see so much inside of you and I know you're going to take this world by storm. I love you so much. Always and forever.

Your girl, Jody Lynn

FROM THE CLASS OF 2000

I would like to personally thank...

...God, for abundantly blessing me in life.
 ...My Mom and Dad, for always supporting me in literally every possible way.
 ...My Family, especially my Grandma, Grandpa, and Aunt Stella, for always being there.
 ...Fr. Joe, for being my spiritual leader and my adopted Grandfather.
 ...Charmae, for always doing crazy things and making me laugh.
 ...Katie Falk and Beth Hommel, for always being there during "A" and "B" lunch in the SAR.
 ...Mike Domiano, Jenelle Kneppshield, Sabrina Spiher, Carley Deibler, Nicole Bowser, Jessica Terrana, Amanda Bundle, Chad Bozzarelli, Danielle Butera, Nicole Dodd, Bob Bowser, and Nikki Potocnak, for keeping my secrets and being such great friends.
 ...All of my Friends, for Always lending an ear and a supportive shoulder.
 ...All of my Enemies, for opening my eyes to "the real world."
 ...Dr. Meighan, Mr. Dick, and Mr. Donati, for always flashing a friendly smile and offering a "Hello!"
 ...The Entire Faculty of Kiski Area, for being great role models, people, and friends.
 ...Mr. Fassio, for putting up with my shenanigans.
 ...Mr. DeSantis, for being like the "big brother" I never had.
 ...Mr. Woitas, for being my "crazy honey-bunches," and Mrs. Woitas, for letting him be.
 ...Mr. Duppstadt and Mrs. Chierici, for being so helpful in my college and scholarship processes.
 ...Mr. Pipkins and Mr. Lucchino, for always giving me the benefit of the doubt and believing in me and the team.
 ...Mr. Fantaski, for being the greatest Yearbook Advisor and always having some sort of clever comment to keep our spirits up.
 ...Everyone who made Kiski Area an experience I won't forget.
 Life is personal experience. Those experiences then leave memories behind. So, make the most of your life and fill it with memories that you won't regret. Look back as little as possible and live your life for today and the future. Most importantly, take the time to tell the special people in your life just how special they are, before it's too late.

To the Kiski Area Senior Class of 2000... Good Luck in the Future.
 Thank You All for the Memories. I'll Miss You, Kiski!

A Place in Our Hearts Kiski Area Class of 2000

Frozen in this book are moments in time — people we will never forget and places we will always remember. Captured forever are the times we've laughed (and some of the times that made us cry) along with the faces we'll still see in our minds years down the road. While we may not remember everything, leafing through these pages will remind us, perhaps not of specific events, but of what it felt like to be young and full of promise. Our high school sends us out into the world, emancipated after thirteen years, to discover ourselves and to begin our learning from Life where our formal education left off. On our graduation day we stand, ready to meet the challenges ahead of us, leaving Kiski with the invisible badges of honor we've earned over the years and the invisible scars that formed over the traumas of youth. We have become adults since that day we entered these now-familiar sandstone-colored halls four short years ago.

Kiski Area has provided us with many lessons and experiences — whether or not we've learned from our time spent here is anyone's guess. We've spent our time studying physics with Mr. DeSantis, setting in volleyball, running mile after long mile with Mr. Argyros, begging research paper sources from Mr. Kulas, running like there's no tomorrow in track, reading scripture with Mr. Moore and the Bible club, playing kickball with the Life Skills Class, singing in the musicals, acting in the plays, tutoring with NHS, baking bread with the Key Club, shelving books in the library, running passes as an office or guidance worker, saving the earth with the Environmental Club, putting the guilty away with Mr. Norton's Mock Trial team, running the morning announcements with AV and Good Morning Kiski, dancing at the Prom, crowning our homecoming queen, showing off our talents, enjoying our time out of school, putting on the Telethon with Student Council, demanding quotes with the Yearbook Staff and Mr. Fantaski, tackling, rocking on with the cheerleaders, conjugating verbs in German with Mr. Pipkins, scoring in hockey, going for the goal, buzzing in at Quiz Team, teeing off, serving in tennis, slam dunking, diving, pinning our opponents, factoring those goodies with Mrs. Scales, sliding into home plate, working on the Lit Mag and newspaper with Mr. Trunzo and Mrs. Gero, hitting a home run, training, marching in the band, and singing with the chorus. We've had the opportunity to learn much from our time spent in this place and only time will show if we have learned our lessons well.

—Beth Hommel
